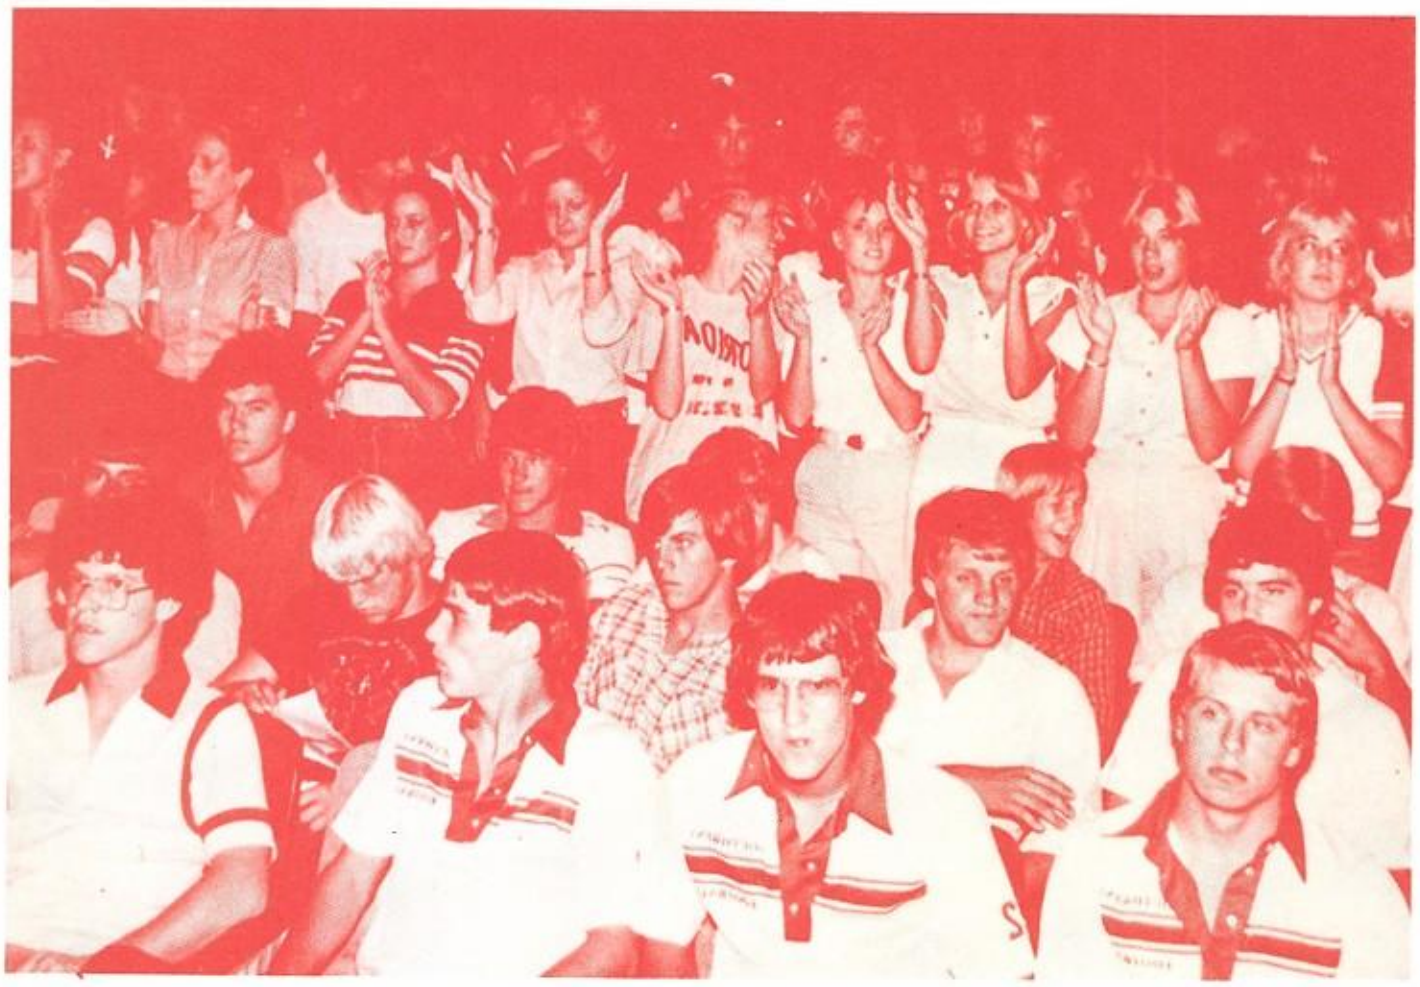
Activities

Activities is the section of the yearbook that will serve as your very own film library. This section also covers everything that happened at Southwest from elections of class officers, to graduation. In the years to come, when the memories are fading, you can turn to this section and re-run the events of your 1980-81 school year at Southwest.

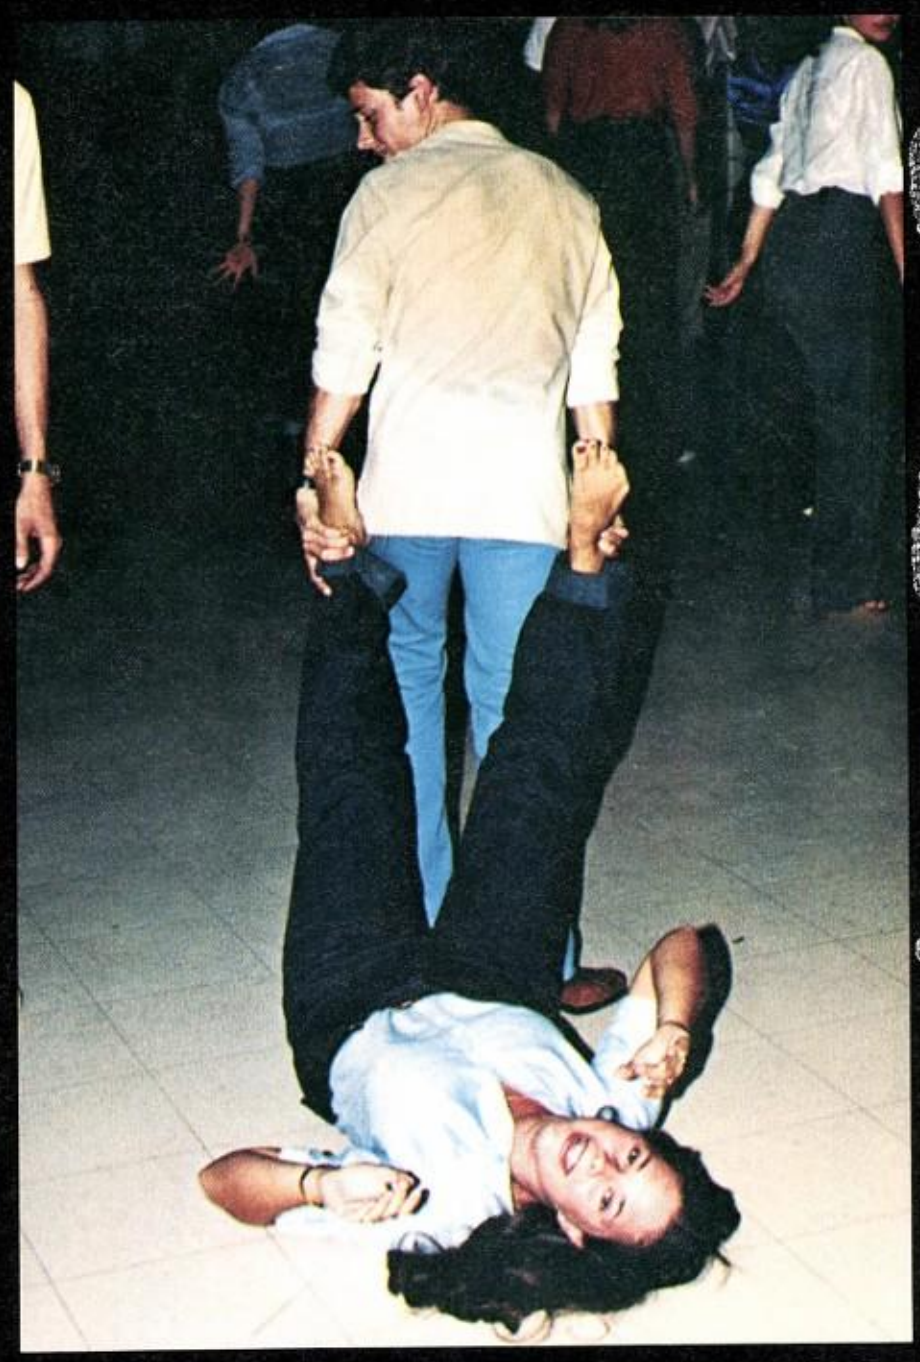


Rebel Faces

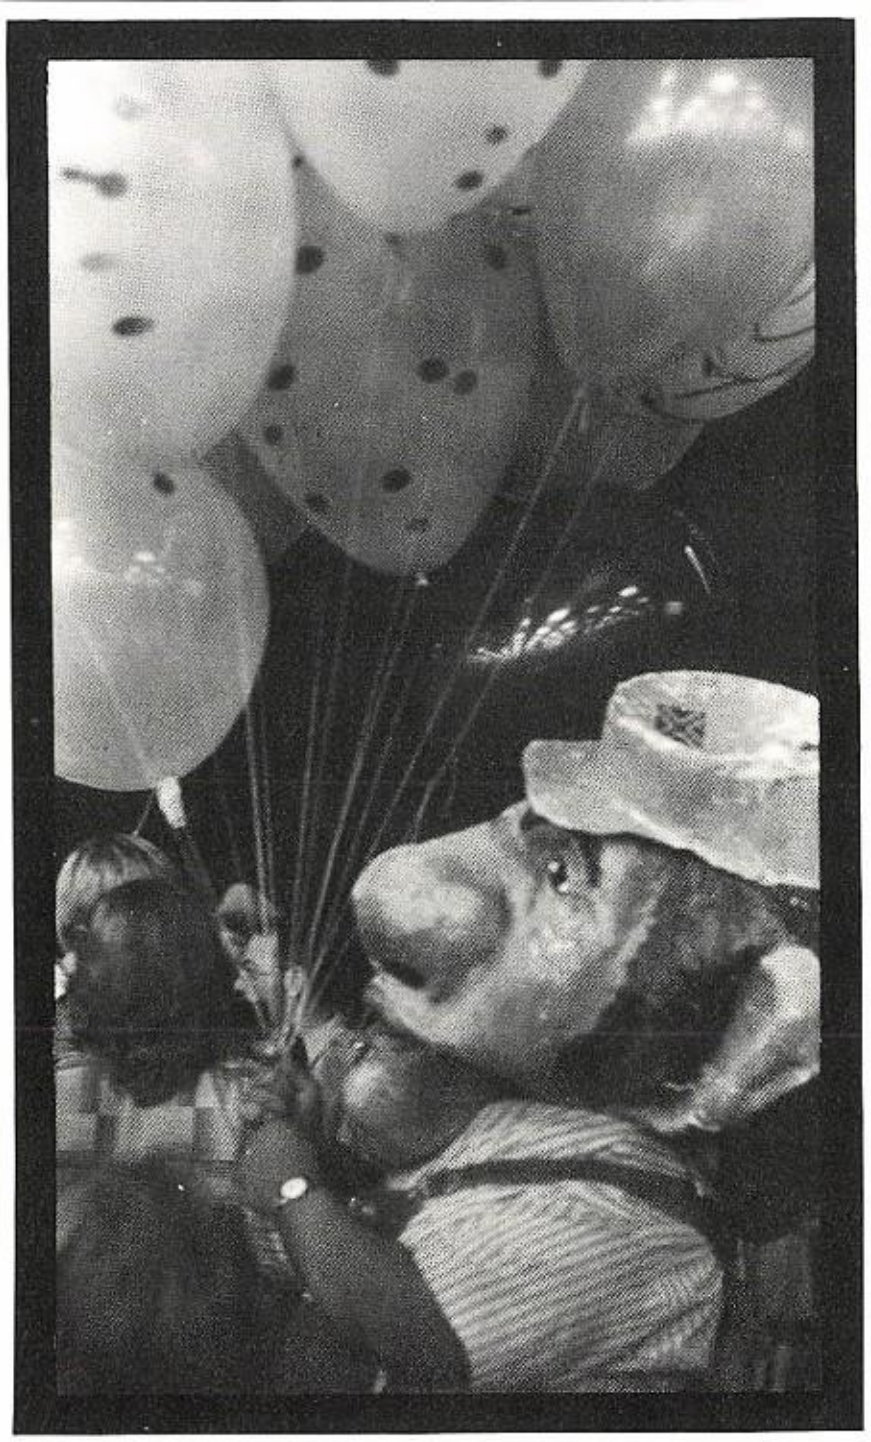
Students at Southwest participate in many varied activities. Rebels may be found in pep-rallies, at football games, at Friday night dances, or decorating for Homecoming. These activities are all a part of the total experience a student has during his four years at Southwest. Just as a movie tells a story, this experience called high school is remembered, beginning to end, reel to reel.

Coach Dansby gives J.V. football team a pep-talk during half-time.

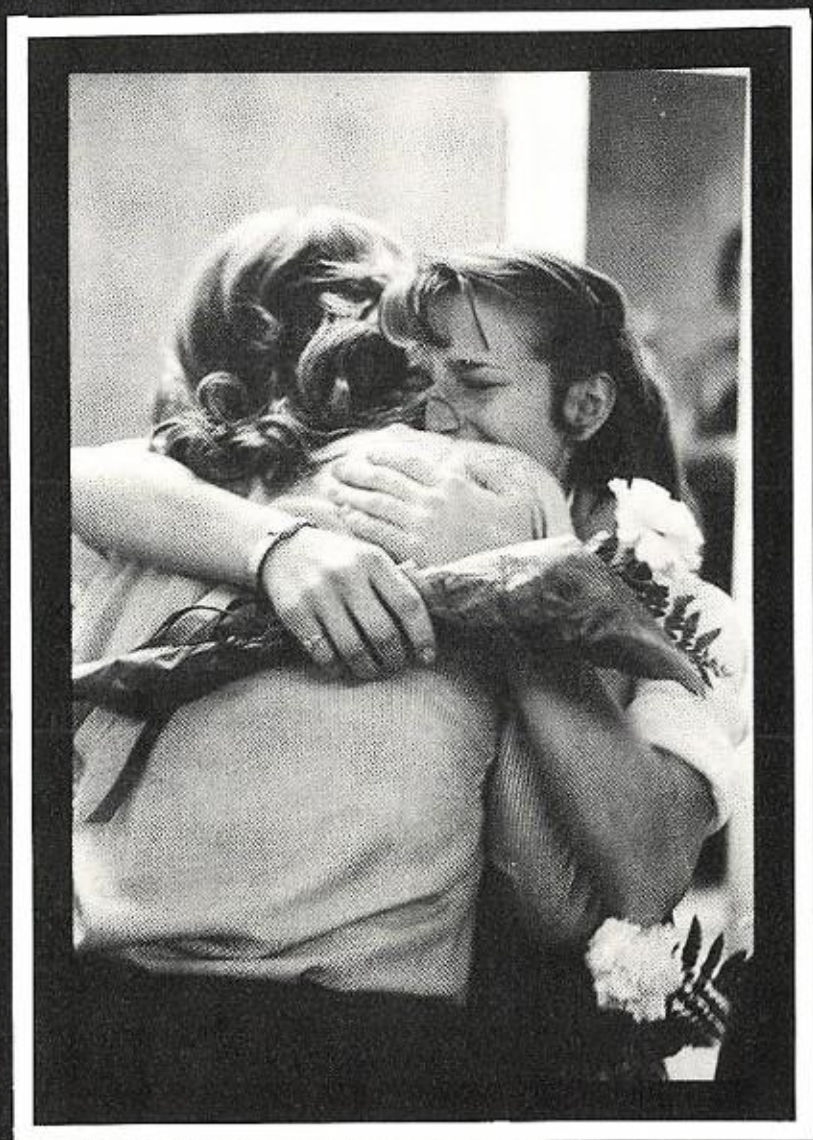
Freshmen cheerleaders show their version of one of the Rebel cheers.



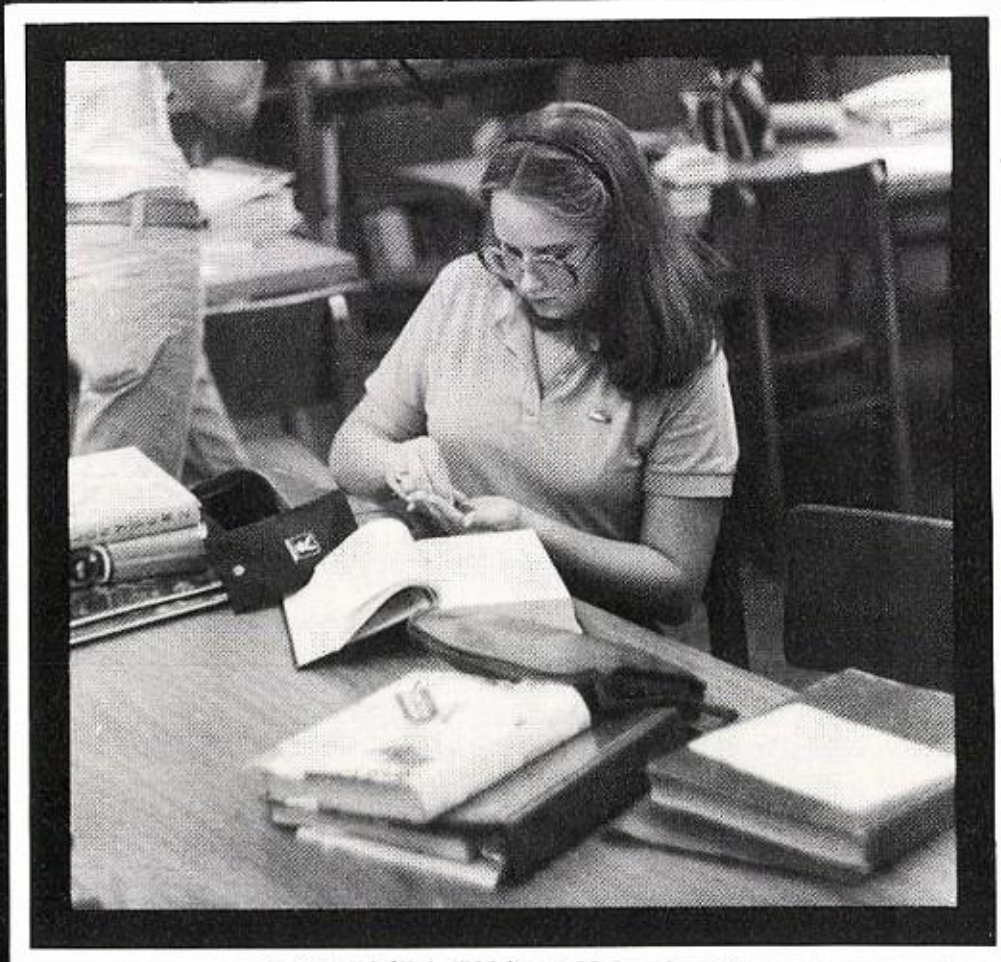
Ross Jones and Amy Manning demonstrate the newest dance craze "The Cave Man Drag."



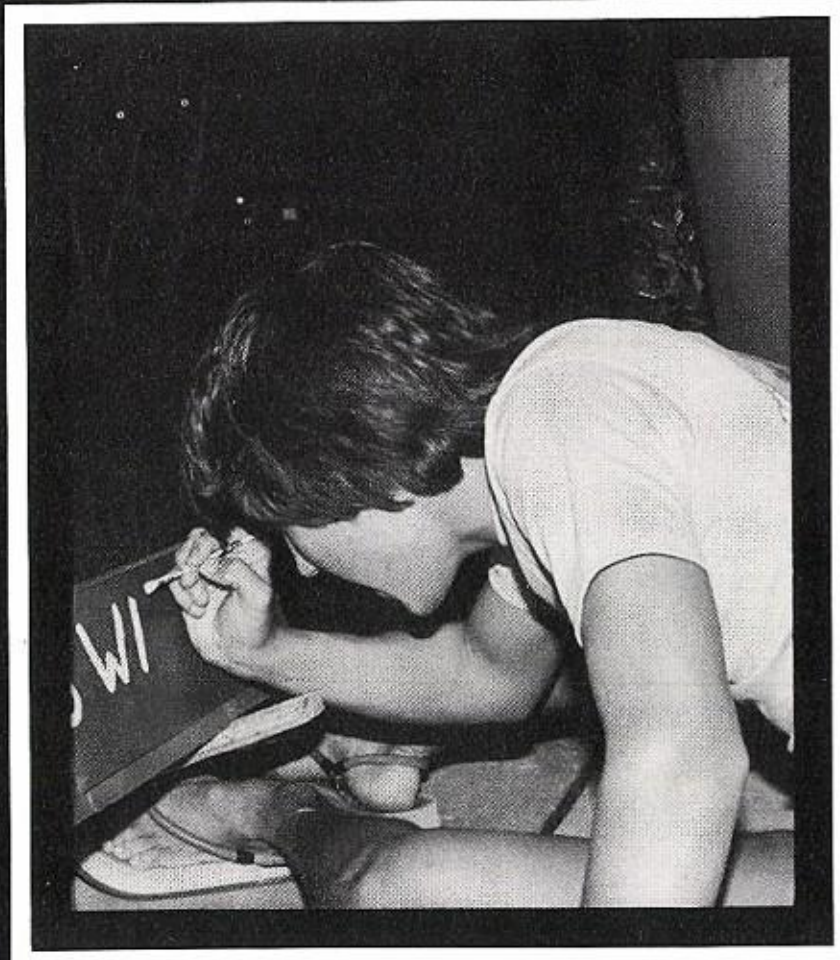
Rebel mascot does his best to hold down his balloons.



Tobye Bensinger expresses her emotions of being elected a J.V. cheerleader.



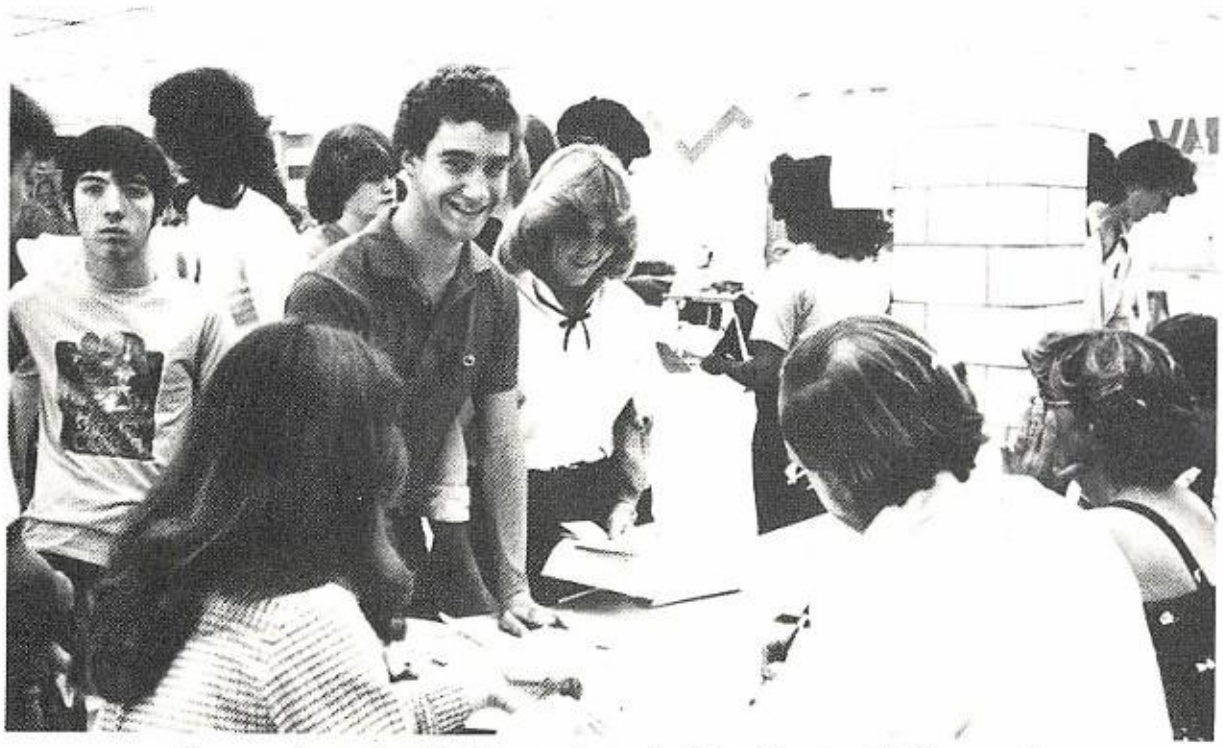
Debra Pruitt practices reading her palm instead of her books.



Allan Kendrick concentrates on trying to make the Senior Homecoming hall a winner.

Registration, Graduation

Registration and graduation mark the beginning and ending of four years of high school. During these four years many activities are participated in, many memories accumulate, and many friends are made. These memories are cherished and live on for years to come.



Two emotions of registration are shown by Brian Harris and Jeff Harwell.

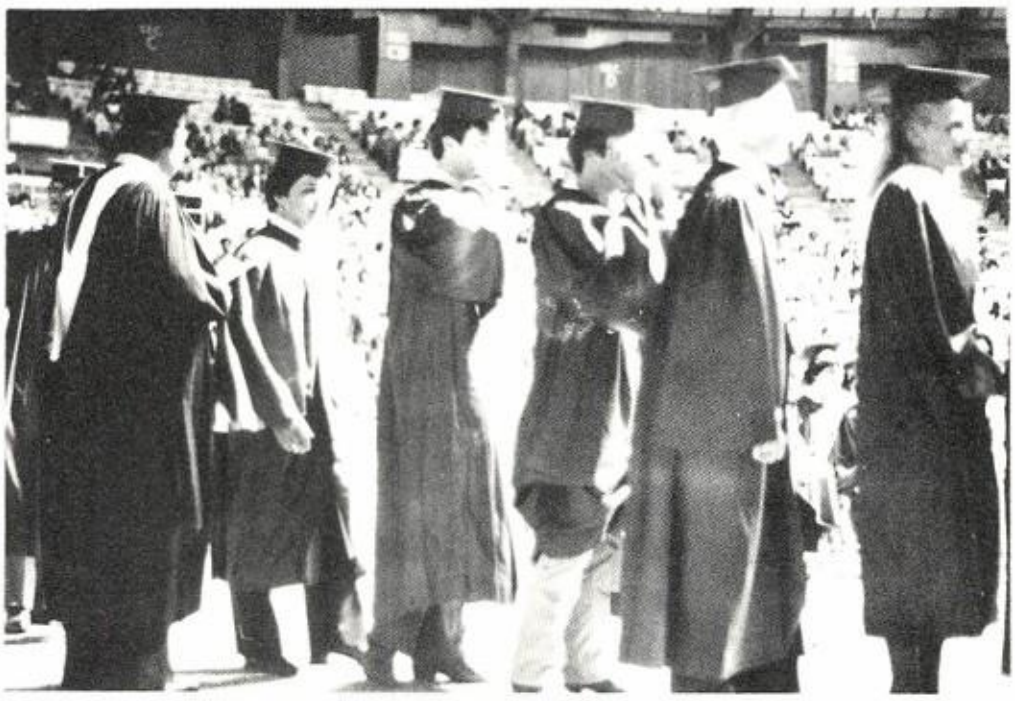
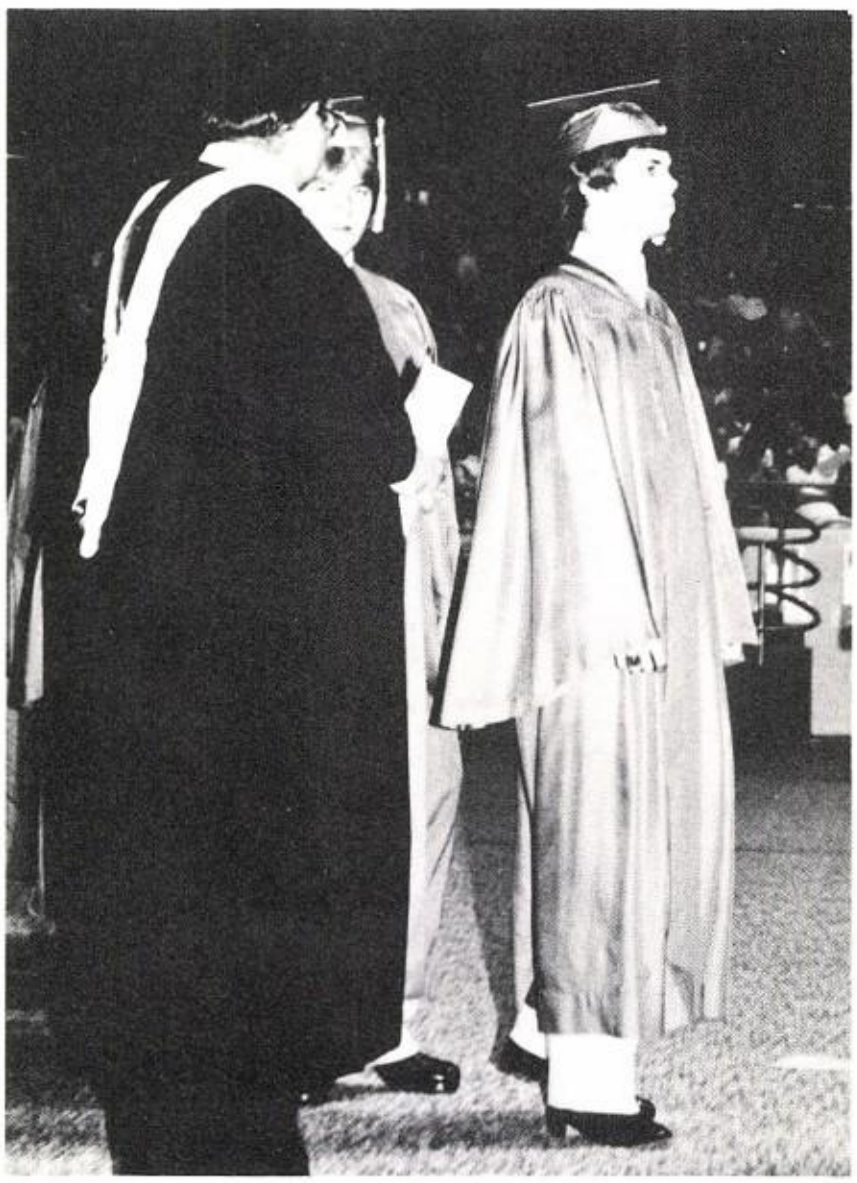
Students find pre-planning their schedule a must.

1980 graduates frantically prepare for the big moment.

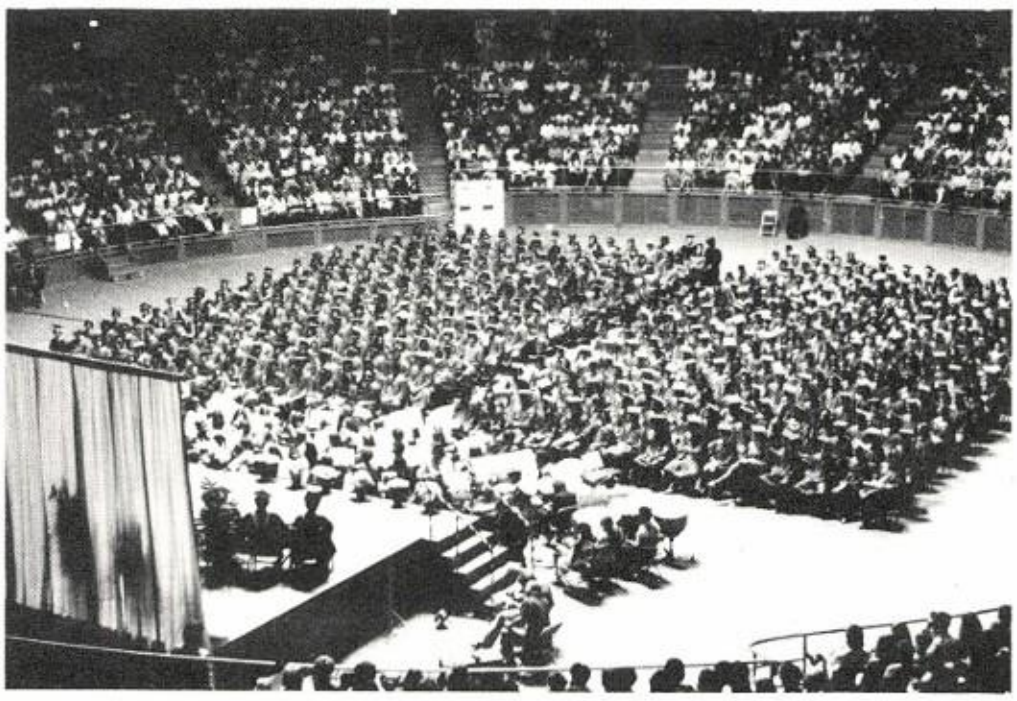
Mr. Thompson puts on the 'ol cap and gown in honor of the occasion.



Anticipation builds as these seniors near their own walk across the stage.



Graduates walk with dignity.



They were great, they didn't mean maybe, they were the class of 1980.

Phyllis Lazo and Jill Johnston pass on a bit of juicy gossip between classes.

Stacey Measures gets chummy with Mr. Mandeville.

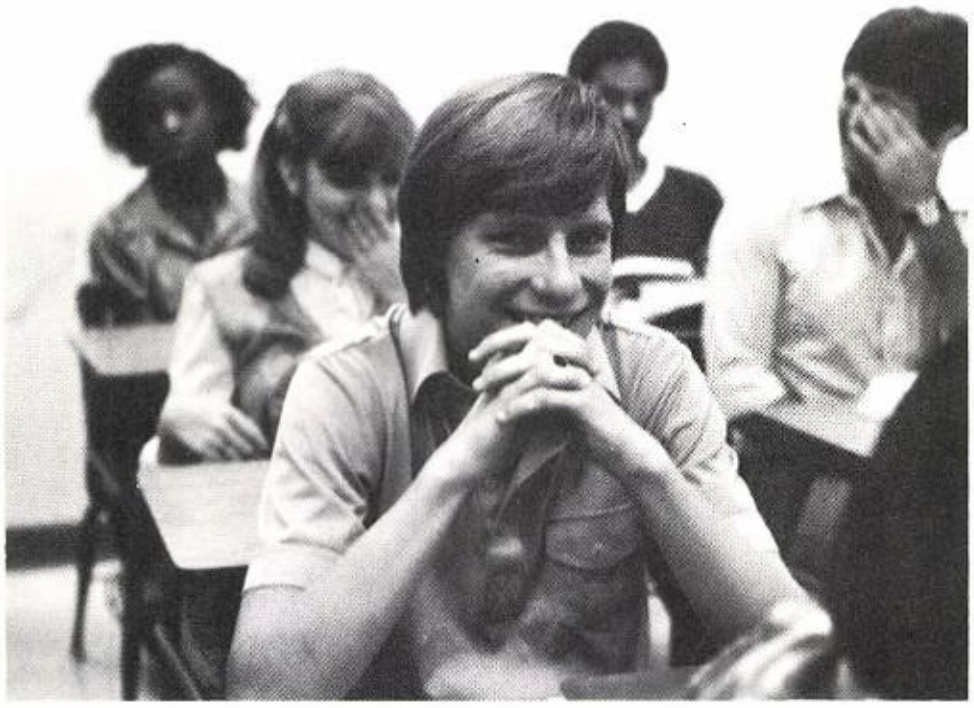
Monica Buchanan thinks REALLY hard, while Mr. Liquid Paper looks on.

Lise Smith is so proud of her results in the Charles Atlas muscle building courses.

David McBeth and Connie McWhorter demonstrate the proper technique for placing books in their locker.

School "Daze"

During a typical day at Southwest, many various activities take place. Time is spent in class, wandering the halls, and making friends. Some class moments fly by fast, while others seem to drag. But, the days at Southwest and the things learned are enjoyable and worthwhile.

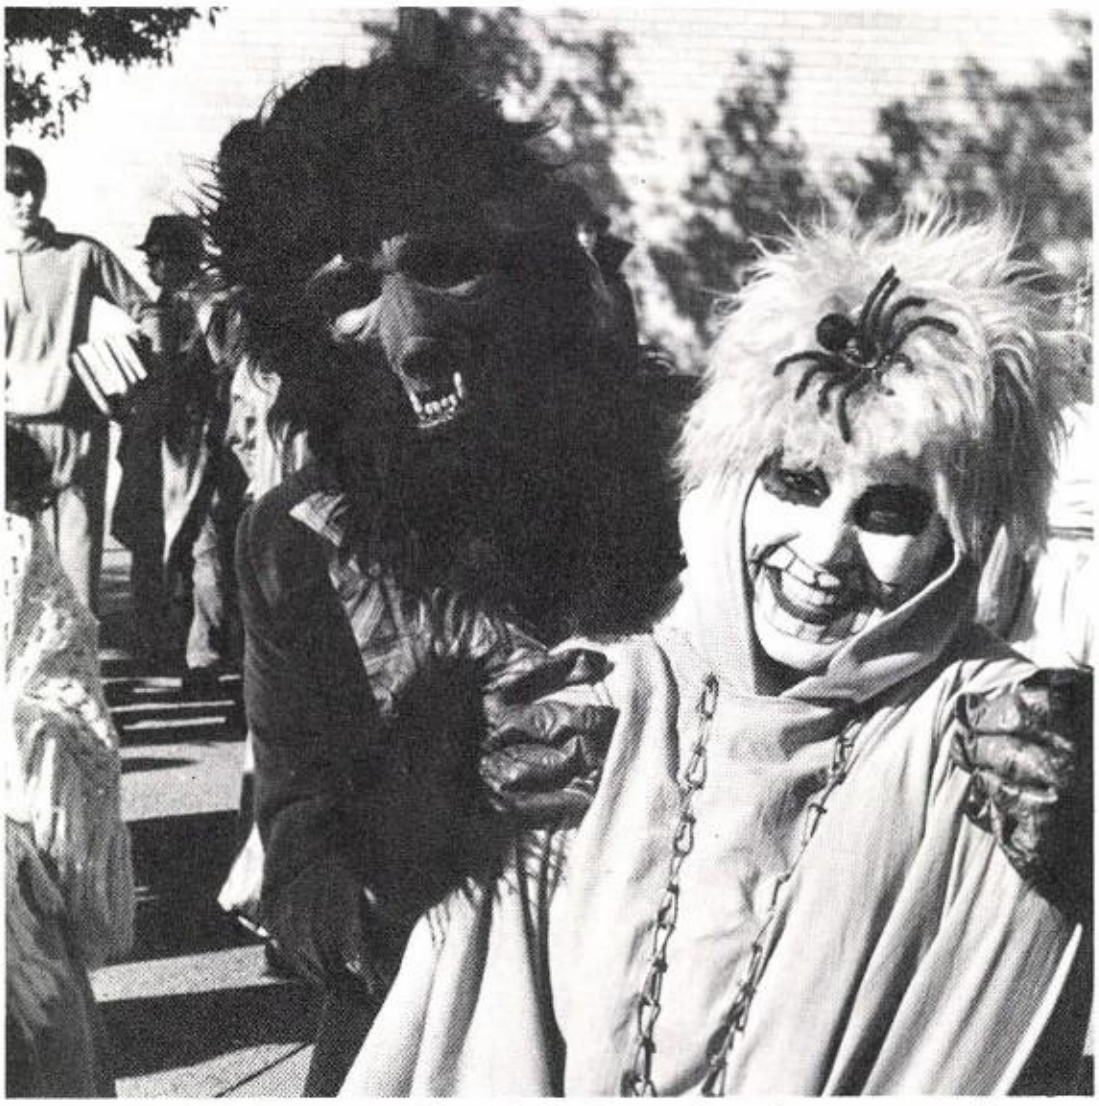


Sam Koppang finds that his Swedish jokes crack-up the class.

"Do you mind, I'm trying to take a test!", growls Tom Miller.

Matt Green finds it more difficult to paint without numbers.

Renee Nicolosi and Brenda Gabioud ask, "Is that for here or to go?"



Doesn't this picture remind you of a bad dream after a big Mexican meal?

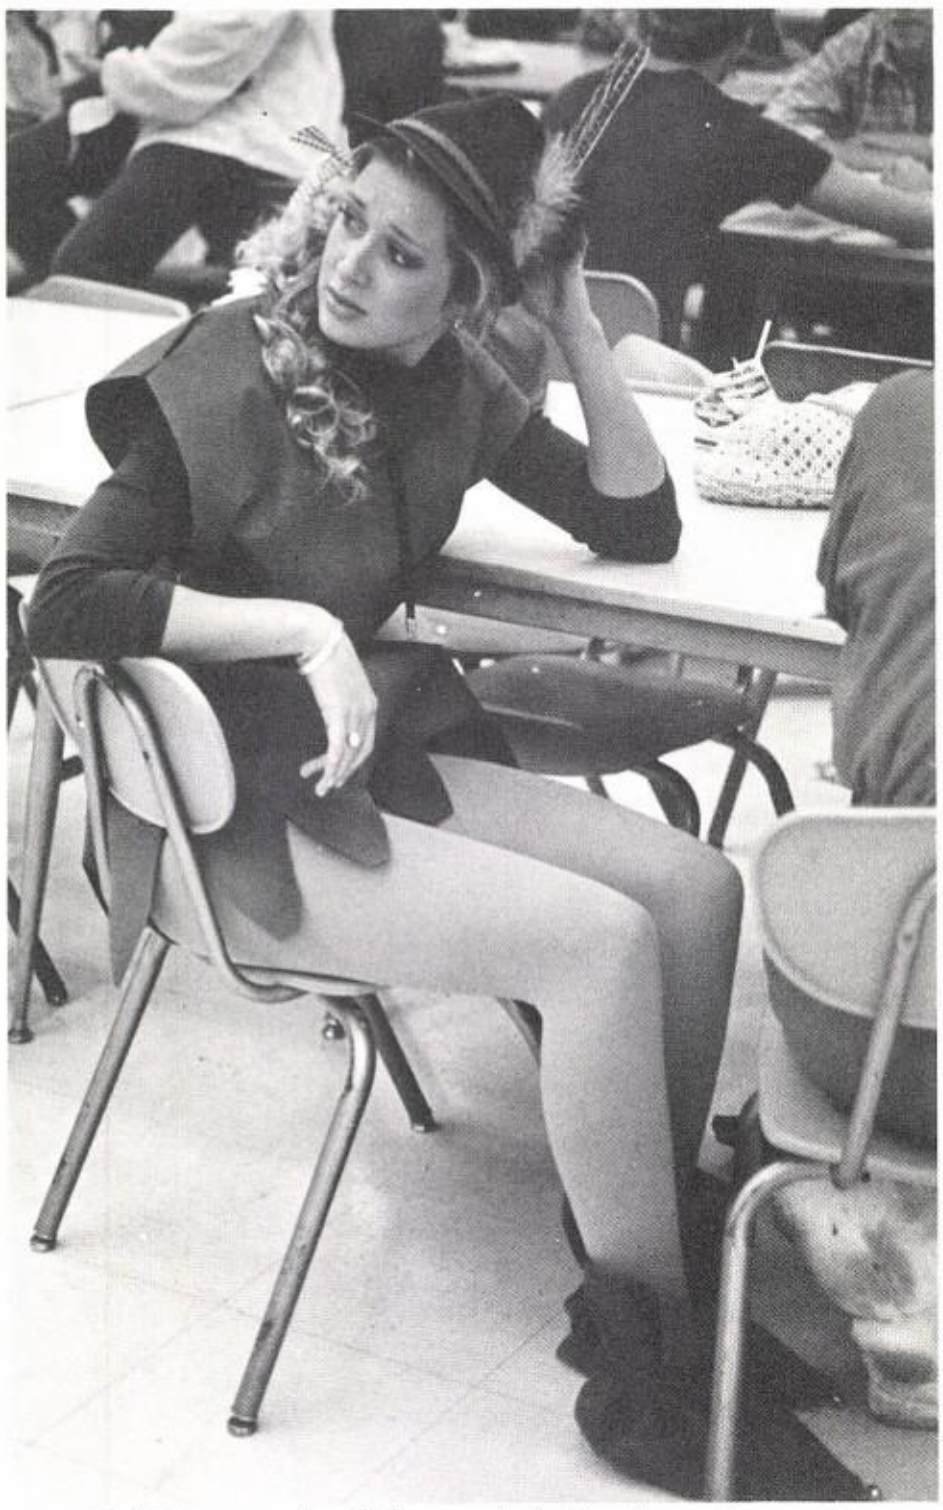
Holly Oliver whines, "I want my mommy!"

Anne Roe and Lisa Sherburne comment "Coke adds life to everything that makes your living nice!"

Shannon Scott asks "What's up, doc?" while David Torsiello flashes her and Mark Bowden.

Halloween Strikes S.H.S.

October 31 marked a traditional day. More students dressed up and showed their enthusiasm than in recent years. Many students put on their most imaginative costume and dared to venture out into the real world of high school. Anyone walking down the halls during a passing period saw a wide variety of costumes ranging from a sweet, innocent girl to lunch at McDonald's.



Beth Monroe ponders, "Where in the heck is Sherwood Forest?"

S-P-I-R-I-T

Each week before a Varsity football game, students gather together to support the football players and show their spirit. A pep rally was held after school each week during the football season to encourage student participation and increase the enthusiasm of fans who attended the games each weekend. All the classes competed for the coveted "Spirit Stick" which was awarded to the class yelling the loudest during a particular cheer. The band, cheerleaders, and the students interacted to get everyone excited about the coming game, as well as getting the football players "fired-up" to bring home a victory.

Seniors Melissa Barton, Derrelyn Watkins, and Teresa Parvin show their spirit.

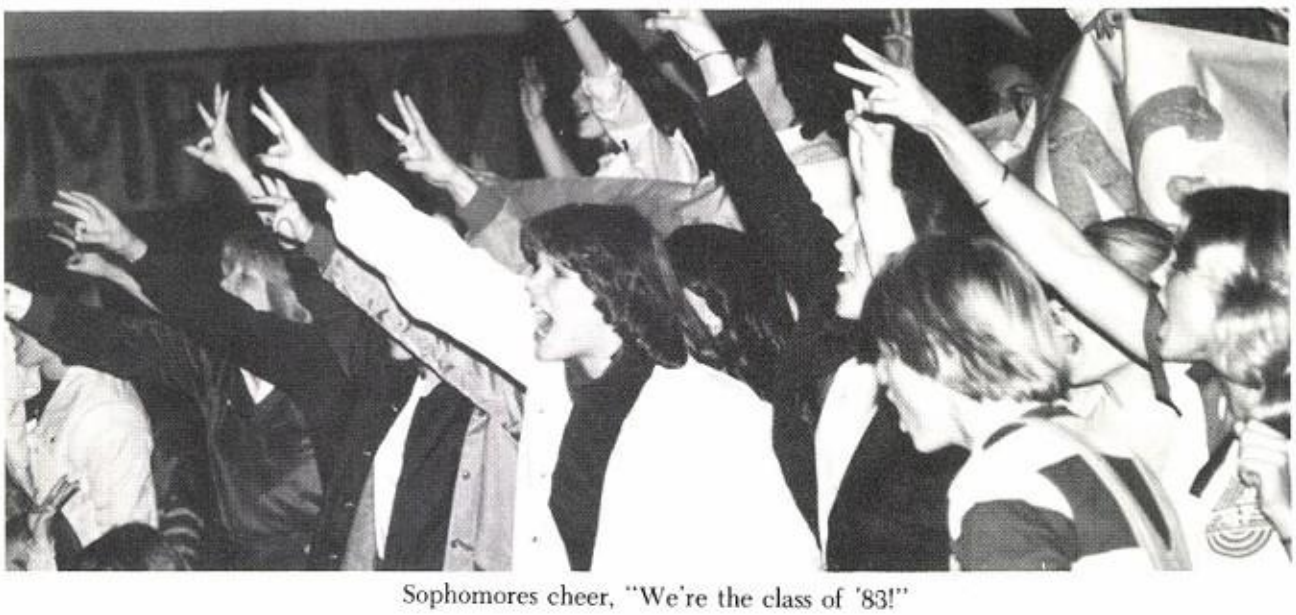
The Big Red Band from Rebel Land dressed up in their most original for their annual "squirrel show".

Mr. Weaver and Mrs. Grier revert back to their high school days of cheerleading.

Cheerleaders receive carnations as thanks for their devoted services.



Sophomores cheer, "We're the class of '83!"

High school provides a ticket to higher education.

Seniors' personalities are expressed in their theme.

Seniors complete the game of high school, known as "Rebelopoly".

Leslie Leach puts the finishing touches on the winning Senior hall.

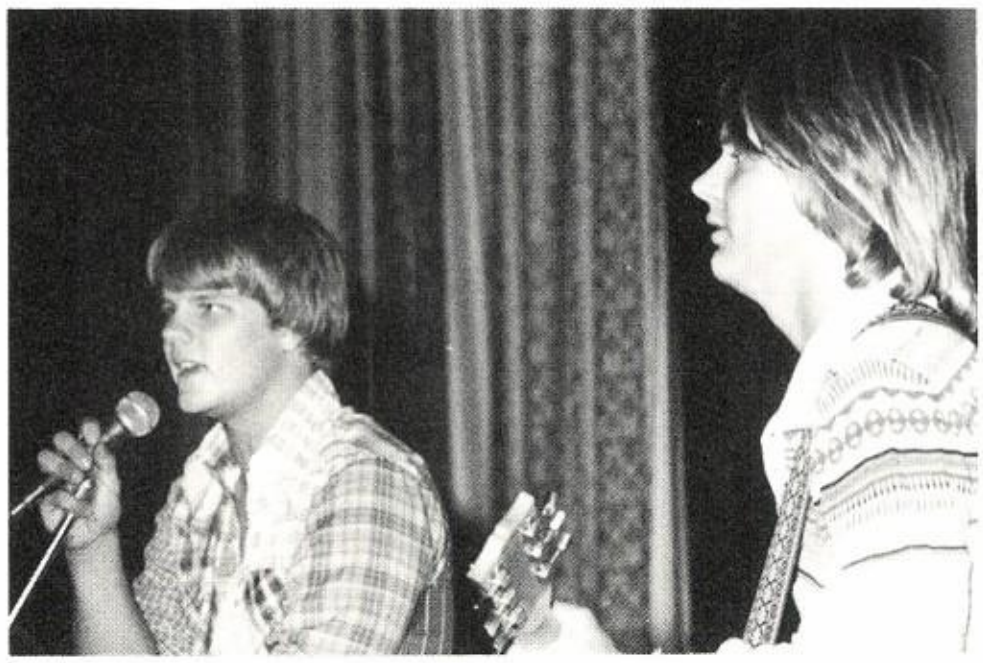
"Can I PLEASE play with the elephants?" asks Valerie Warner.

John Patison and Ray Wade harmonize to a pleasing melody.

Homecoming '80 . . .

Homecoming was an event to remember. Glorious endeavors of our Varsity football team added to the excitement. Spirit rose with the decoration of the halls, was built up by the pep rally, and finally came to a climax with the victory of Southwest over Paschal.

Laura Horton and Holly Oliver add to the final sound.



Brad Herron and Bob Taylor play to a full house.

Shannon Scott and Carrie Grona demonstrate their musical abilities.

SHS Style

The Homecoming weekend ended with a dinner out and a victory dance at the Tarrant County Convention Center where we "boogied" the night away. The next Monday, all the decorations were gone, but glitter remained here and there and the spirit of the weekend was not soon forgotten.

Homecoming queen nominees parade across the stage.

Princess Ingrid Harvey and her proud father gaze into the crowd at halftime.

Daphne Kahn and Sandra Denke "take five" from the rigorous routine of flag corp

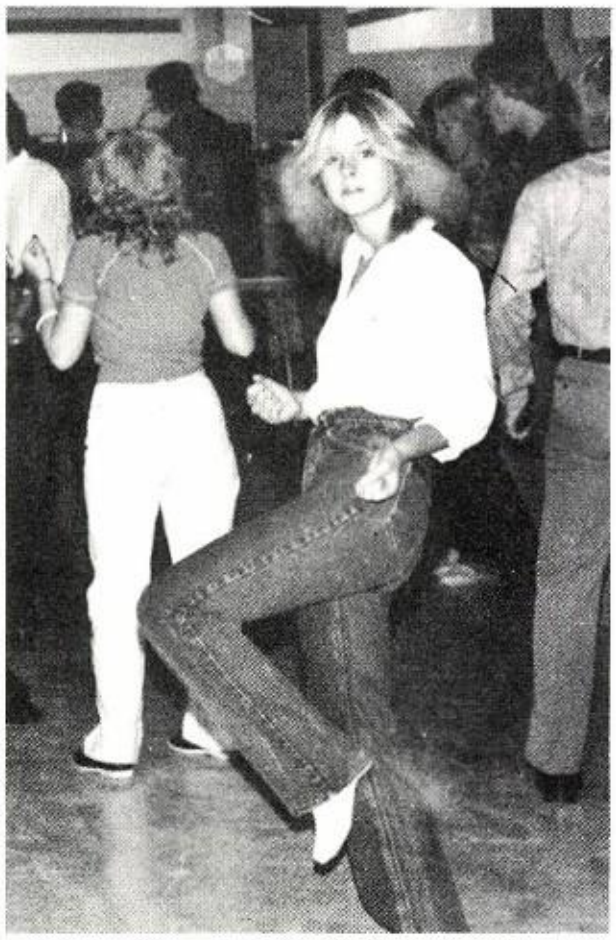
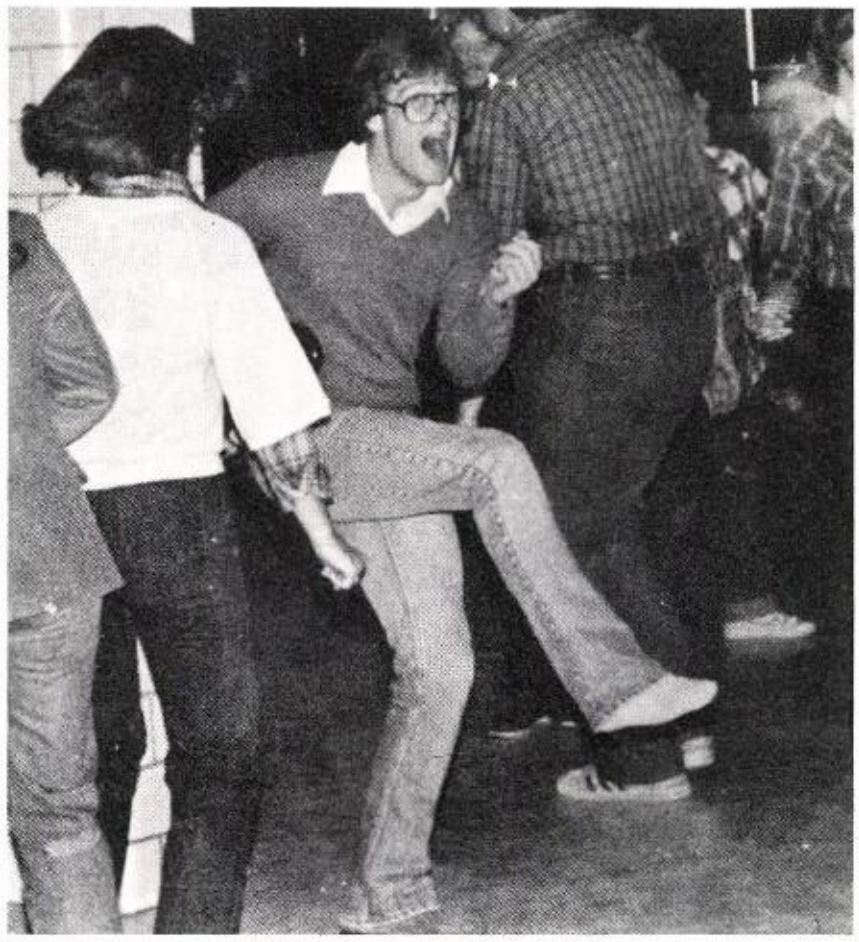
Terri Reinbach boosts spirit.

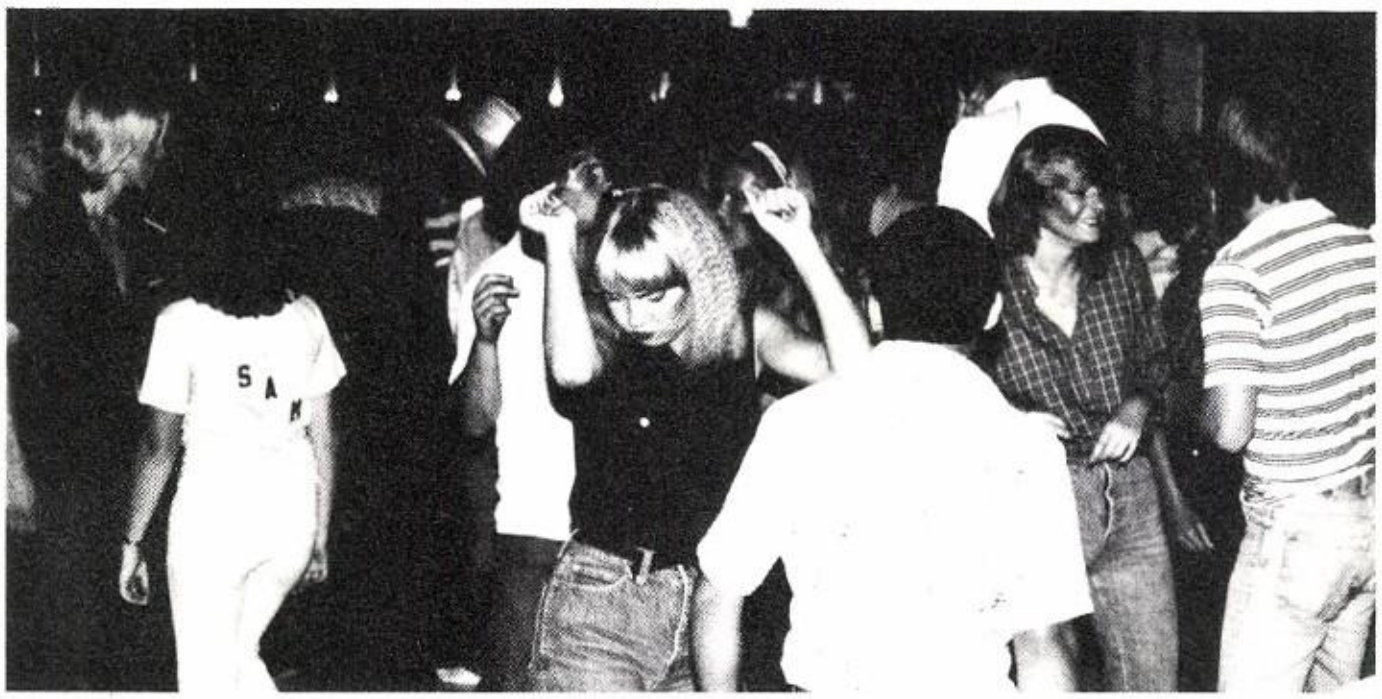
The flag corp battles the wind during their routine.



Carol Reames dances with the invisible man.



David McBeth says, "Look Ma, only one foot!"

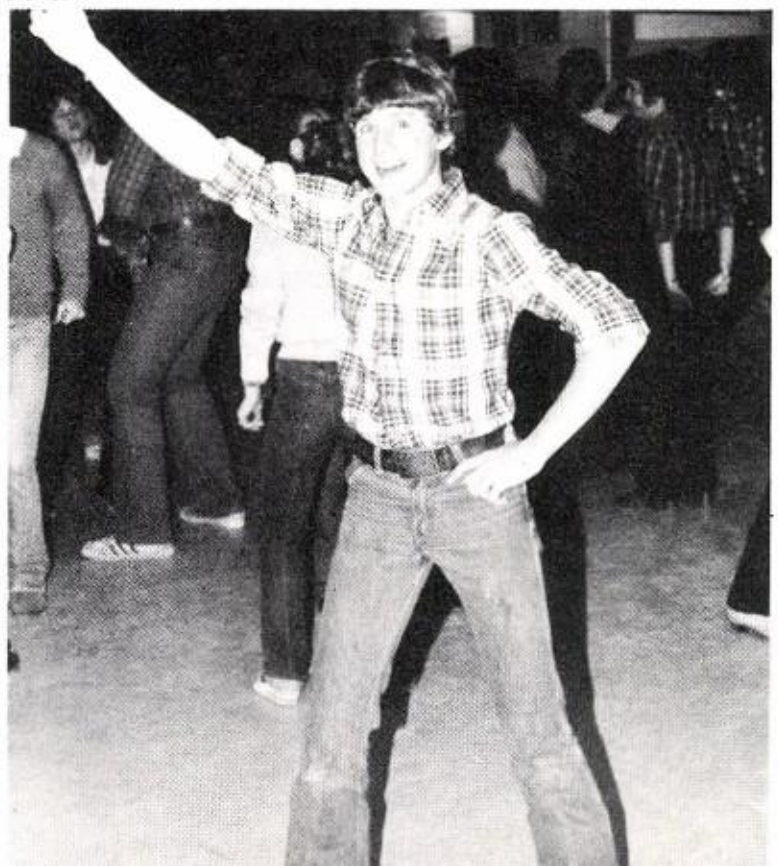


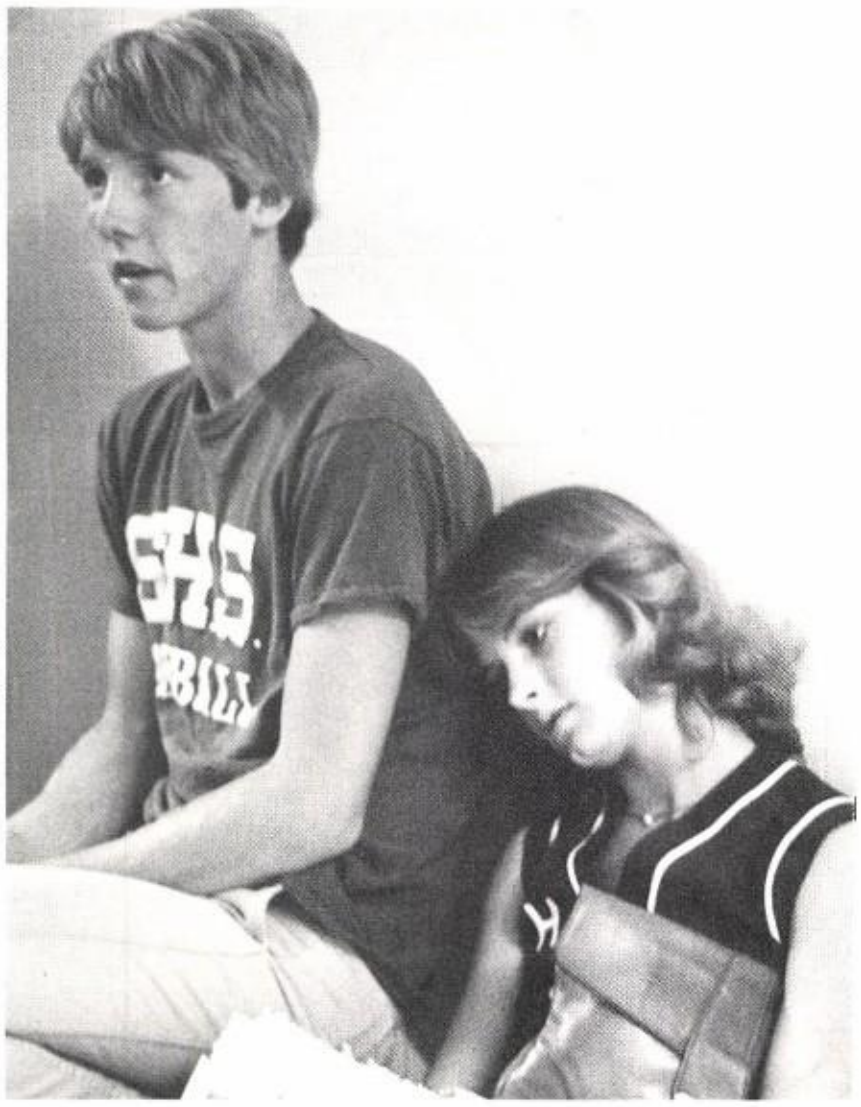
Friday is the night Rebels party.

Rebel Rock

Friday night. The night that Southwest rocks. From 9:00 to Midnight, Southwest is very much alive with boogying of all kinds. The simple, unsuspecting lunchroom by day is transformed into a wild and energetic dancefloor by night. Dances are a welcome break from the tedious week of school. Students find dances a place to unwind, meet new people, have a good time, and mostly just to dance.

John Travolta, alias Jimmy Reagan, has definitely got "Friday Night Fever".





Kirk Godby and Cindy Howington find waiting very hard.

Choosing Cheerleaders

The moment when the new cheerleaders are announced is highly anticipated with much emotion. A lot of practice, sweat, and tears goes into the preparations for this event. The candidates go before the entire student body. The students pick the lucky and talented girls who will cheer our school to victory on the sports field.

Tobye Bensinger finds a friendly shoulder to cry happy tears on.

Anticipation.

A sign of the times from the Homemaking Department.

'Tis the Season

Holidays are looked forward to with much expectation. Plans are made weeks in advance for relaxation, for working extra hours, for seeing friends and relations, and for partying. As always, Southwest students eagerly anticipated Christmas vacation. Never before were more Santa Claus hats seen, and the spirit was definitely in the air. No matter whether the holiday was Easter, Thanksgiving, or Christmas, everyone enjoyed the welcome break from school work.

Will the real Easter Bunny please stand up!

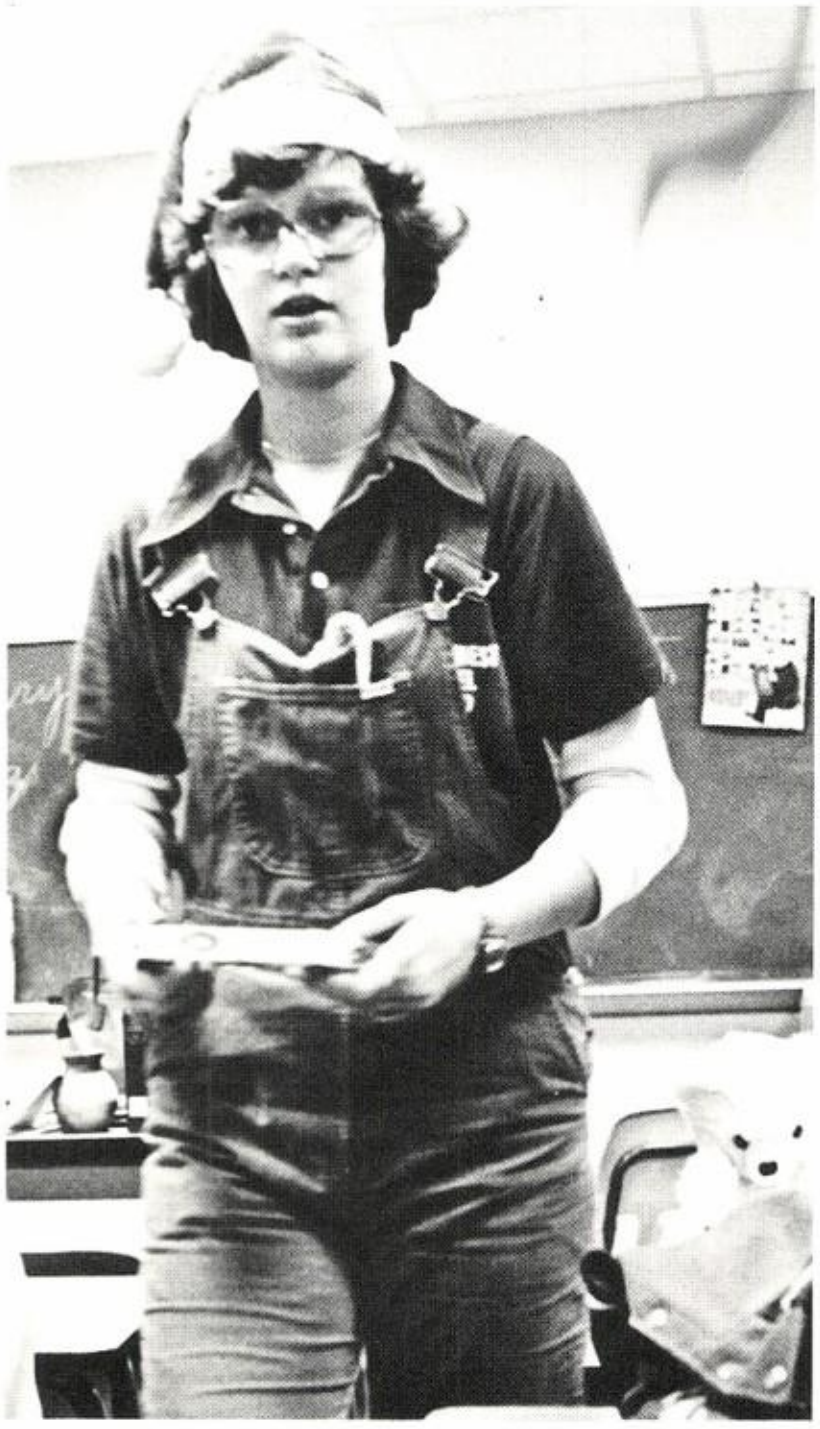
"Whew, am I glad I'm not the real thing."

Tom Miller and Tom Wiemer tell Santa what he'd better give them for Christmas.

Linda Lorio and Missy Gasca anxiously await Santa.

President James Pettus tells Keith Rogers, "Pay before you sniff."



"Ho, ho, ho!" says Lori Haney.

Donna Kyser, Paula Thornton, and Lisa Watkins enjoy making decorations.

Students Enjoy Varied Activities

Students enrolled in Southwest have an opportunity to participate in and enjoy many activities. Always a favorite is the annual Spring musical. Last year's musical was "Annie Get Your Gun" with Darlene Marks in the title role. Also popular is Child Development. This class provides training and experience for those students interested in children and elementary education. One of the most highly anticipated events is the delivery day of the Yee-Haw. Each year, the annual staff selects a theme which is always a surprise to the students. For Seniors, delivery day is especially exciting because it is a chance to see their most important year in pictures.

Brian Harris teaches Darlene Marks, "Annie," the finer points of literature.

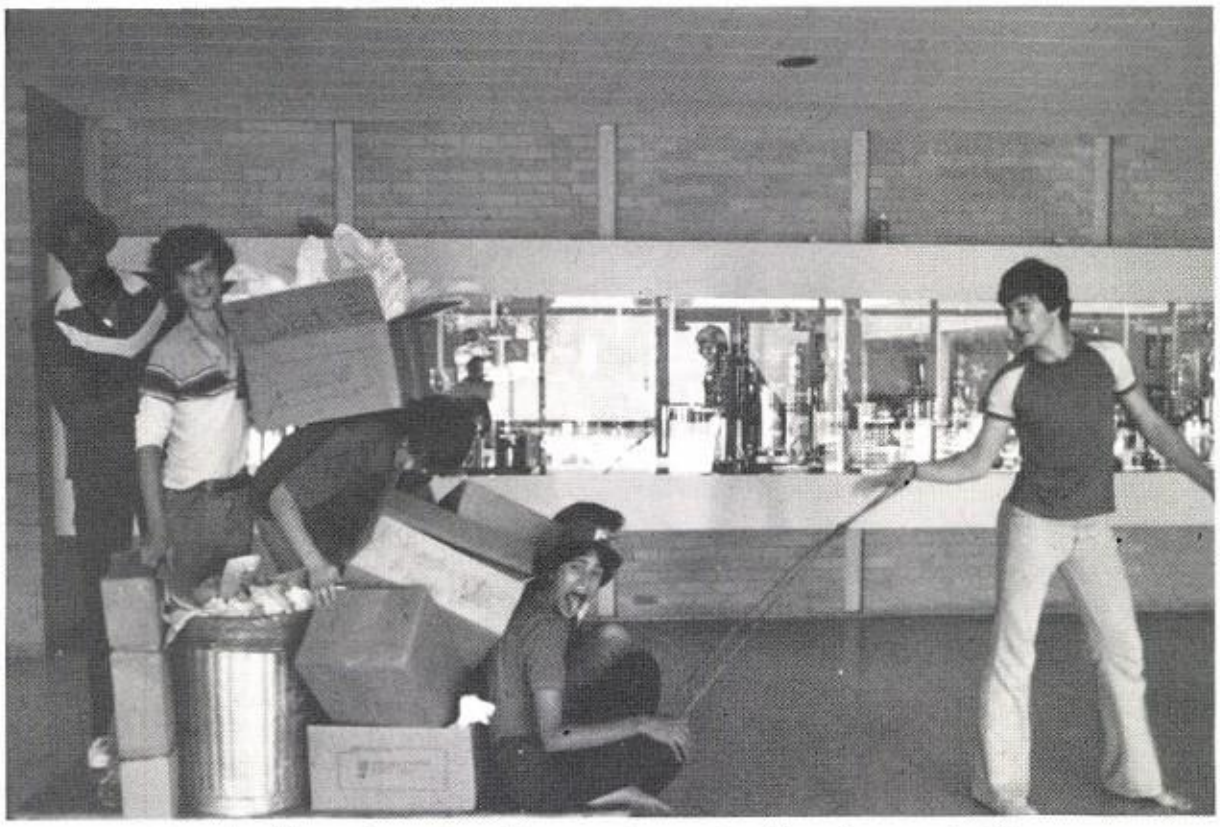
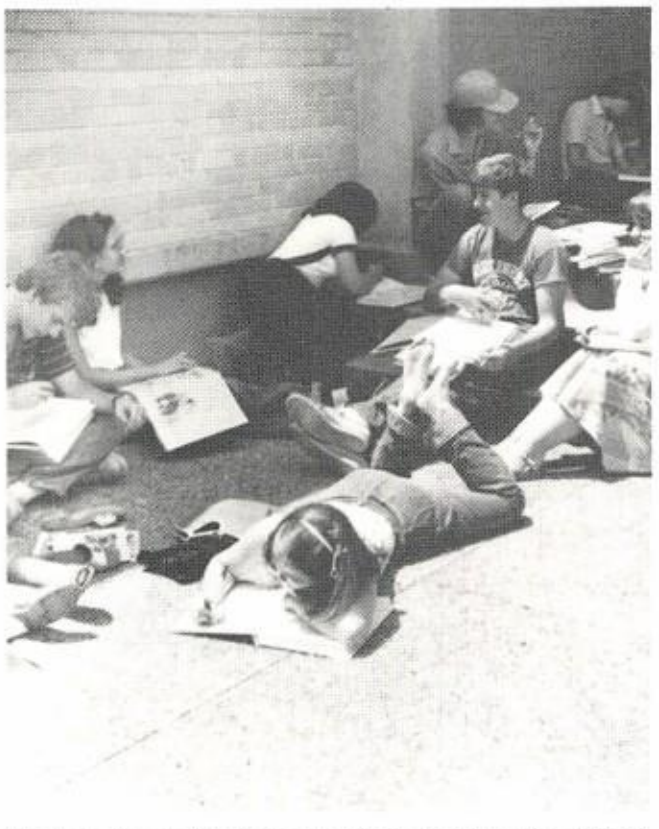
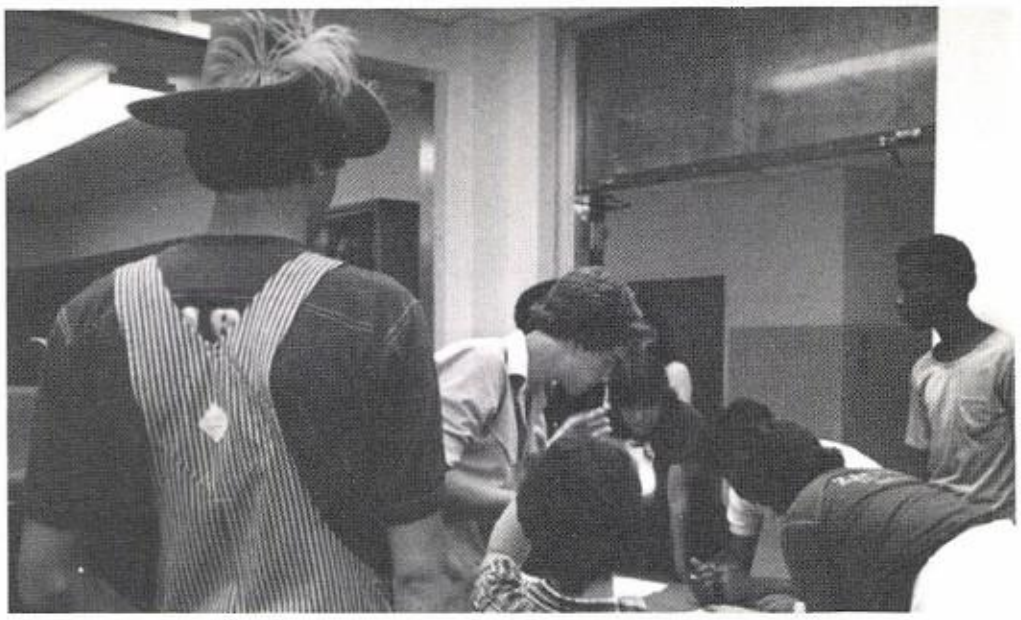
Lisa Hill and a J.T. Stevens student have a quiet conversation.



Annual staff members enjoy taking out the remains of another annual delivery.



Students try to think up meaningful phrases for one another's annuals.



The annual staff finds problems arise when trying to please everyone.

Ross Hase finds Annual Delivery Day very profitable.

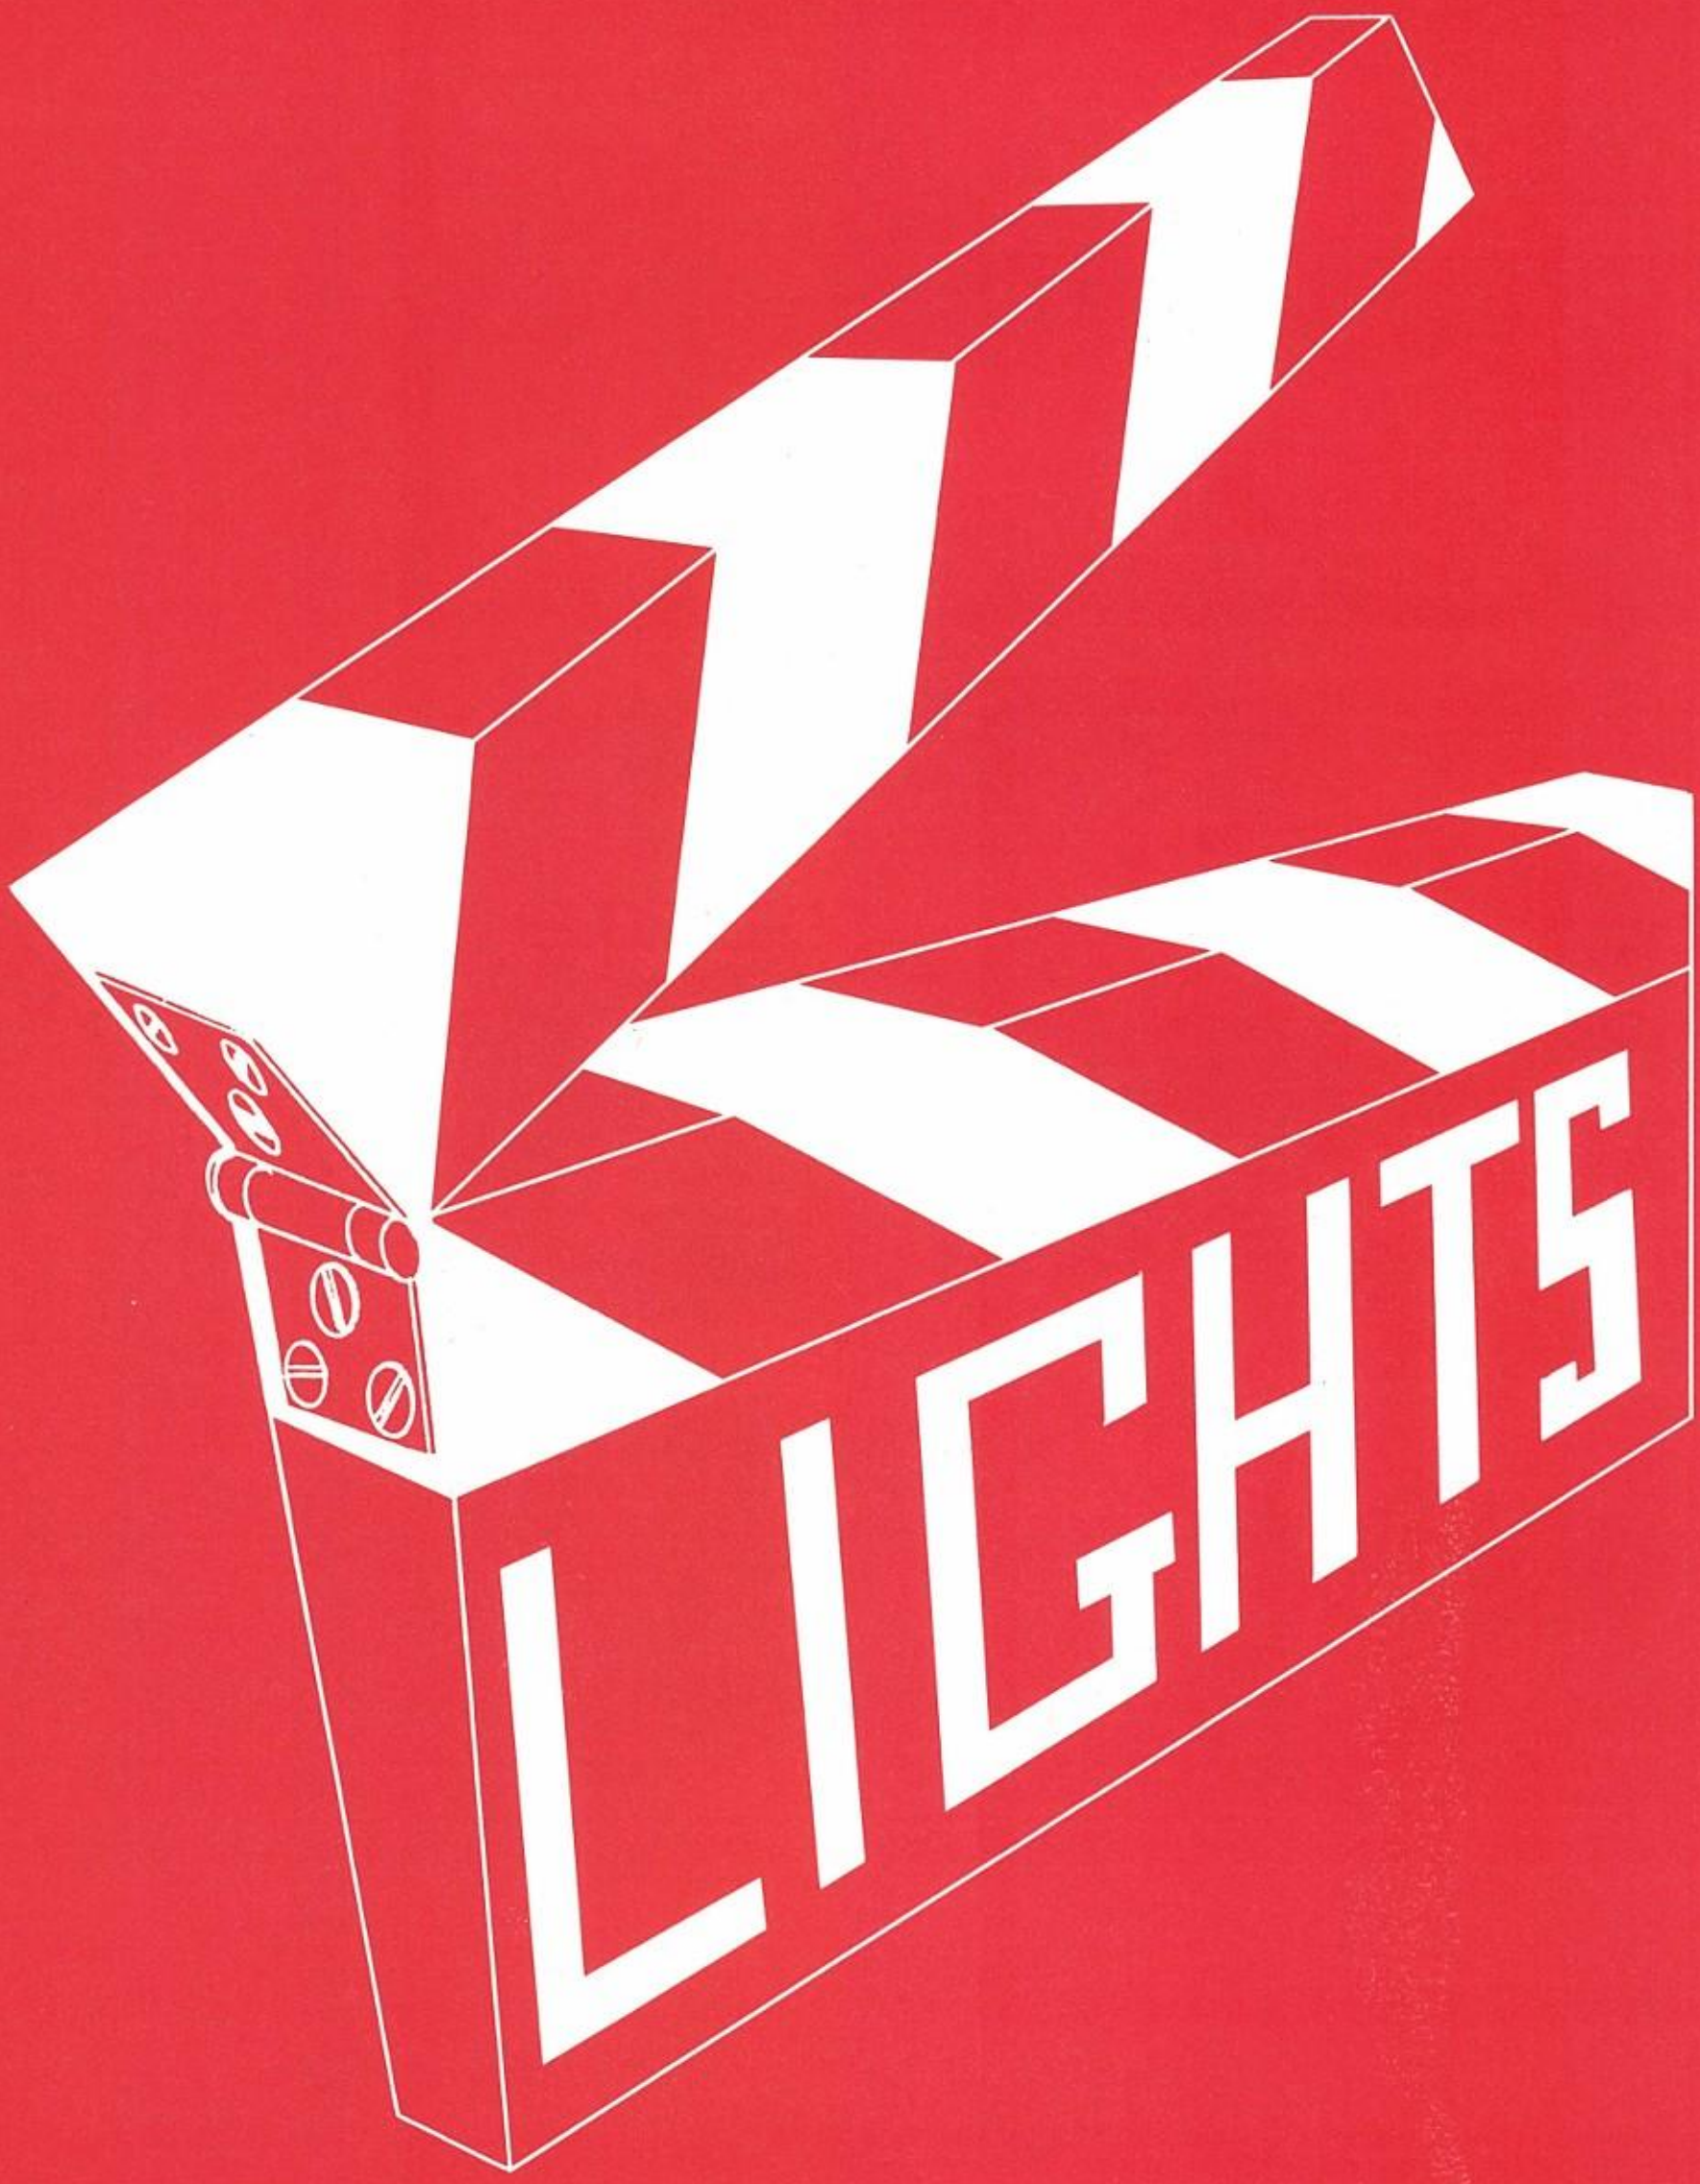
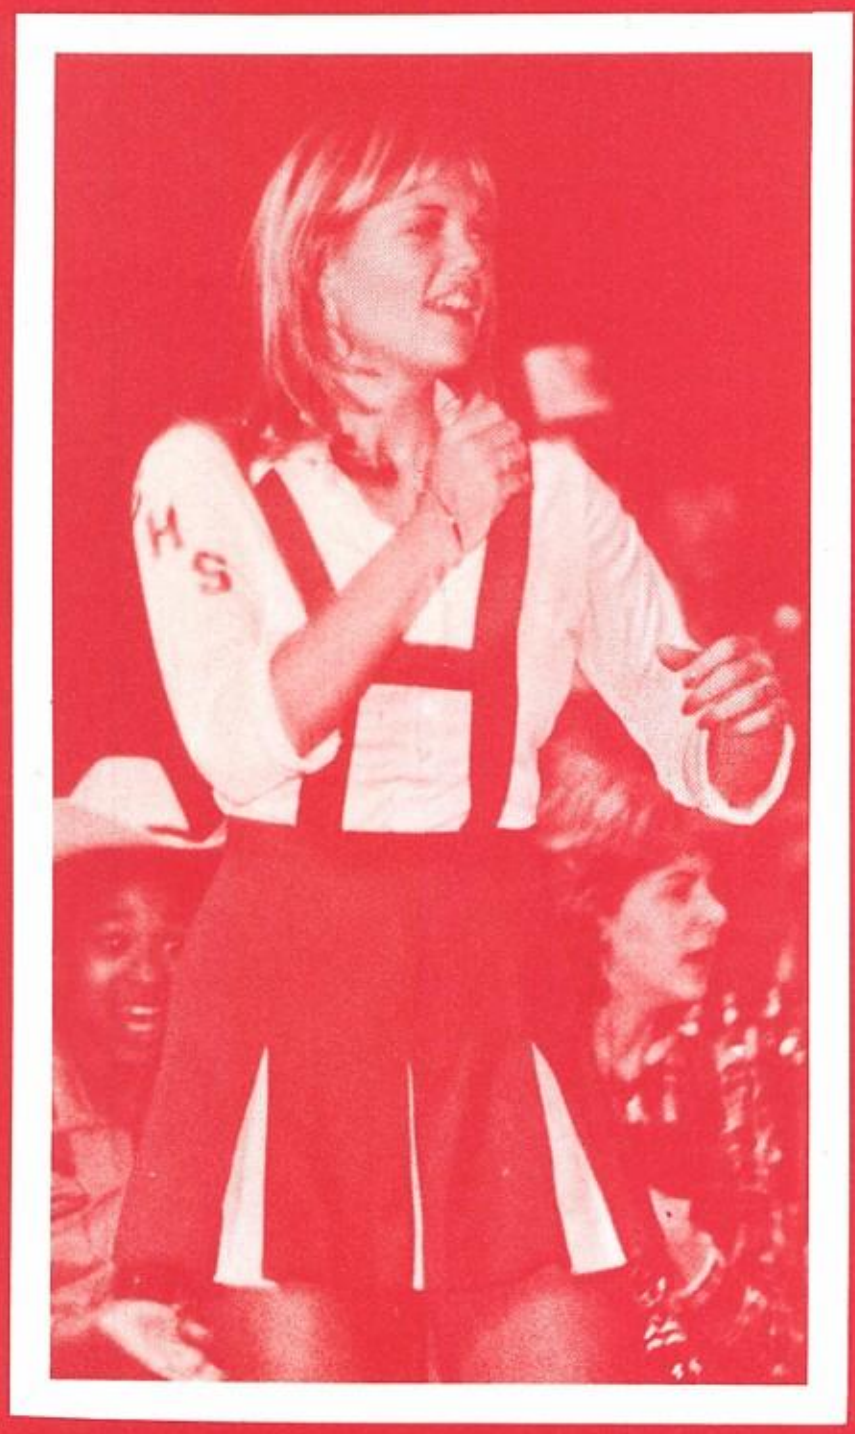
Kirk Stites and Ivan Metzer exhibit "annual fever".

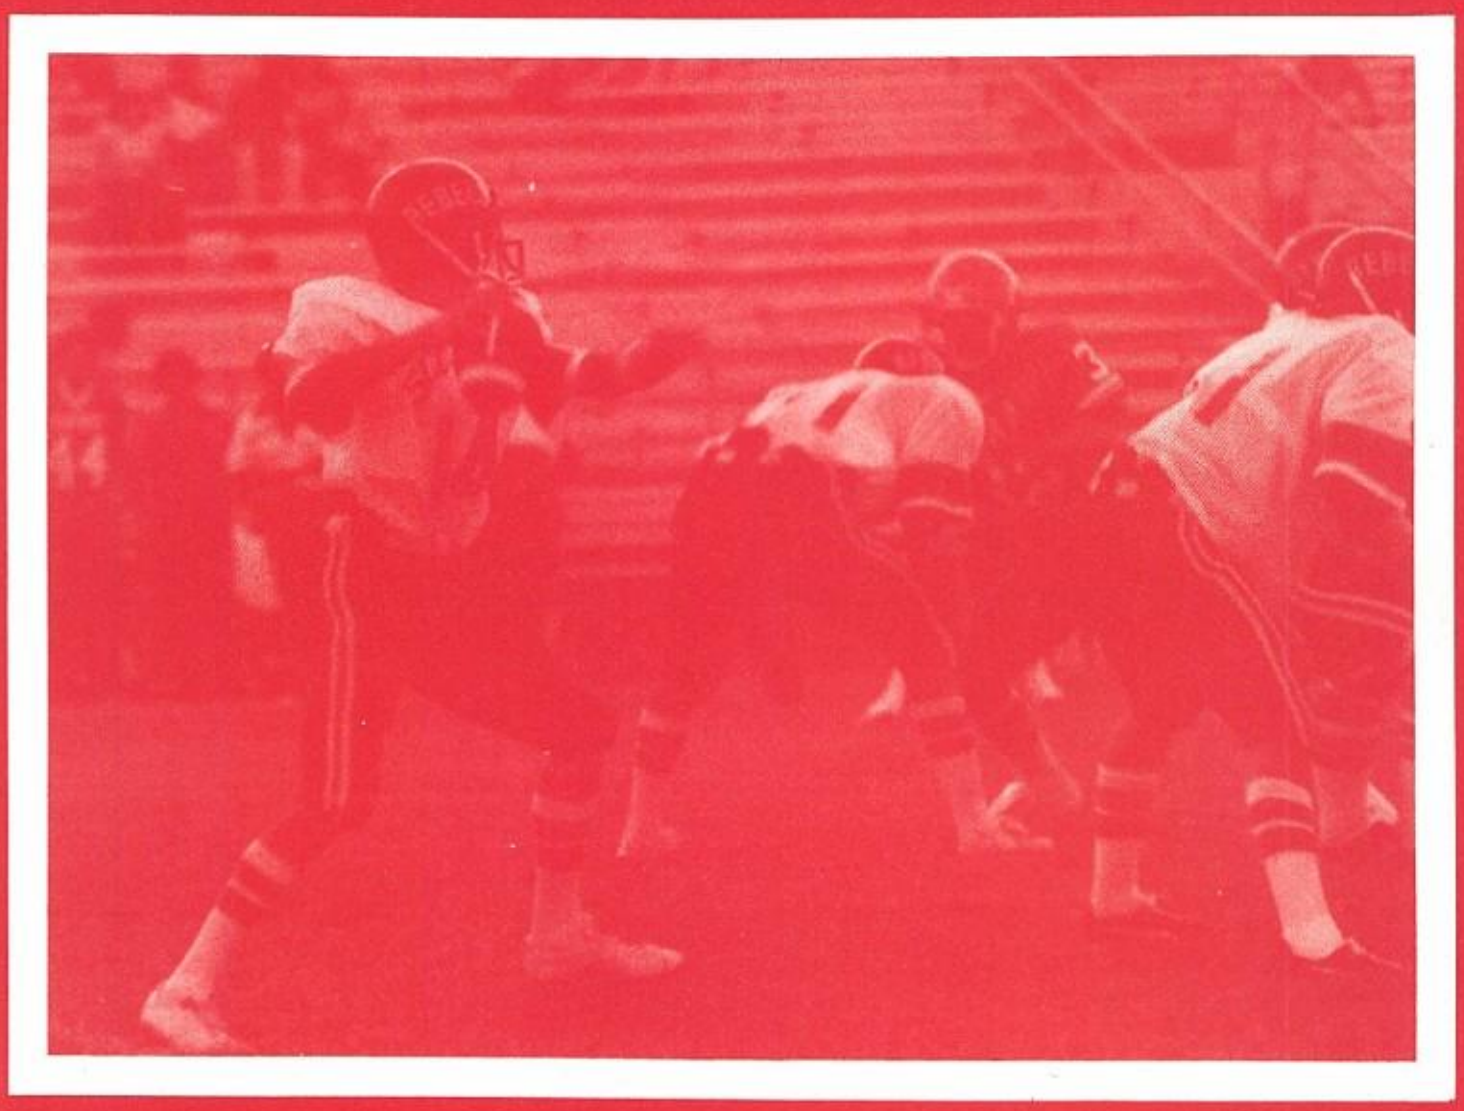


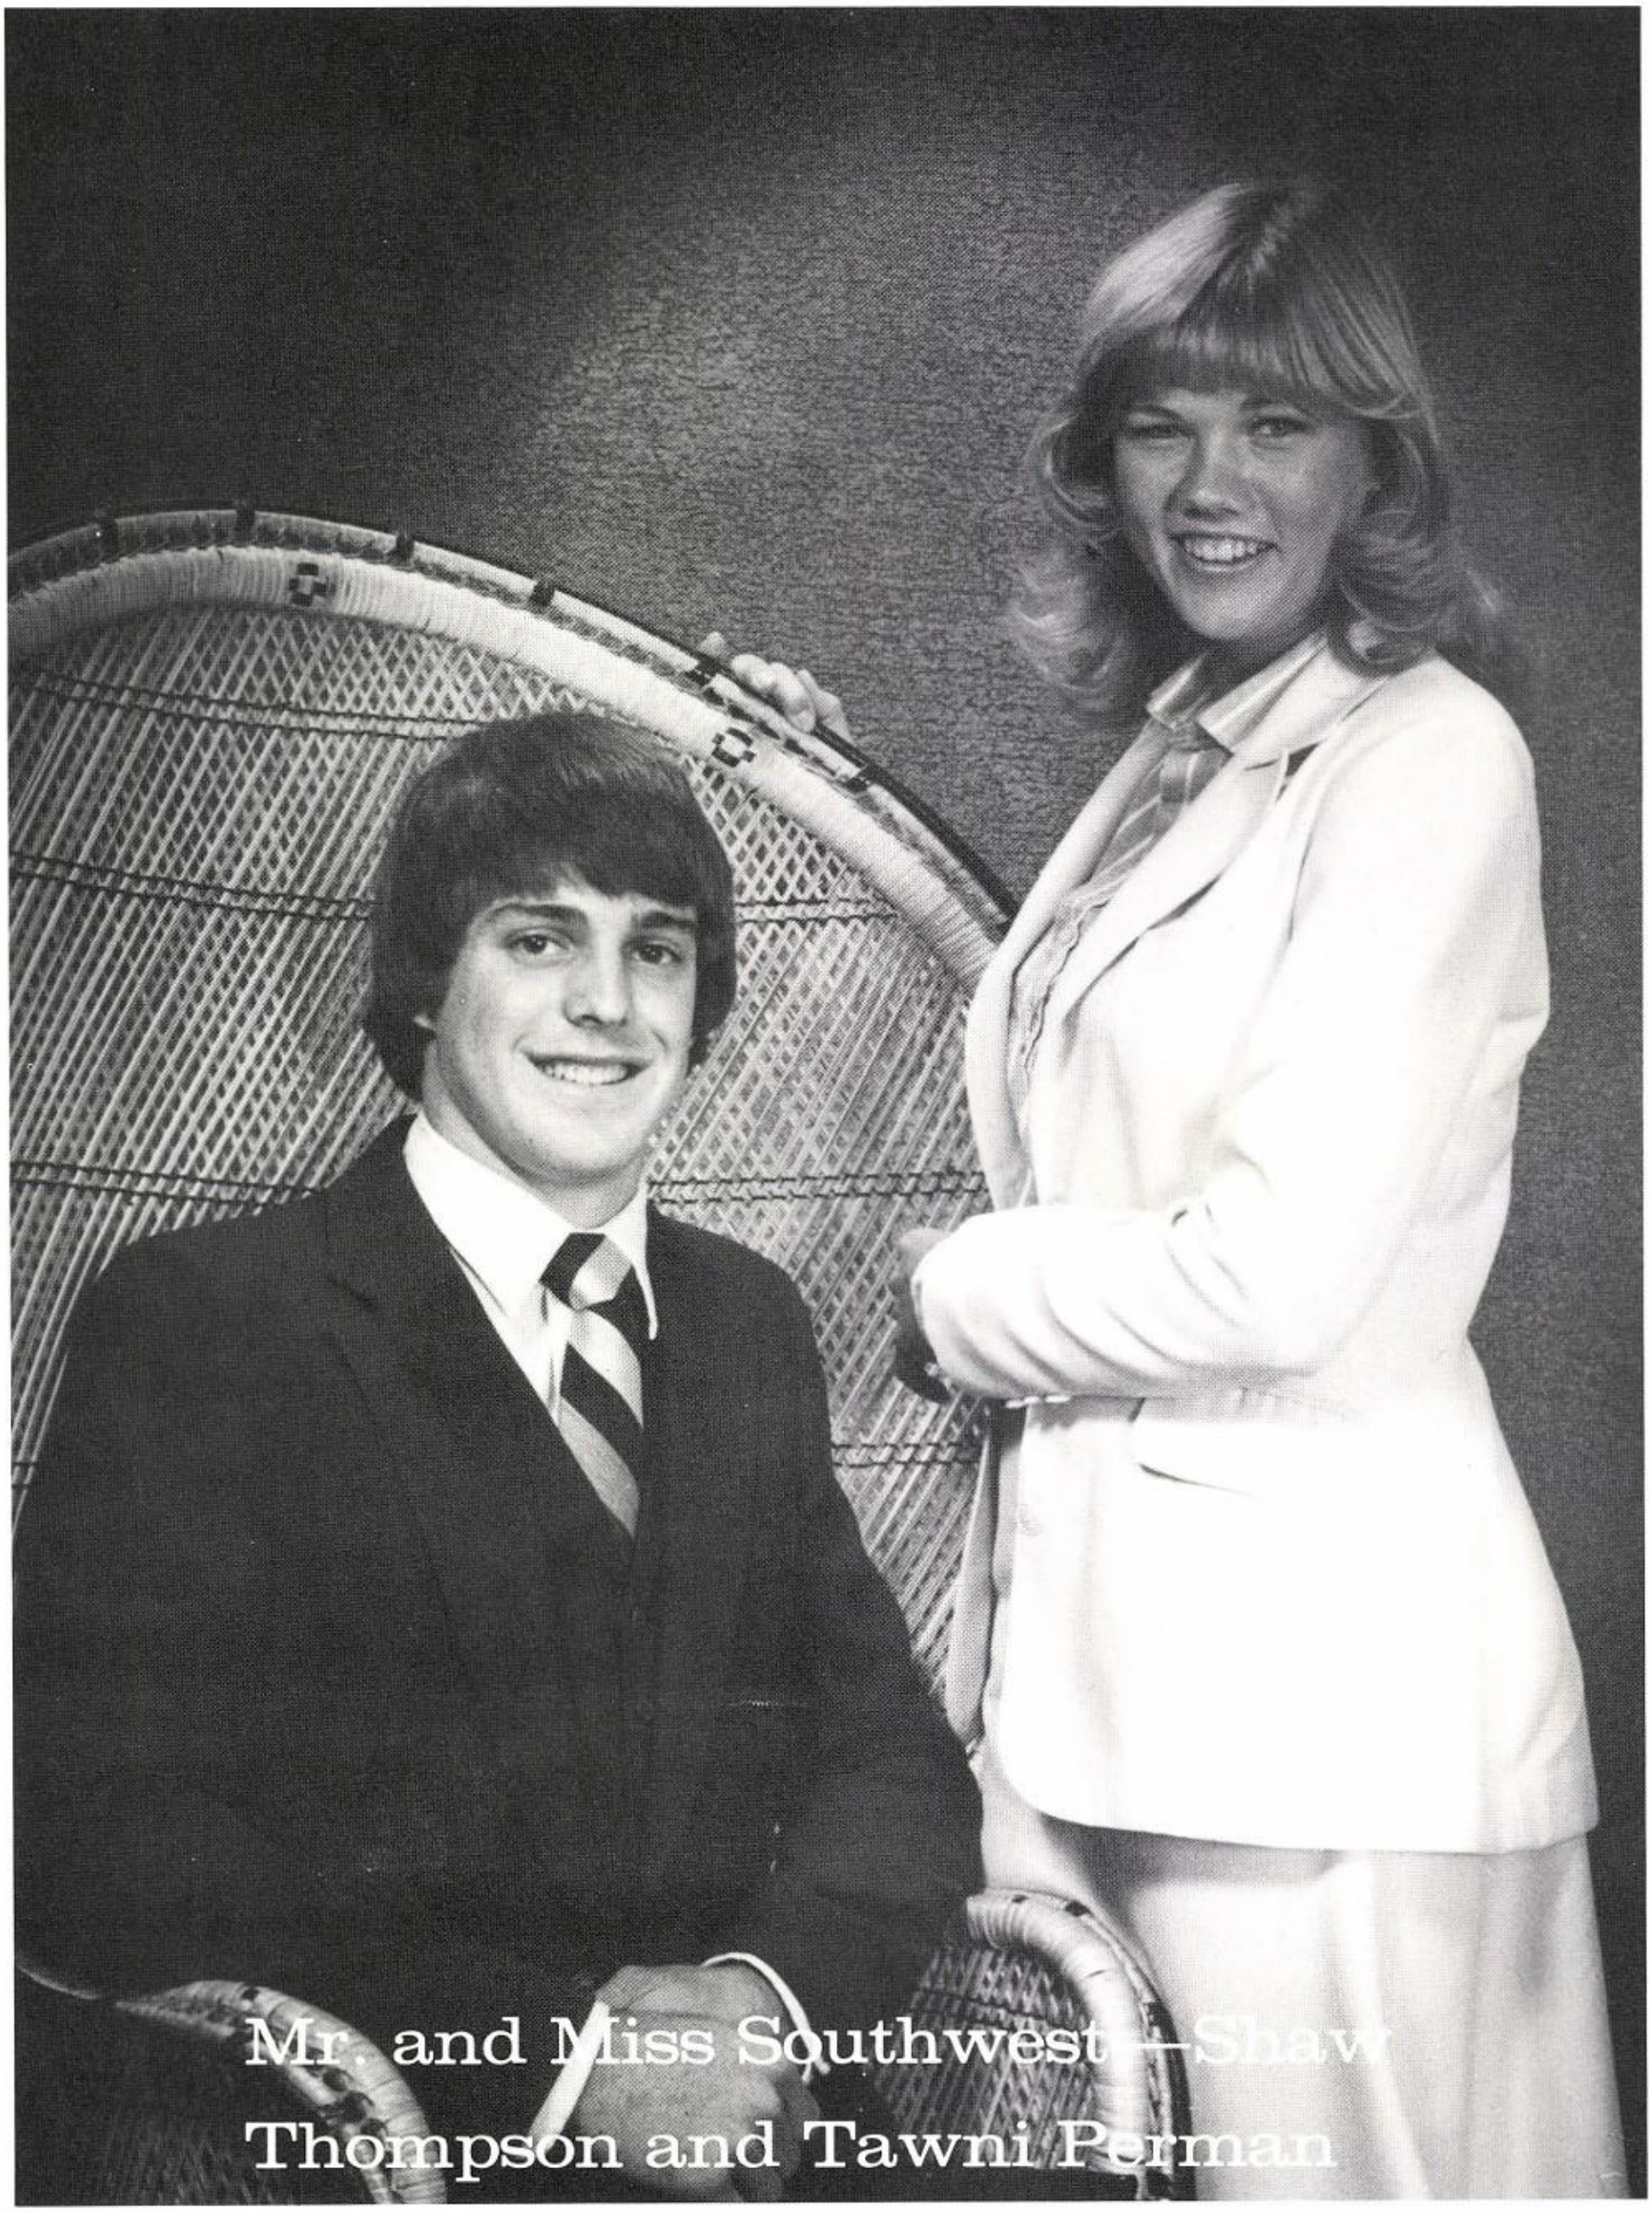
LIGHTS



Honors

The lights on the set add the extra touch that makes the scene come alive. The honors and awards that a student receives put him in the spotlight and add that extra touch that makes his high school career something to remember.





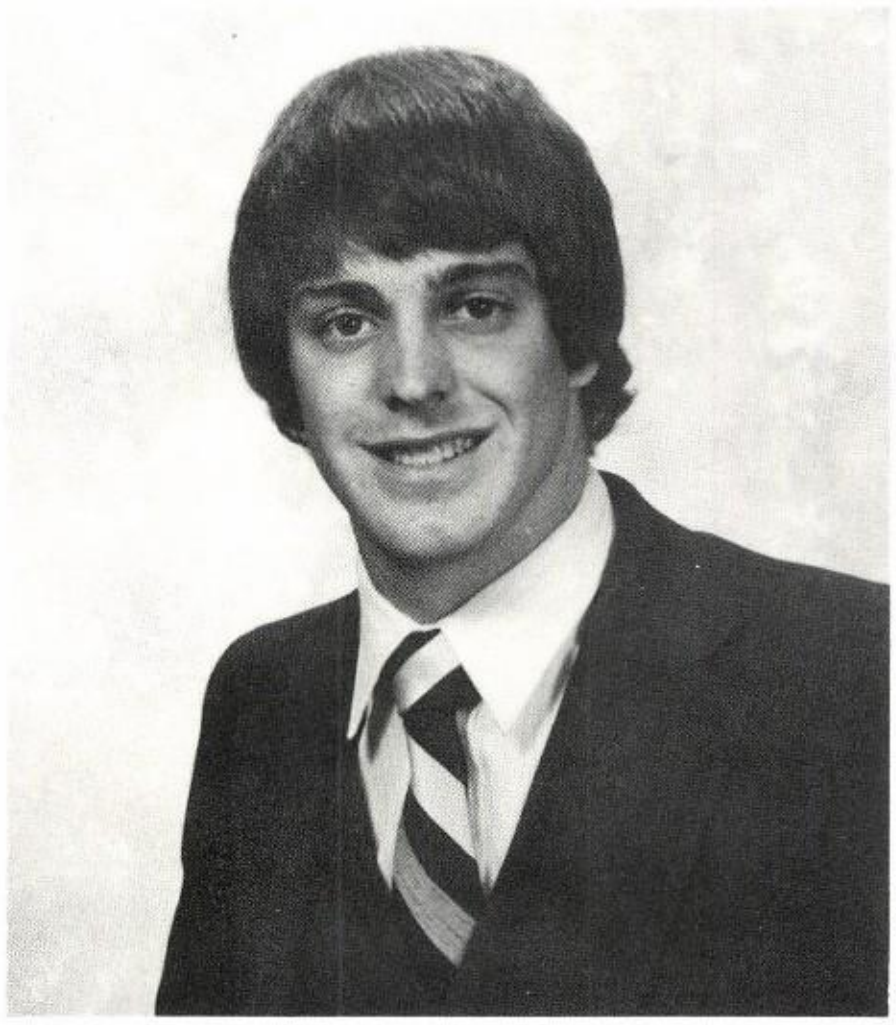
Mr. and Miss Southwest—Shaw Thompson and Tawni Perman

Tawni Perman

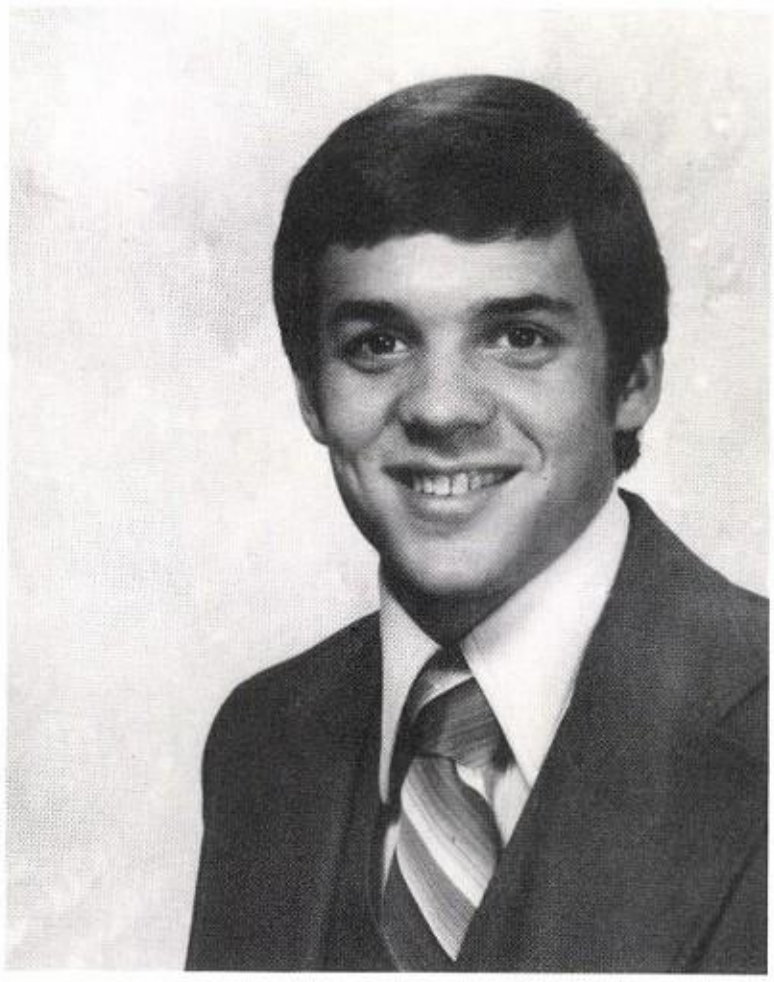
During the last pep-rally of the 1980 football season, Tawni was given special recognition for being a cheerleader for all four years of high school. She was also voted to the Homecoming Court this past year. She is actively involved in the Southwest German club and church activities outside of school. Tawni will appear in the 1980 edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Shaw Thompson

Shaw's years at Southwest have centered mainly around sports. He has played and run track all four years. Despite an injury early in the football season, Shaw has been selected for the All-District Football team. He holds many school track records including the 440 and the 440 relay. Out of both sports, Shaw has lettered five times.



ROYAL REBELS



Jim Sager

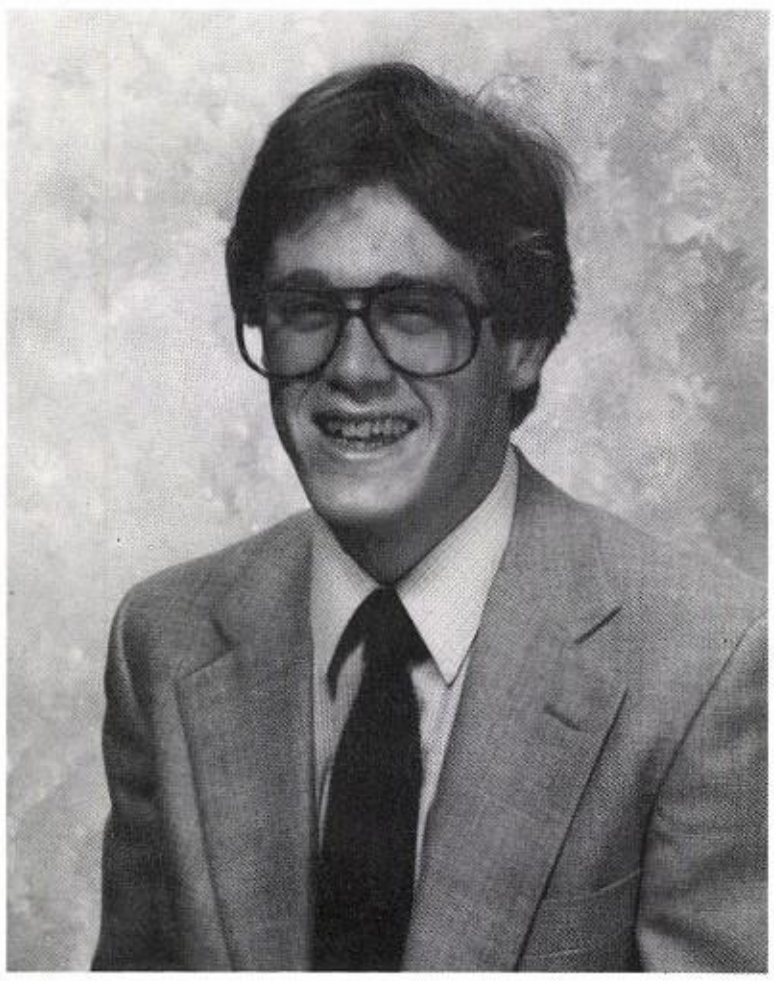
Jim Sager has been a member of the Big Red Band for four years, serving as junior and senior drum major. This year, he led the band to one of its most successful seasons. Although carrying a heavy load of subjects, Jim is active in church and school activities and holds a part-time job.

Shari Meadows

Shari has spent all four years of high school in the Southwest marching and symphonic bands. She plays the tenor saxophone and this is her first year in the stage band. An outstanding student, Shari is a member of the National Honor Society. Shari also was a princess in the 1980 Homecoming Court.

Ingrid Harvey

Formerly involved with V.O.E. and the Student Advisory Committee, Ingrid has a variety of activities. She is a copy editor on the Southwest Rebelation staff and was one of five finalists in the 1980 Homecoming Court. Ingrid is also one of Southwest's representatives in the 1980 edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students.

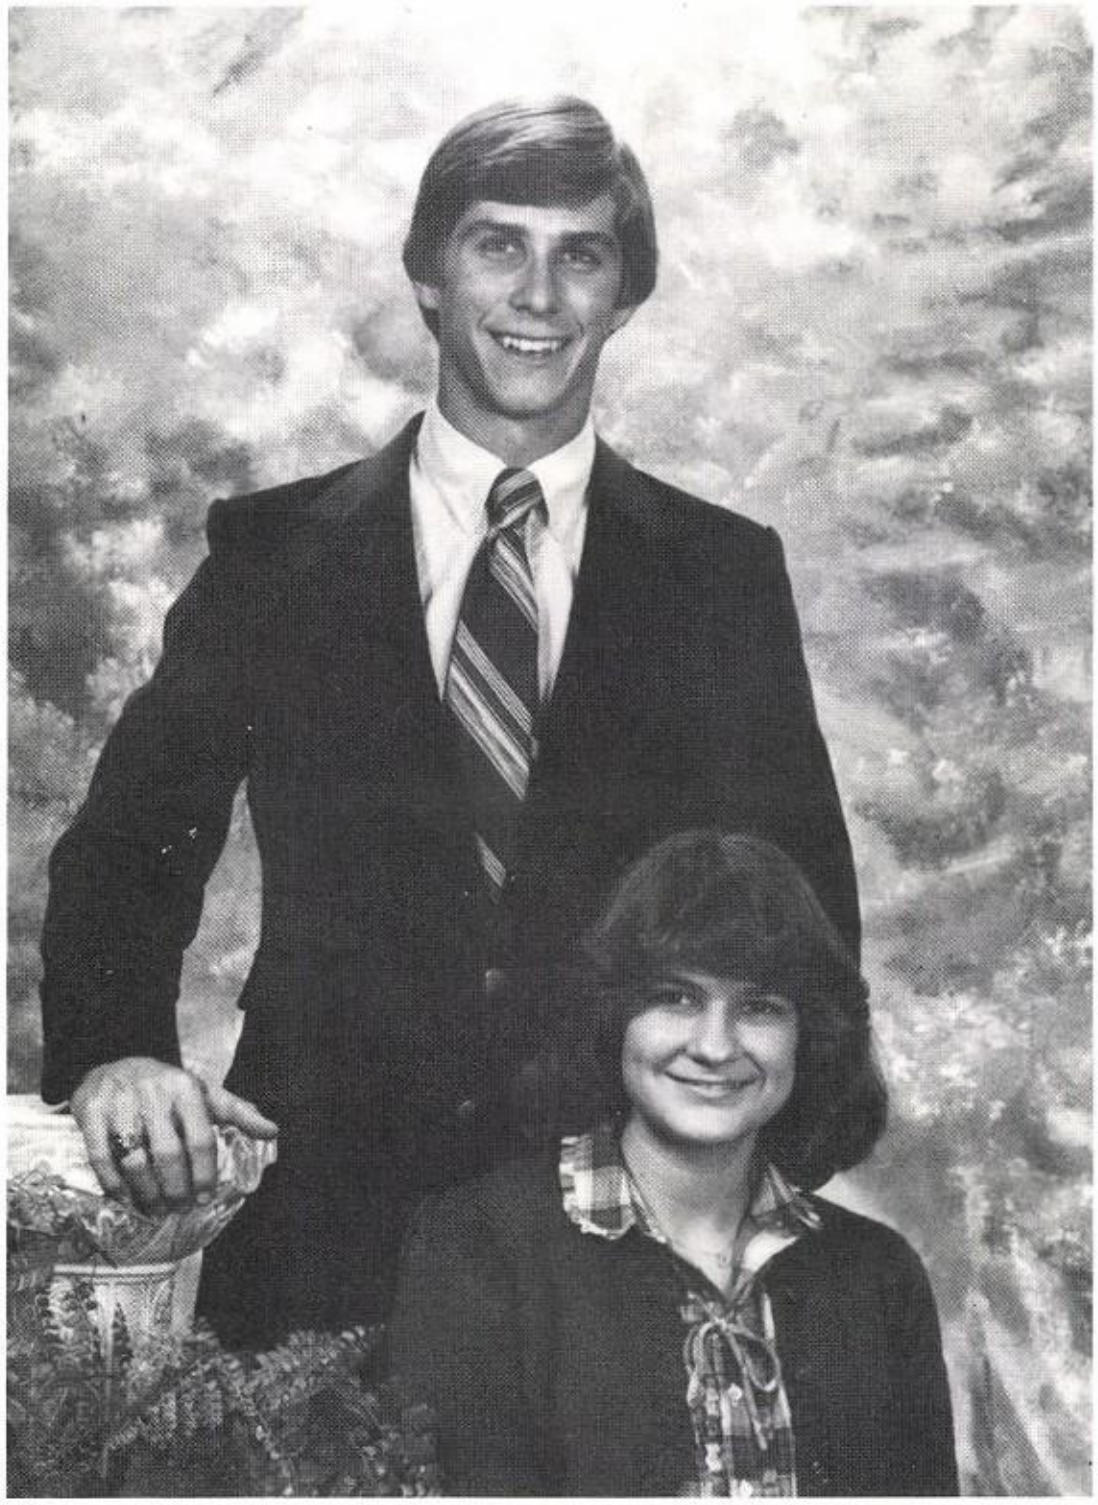


David McBeth

David McBeth's character has has earned him many honors. He was chosen by the Optimist Club as the most outstanding senior at Southwest High School. He also received an award as outstanding citizen and leader by the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation. David's leadership ability has been proven through his work with the Student Council. He has served as sophomore vice-president, junior class representative, and senior class president. Also competitive in sports, David was a 3 year member of the Varsity Soccer Team.

Cathy Sandifer

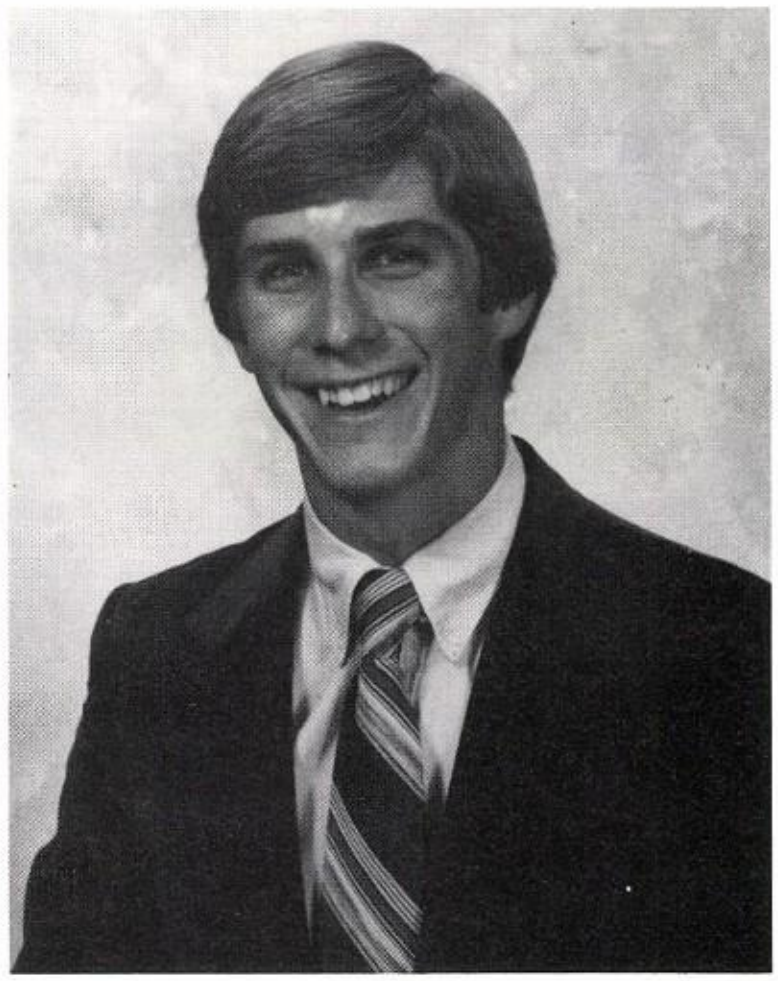
Cathy Sandifer has enjoyed representing Southwest as a cheerleader of four years. She has also placed great importance on studies and was selected as a member of the National Honor Society. In addition to school activities, Cathy has been an active member of the youth of Altamesa Church of Christ.



ROYAL REBELS

Mannie Pace

Mannie has been a class favorite all four years of high school. He has played football his freshman, sophomore, and junior years and baseball all but his sophomore year. Mannie's helpful and friendly manner has come in handy during homecoming activities and other class functions. Mannie believes that Southwest is strong in leadership and has the ability to accept changes as an example to other schools.



1980 Homecoming Queen Donna Kramer

Homecoming Court Chosen

The Homecoming Court of 1980 was presented during the pep rally on Friday before the game. Named without a specific order, the princesses were given a single rose. Donna Kramer was announced Homecoming Queen for 1980 and crowned by the 1979 returning queen, Susan Maloch. The princesses were Tawni Permann, Ingrid Harvey, Shari Meadows, and Cathy Sandifer. During half-time of the game against Paschal, the court was presented and escorted by their fathers.

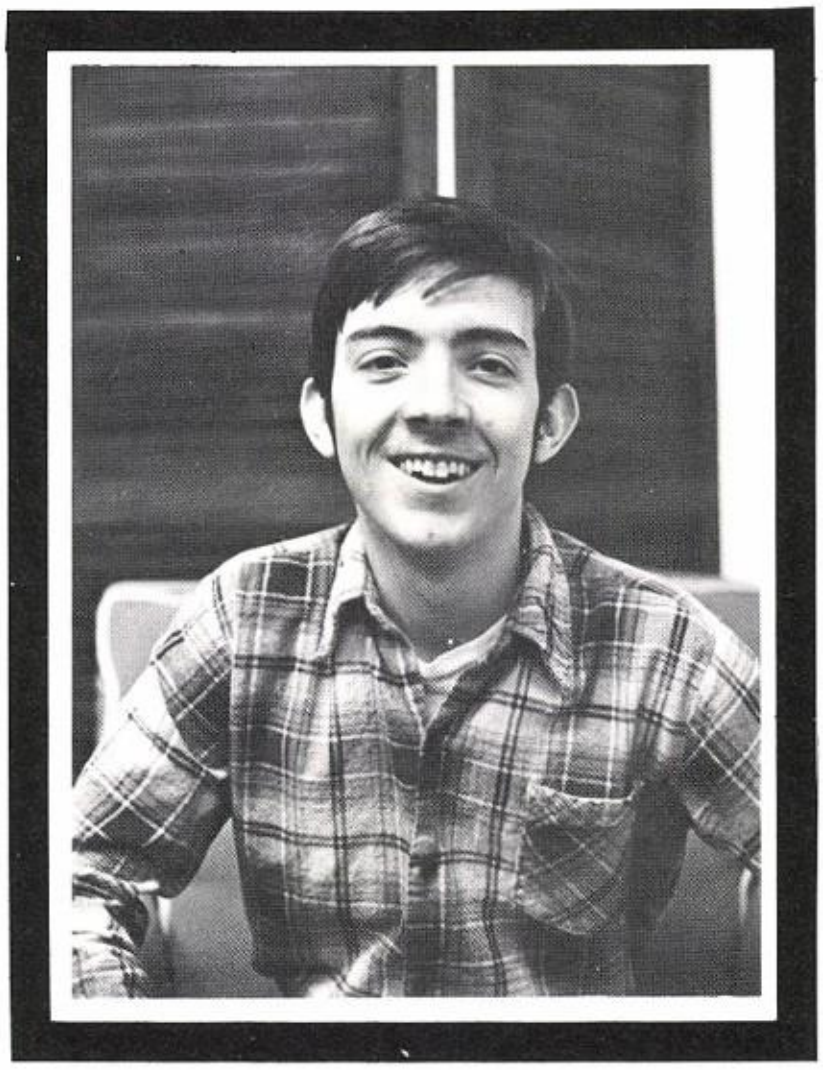
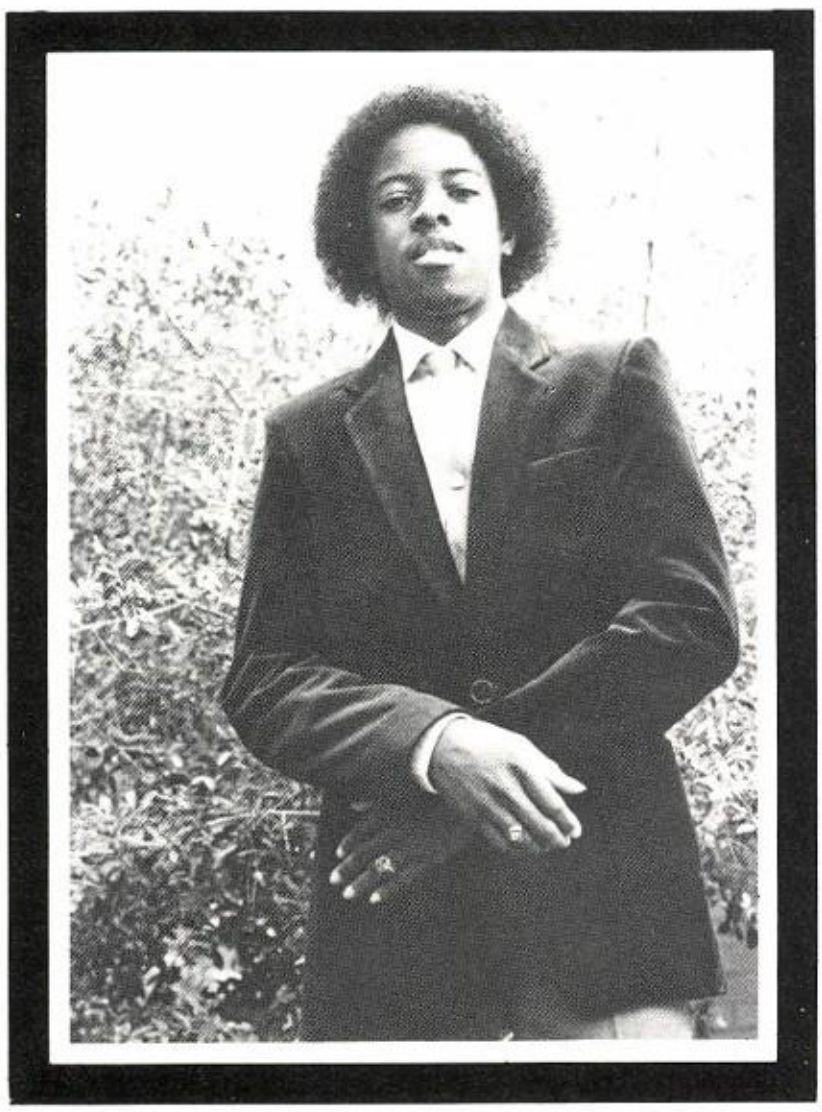
All Southwest



BRIAN HARRIS

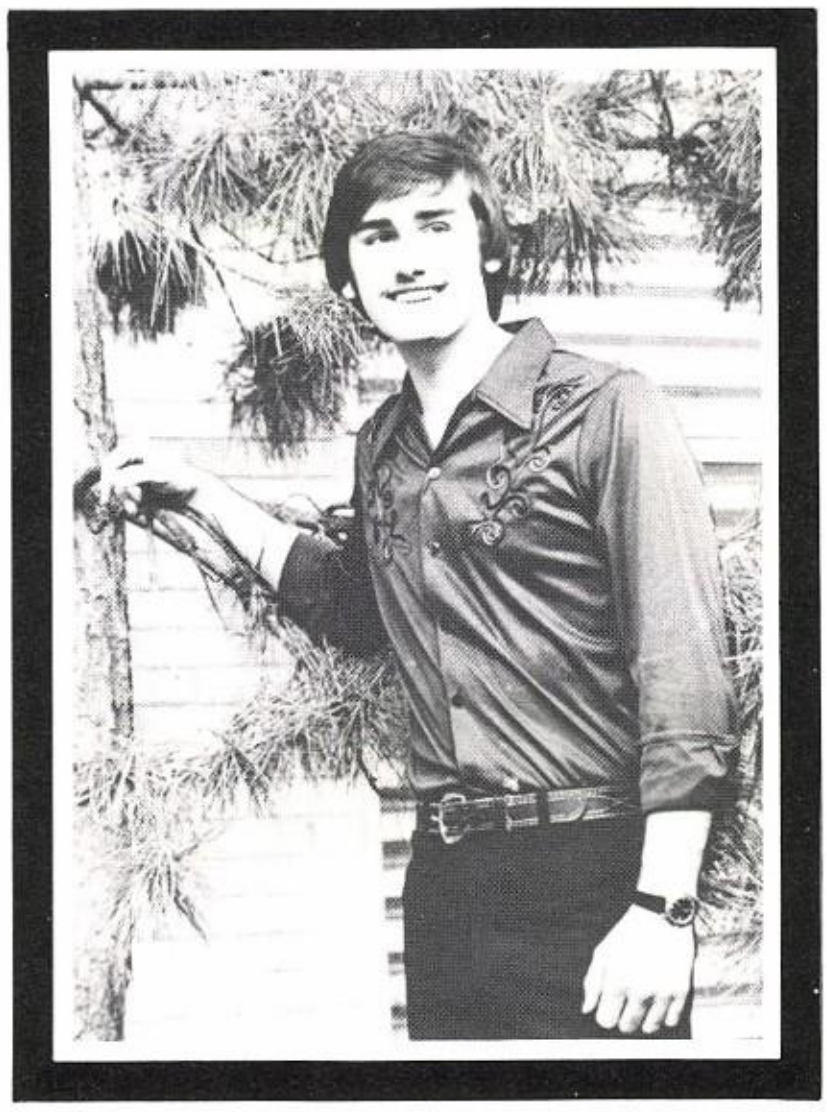
During my four years at Southwest, I've noticed something similar in the people here at school. They're all searching for something to fulfill their lives. Proverbs 3:5-6 says, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and do not lean on your understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight."



PHILLIP TROTTER

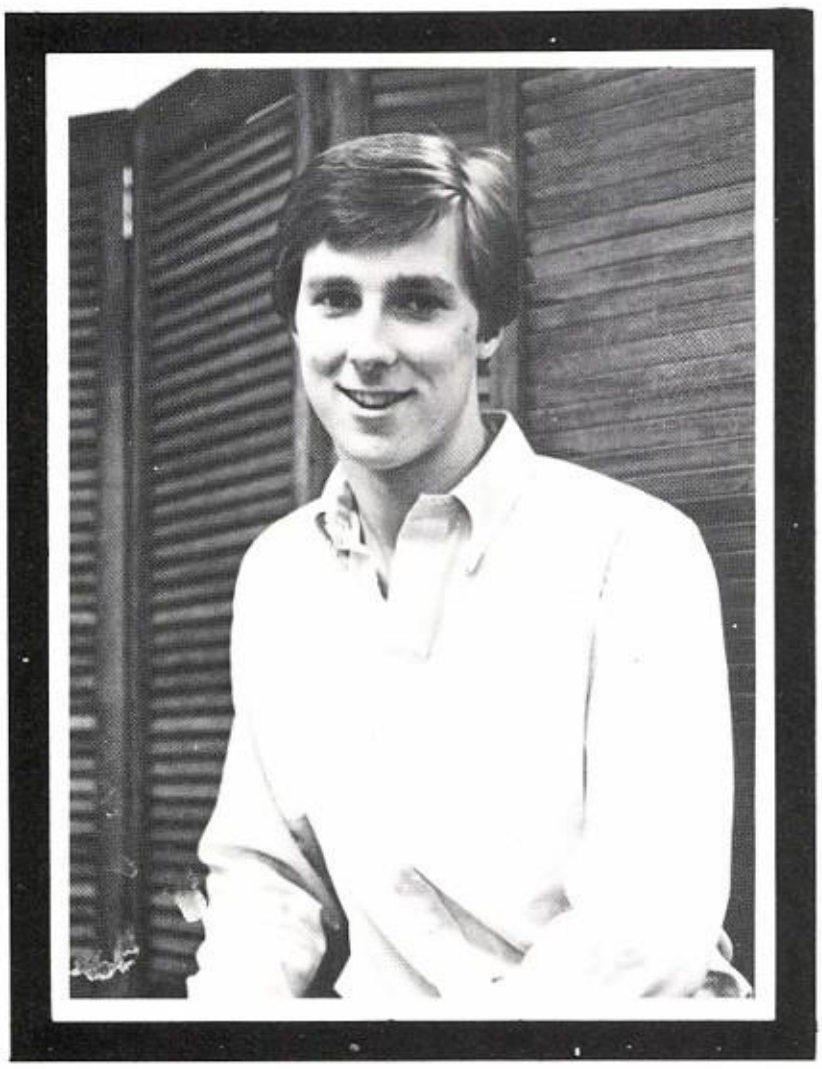
" . . . What is known as success assumes as many aliases as there are those who seek it. Like love, it can come to commoners as well as courtiers. Like the Holy Grail, it seldom appears to those who don't pursue it. "

Stephen Birmingham



PHIL DORSEY

"The secret to survivin' is knowin' what to throw away, and knowin' what to keep."—Kenny Rogers. With these four years at Southwest, I've found some of the many secrets of life.



MARK BOWDEN

"It's a new horizon and I'm awakening now, Oh I see myself in a brand new way, The sun is shinin'—the clouds are breakin', Cause I can't lose now,—there's no game to play."

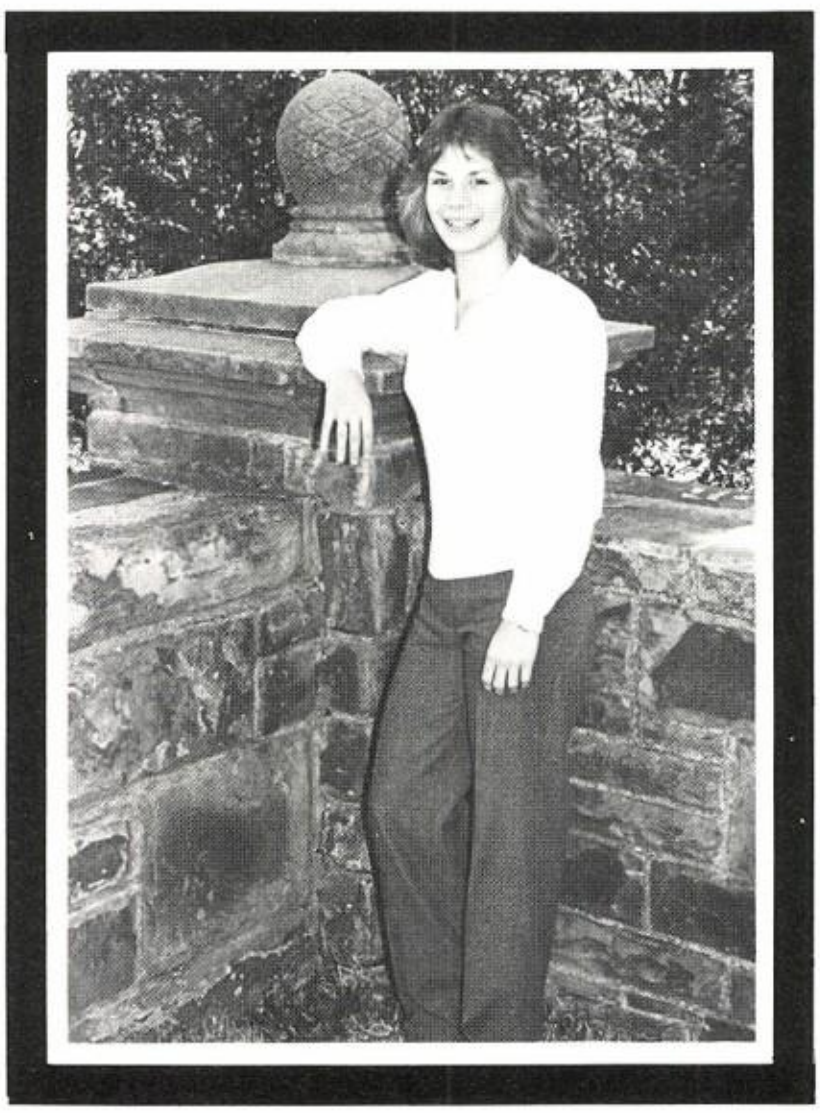
Althea Gibson



PAULA EBERLEIN

"Dream the Great Dream, though you should dream
And friendless follow in the lofty quest
Though the dream lead you to a desert lonely,
There lay before the gods you gift supreme,
A human heart whose courage did not falter
Though distant as Arcturus shone the gleam."

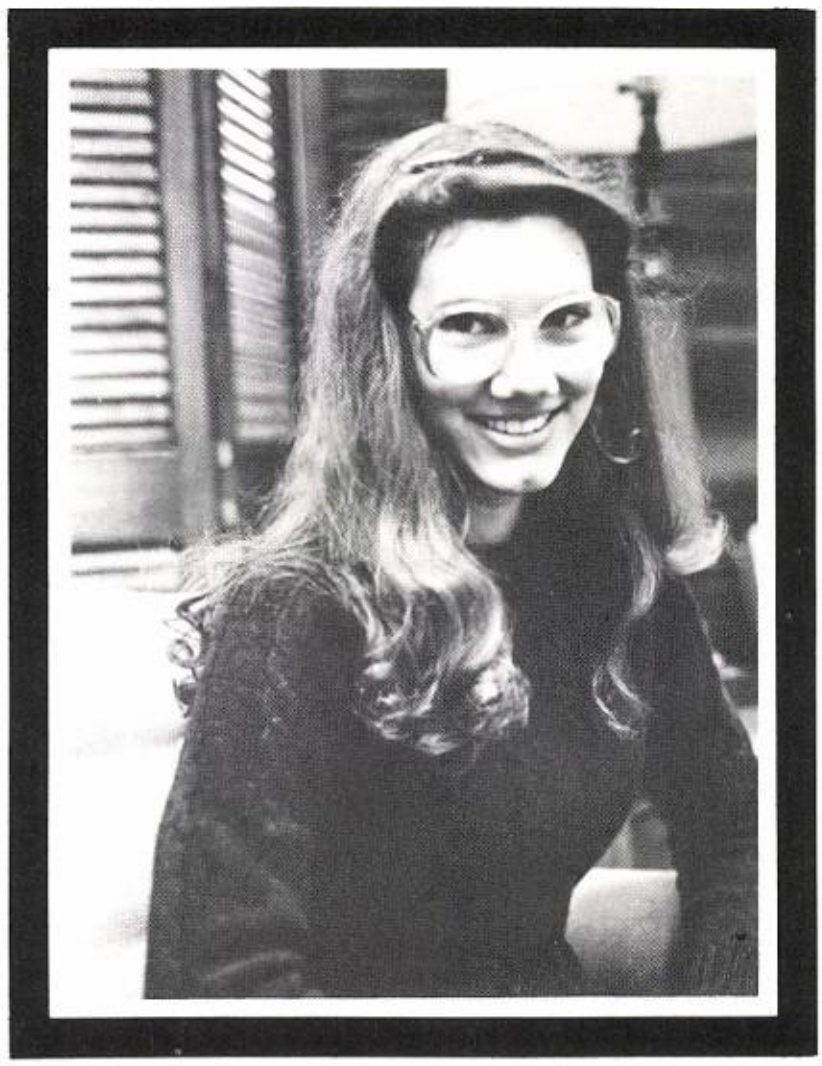
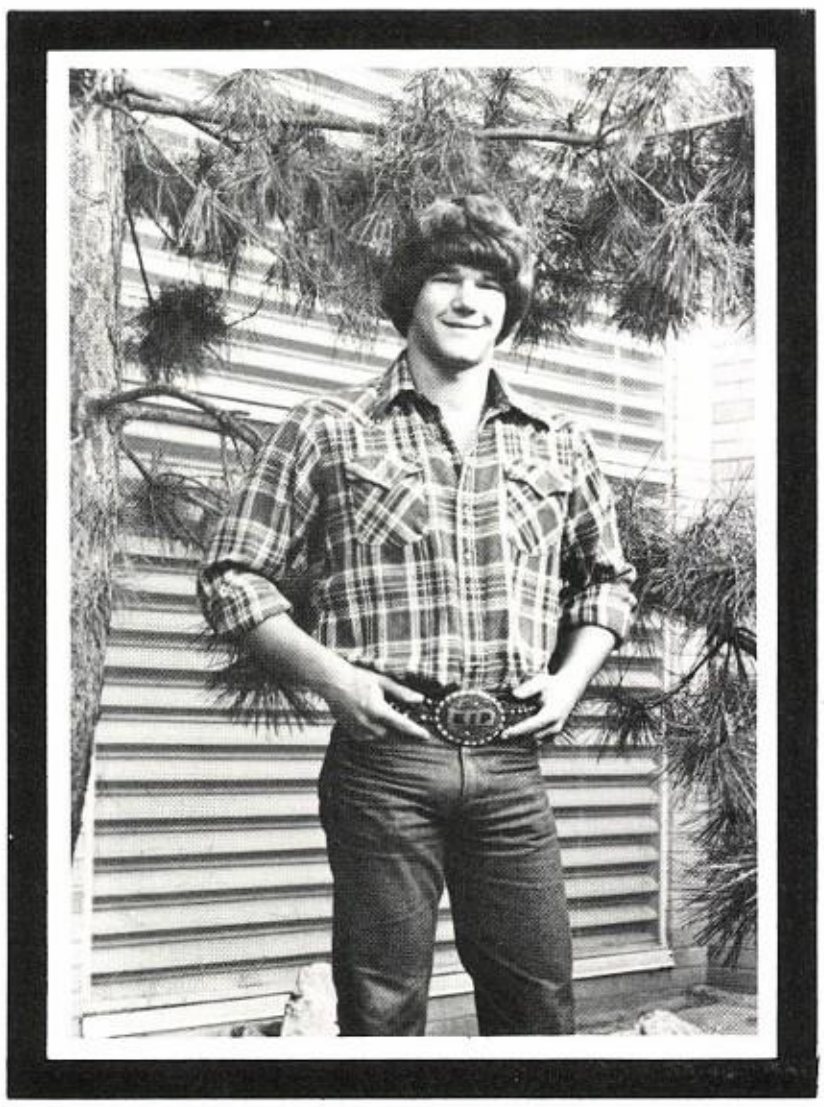
BEVERLY ZOPHY

It is said "Man cannot do without being. Man cannot be without doing." My growth as a person has come largely from the activities I have taken part in during my four years at Southwest. Experiences shared with friends and family have taught me many things that I could not have learned from a book. My teachers have given me knowledge that will guide me through the years to come. As I leave Southwest my thanks goes to all who shared their lives with me.





KIP EWING

O.G. Mandino

PAM LOWREY

It was once said that "to live is to learn." To me this means that learning makes living a richer and more abundant experience. My past two years at Southwest have helped me to realize how very important it is to learn not only knowledge found in text books but also knowledge obtained through personal relationships. I am grateful to my family, my friends and my teachers for giving me the opportunity to experience warm and happy relationships during my youth. A man living thousands of years ago revealed my feelings in this statement:

Wisdom and good judgement live together, for wisdom knows where to discover knowledge and understanding.
Proverbs 8:12

JAN LANDIS

A wise man will hear and will increase learning; and a man of understanding will attain unto wise counsels.
A Proverb of Solomon

TODD BOONE

Life's a pretty precious and wonderful thing you can't sit down and let it lap around you . . . you have to plunge into it; you have to dive through it! And you can't save it; you've got to use it. The more you use the more you have . . . that's the miracle of it!—Kyle Crichton

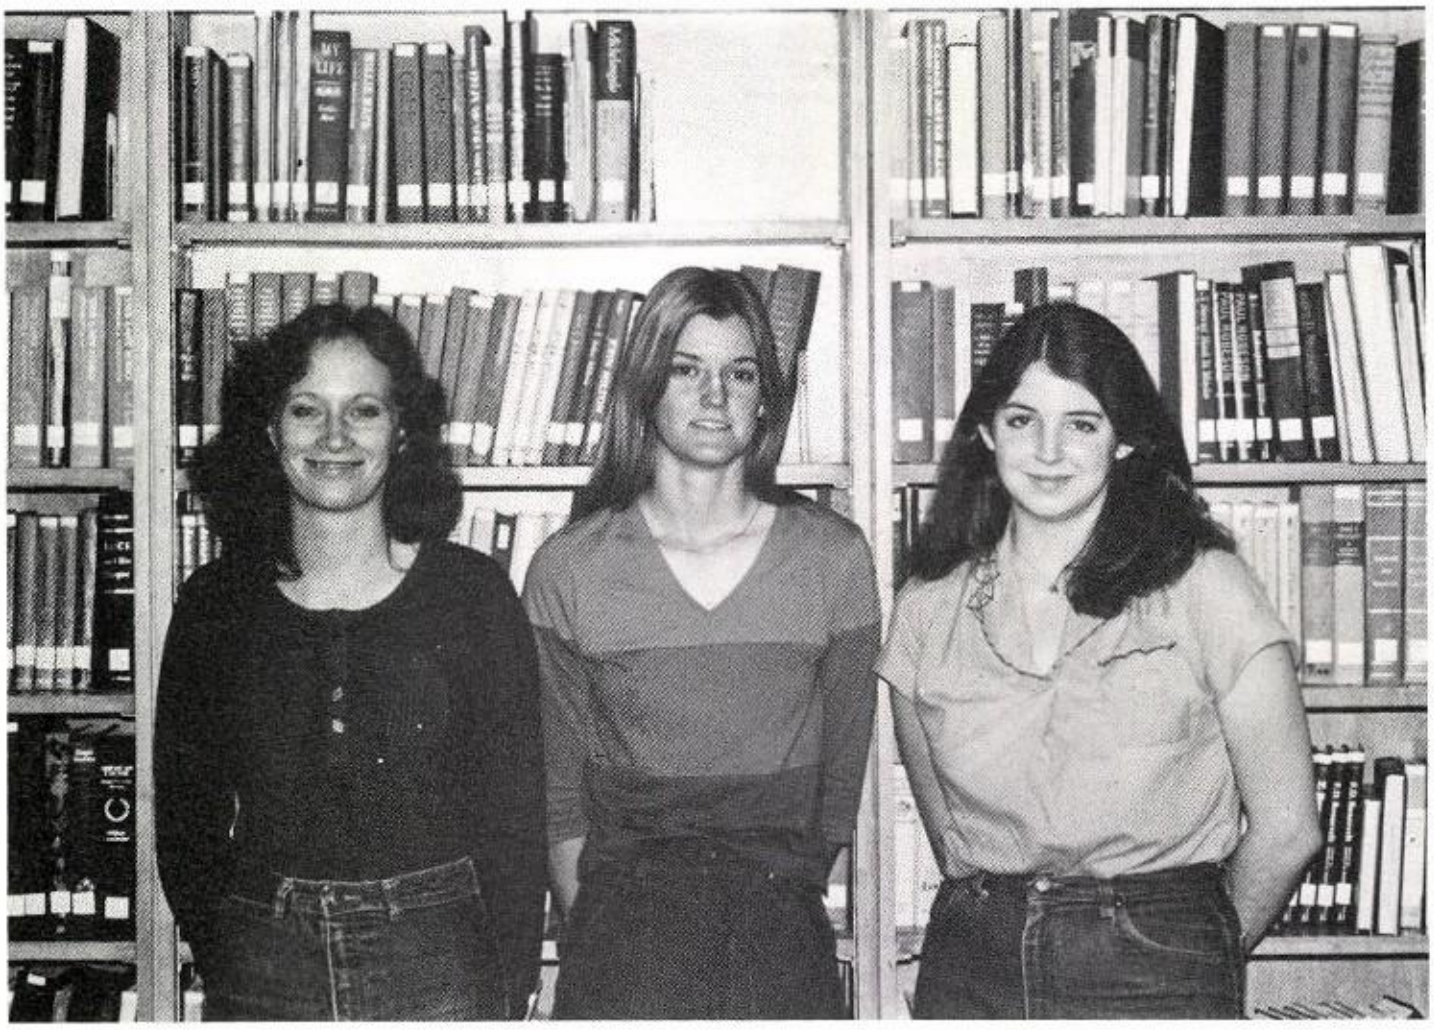
Students Win Merit Honors

Out of all the juniors nationwide taking the PSAT (Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test) a few students score high enough for National Merit Scholarships. This year three Southwest seniors placed high enough in national ranking to earn the distinction of National Merit Semi-Finalists. This is honor enough in itself but the benefits of possible scholarships help many students pay college expenses. This year's semi-finalists were Lori Brammer, Shelley Bryant, and Jennifer Dowdell.

National Honor Society Officers for 1980-81 are as follows: Melody Burleson, Treasurer; Shawna Nickell, Secretary; Steve Fish, President and Cindy Heiss, Vice-President



Shelley Bryant, Lori Brammer, and Jennifer Dowdell were selected National Merit semi-finalists this year.

Sponsor Mrs. Thomas delivers a speech at the annual NHS banquet.

Society Renders Service

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in all students at Southwest. Under the leadership of Mrs. Catherine Thomas, the members planned projects throughout the year to fulfill these goals. Tutoring, participation in a cancer drive, and the spring Honors Night program were a few of their activities. This year's National Honor Society members numbered fifty-six. Steve Fish served president, Cindy Heiss served as vice-president, Melody Burleson was treasurer, and Shawna Nickell was secretary. The faculty committee aiding the society were Dorothy Thomas, Jim Ruddell, Odessa Johnson, and Dorothy Jowell.

Features

Just as the stars of Hollywood turn to the excitement of parties and social night life, Southwest students eagerly await the opportunity to enjoy activities outside of school. Without a release of inner tension brought on by hectic schedules and deadlines, movie stars (and students) would quickly lose their ambition and dedication to their work. The many ways students spend their time "off the set" make up this section of the yearbook. The title "Camera" implies that these activities show people doing what they do best—being themselves without having to act out a certain part.

Countdown to Freedom

America Held Hostage

Day 444:

Release of hostages celebrated

On the 442nd day, deliverance was finally at hand. The first word came from Iran. In an evening broadcast over Teheran Radio, Behzad Nabavi, Iran's chief negotiator, announced that the United States and Iran had finally come to terms on the fourteen-month hostage crisis. There were no real problems left, he said. A statement had to be signed. The United States had to unfreeze billions in Iranian assets. But once those chores were complete, the long ordeal would be over. Planes were set for a quick evacuation flight from Teheran. A special U.S. team was alerted to fly to Wiesbaden, West Germany, to meet the hostages. "I think the adventure is reaching an end," Nabavi said easily. And after 63 weeks of suffering, the 52 American hostages seemed to be homeward-bound.

On the surface, it appeared to be just another year—more classes, new teachers, countless frustrations, and busy schedules. From media reports, parents, and teachers, students learned that aside from the routine progression of school days, little remained the same.

Americans everywhere were faced with challenges at home and abroad. Inflation became not just a word, but a reality. Gas prices rose steeply, approaching $1.10 by year's end. Along with this came new crises in the Middle East that threatened oil shipments and, more dangerously, world peace. The entire country waited tensely for 444 days following Iran's takeover of the U.S. Embassy and its officials.

Mother Nature too, appeared restless. In Washington, Mt. St. Helens erupted with a blast as powerful as the largest hydrogen bomb ever exploded. Closer to home, Hurricane Allen battered the Texas coast, and in Ft. Worth, temperatures stayed in the 100's for a record of 42 days.

There were unforgettable moments of glory as well. Americans thrilled at the exuberance and stamina of a young Olympic team of hockey players who beat the odds, as well as the Russians. Ronald Reagan soundly defeated Jimmy Carter at the polls after a nationally televised debate seen by millions of American voters. The only man drawing a larger audience share than Ronald Reagan, and possibly more varied opinions had to be J.R. Ewing of the television show Dallas. Throughout the world viewers loved to hate him, yet no one dared miss the revelation of who shot J.R.

All these events of 1980 when brought to light should serve to emphasize one point. Mankind is capable of creating or destroying all that he possesses. As we continue through time into 1981, let up hope people throughout the world continue to create, enrich, and cherish life.

Ages of 15,16 Bring Changes

Anticipation filled the fifteen-year-olds during their first taste of high school life. Sex education would soon become the course. While walking to school, one could act as if they had been casually let off by a friend instead of having to endure the embarrassment of riding to school with Mom. Days were counted until the first day of Driver's Ed class could be attended. Driver's tests were the ultimate goal.

The age of sixteen left behind blissful innocence of "never been kissed". Excitement over the acceptance of the first car date and the first real job filled the moments of school days. Every day was a constantly changing experience drawing the sixteen year old closer to maturity. Never before had so much changed in so little time.

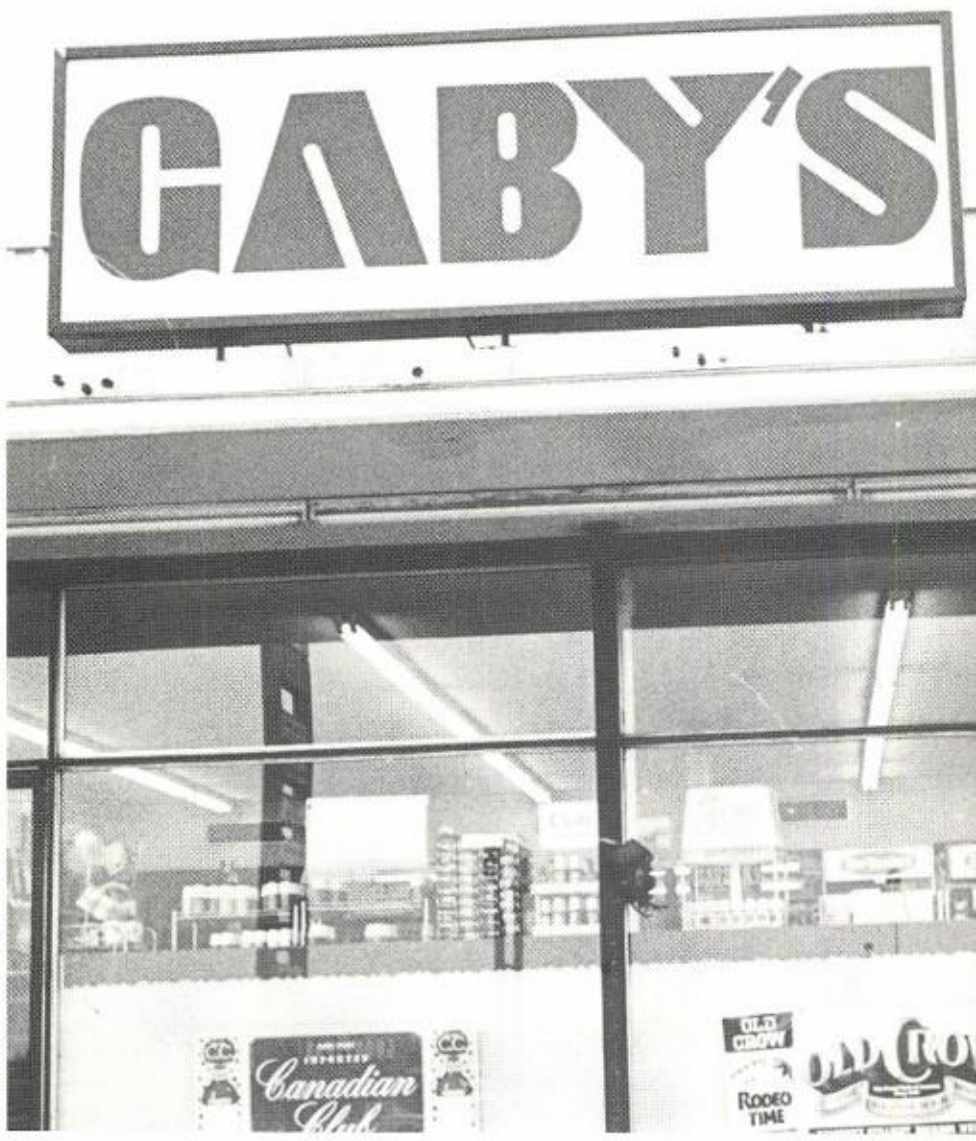
17,18 Increases Freedom, Rights

Age seventeen brings on uncertainties of the future. The only major accomplishment of being seventeen is the fact that you can attend R-rated movies legally. Questions of "Where am I going to college?" or "What will I do with my future?" enter everyone's mind. SAT and ACT fill Saturday mornings. Jobs are getting old, while new clothes don't always get you into clubs. The school dance seems to be the only place to go.

Age eighteen brings on the feeling of officially being an adult. Anything that was illegal before is taken advantage of now. Armed with a new driver's license, the clubs that were forever forbidden are a new experience. Along with all this sudden freedom comes the responsibilities of the draft along with the right to vote. The compromise to be a responsible adult only seemed fair through the eighteen-year-old point of view.

Large voter turnout at such schools as Southwest was characteristic of the public interest in the 1980 election.



Turning 18 is one's entreé in such establishments as this.

Date Prices Rise Higher

At $3.35 an hour, no matter how hard students tried, by the weekend money seemed to be scarce. Jobs were hard to find and pay did not meet the cost. The traditional Saturday night date became an expense rather than an expected occurence. There are always ways to beat inflation, and students at Southwest were among the first to cash in on them. Some found traveling around in crowds was a cheaper way to go. Shortages of new clothes became a common thing. Guys suddenly became interested in "women's lib", as they realized it could be a money saver for them. More established couples resorted to watching T.V., taking romantic walks, and doing anything else that was free, like, well . . .

80's Show Style

The clothes of fashion in the 80's were considered original and unique. While they may have introduced new variations, the old theme of the 50's was still dominating. The "preppy" look could be seen in penny loafers, oxford shirts, knee-highs, and bobby sox. The designer jean scene took hold with Calvin Kelin, Gloria Vanderbilt, and Jordache. More than ever teens had the chance to chose since 1980 was an "anything goes" year.

Varsity Proves Tough to Beat

Football, a popular sport in the tradition of Southwest, finished strong this season under the coaching of James Cox.

Although the team was a young team with ten sophomores and two returning starters, the varsity team held strong.

Several outstanding players this year were Dennis Hughes, three-year letterman, Robert Skinner, outstanding receiver, and Jeff Watson. Shaw Thompson completed 181 yards.

The highlight of the season, according to Coach Cox, was the Homecoming game against Paschal. Thompson and Skinner both set high school records.

Coach Cox concluded the season's attempts by stating, "The team always played as hard as they could." "Every member pulled his load, and above all, they never quit."

JV Rebels Show Skill

The coaches and players of JV tried to prepare themselves for rough competition in Varsity football in future years, and with a dedicated group of athletes, they did just that. Beating Paschal 14-0, and Irving Nimitz 12-0, the team proved their abilities with many top individuals excelling in JV football. Under the fine coaching of Coach Ingram and Coach Nelson, many individuals excelled competitively, with Rob Churchill, running back David Wagner, Jeff Acker, and Jeff Boudreaux, who moved up to varsity towards the end of the season, leading the pack.

Freshmen Prove Successful

The Freshman Football Team, led by Coach Walter Dansby, proved Southwest has a strong future in football. The team had a successful season with a record of 7 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Coach Dansby stated, "We had a great year, even though we weren't as successful as last year. I really enjoyed working with the team." With team spirit and great coaching, the freshman team proved to hold their own.

Cagers Play To Victory

With Greg McCain playing defensively and John Brownlee, an all-around utility man, leading the offense, the Southwest Rebels proved to be strong contenders in district. With Duncanville and Sam Houston being our two leading opponents, the Southwest Varsity practiced and played very hard this year. Starting their season officially in January, Coach Wood worked with fine players that had the drive and the determination to be first in District. At the last date before these pages were sent in, Southwest was ranked eleventh in the state in district play and was well on the way to a deserved district title.

JV, Freshmen Offer Promise

Under the direction of Coach Walter Dansby, the Junior Varsity Rebels finished a successful year. With many new players bringing fresh new talent to Southwest basketball, Coach Dansby worked mostly on perfecting the team's executions and improving an offensive strategy, and preparing individuals on the team for a continuing successful Varsity team in future years.

The Freshman basketball team entered this year into the world of high school competition. Beginning the season in January, the freshmen worked all year, learning the basics of basketball competition. Girls Teams Lead District

The Southwest girls' varsity and junior varsity basketball teams were strong contenders for the district crown under the direction of Coaches Mike Thompson and Pam Talbert.

Practicing every day after school for three hours, the varsity team placed third in district this year behind Dunbar and O.D. Wyatt, with Dunbar taking first. As a young team with only one starting senior, Monica, Coach Pam Talbert was pleased with how well the team worked together.

Taking first in district under the direction of Coach Mike Thompson, the junior varsity team showed great promise in defending the district title in future years. With O.D. Wyatt proving to be their toughest competition, Southwest won first with an undefeated season.

Players Excel

"If there is one thing I would wish for the team," Coach Luis Garguilo once stated, "it would be that the student body be aware of our winning and care."

Finishing first in District last year, the Southwest boys' soccer team promised another winning season under the guidance of Coach Garguilo. With their toughest competition being Arlington Heights, Western Hills, and Paschal, the team seemed flawless in every game they played. The players worked hard every day after school, perfecting their shooting skills and ball control. Hoping for another winning season, the Southwest soccer team had the drive and the determination to prove themselves champions once again.

Girls' Win!

Under the direction of Coach Kris Nettleship, the Southwest girls' soccer team had another successful year, finishing high in district. With their toughest competition being Paschal and Arlington Heights this year, the girls worked hard every day after school for three hours drilling and perfecting skills. The twenty-one girls on the team were relatively new and inexperienced, but no less determined to prove themselves champions. With two new goalies, Carolyn Carver and Cory Bilz working well together, the Southwest soccer team worked hard in producing another winning season.

Golfers Compete In Tournaments

Under the guidance of Mr. Ed Revercomb, the Southwest golf team had another successful season. The team practiced during sixth period and after school at various golf courses working on their driving and putting. Attending many important tournaments including the Recreation Tournament and tournaments in Grand Prairie, Joshua, and Arlington Heights proved to be the team's toughest competition. Mr. Revercomb praised the talent of many of his golfers, citing Larry Riley, Brad Stumpf, Gary Howard, and Cory Black as some of the outstanding members of the team.

Rebel Swimmers Remain On Top

Swimming is an individual, as well as a team sport, one that takes both time and dedication. Besides practicing at the Panther's Boys' Club Monday through Thursday after school, most swimmers prepared for meets on their own by jogging, lifting weights, and swimming in the mornings. "Though this year's team was young," according to Coach Ray Grawunder, "the team was strong and would probably carry the District crown for the seventh consecutive year." This would further Coach Grawunder's flawless record.

Swimmers Excel

This year, the Seim Team showed strength in distance, with Junior Kay Swyers, and Seniors Cherrie Jobe, Graham Ayers, and Jim Mulqueen excelling as this year's top individual swimmers. The swim team won many meets overall, including the city meet, which they sponsored. Their leading contender would be Arlington Heights for the district title. The Southwest diving team, though small, showed great promise, with Julie Sebastian as first place potential in state after winning fourth in state last year.

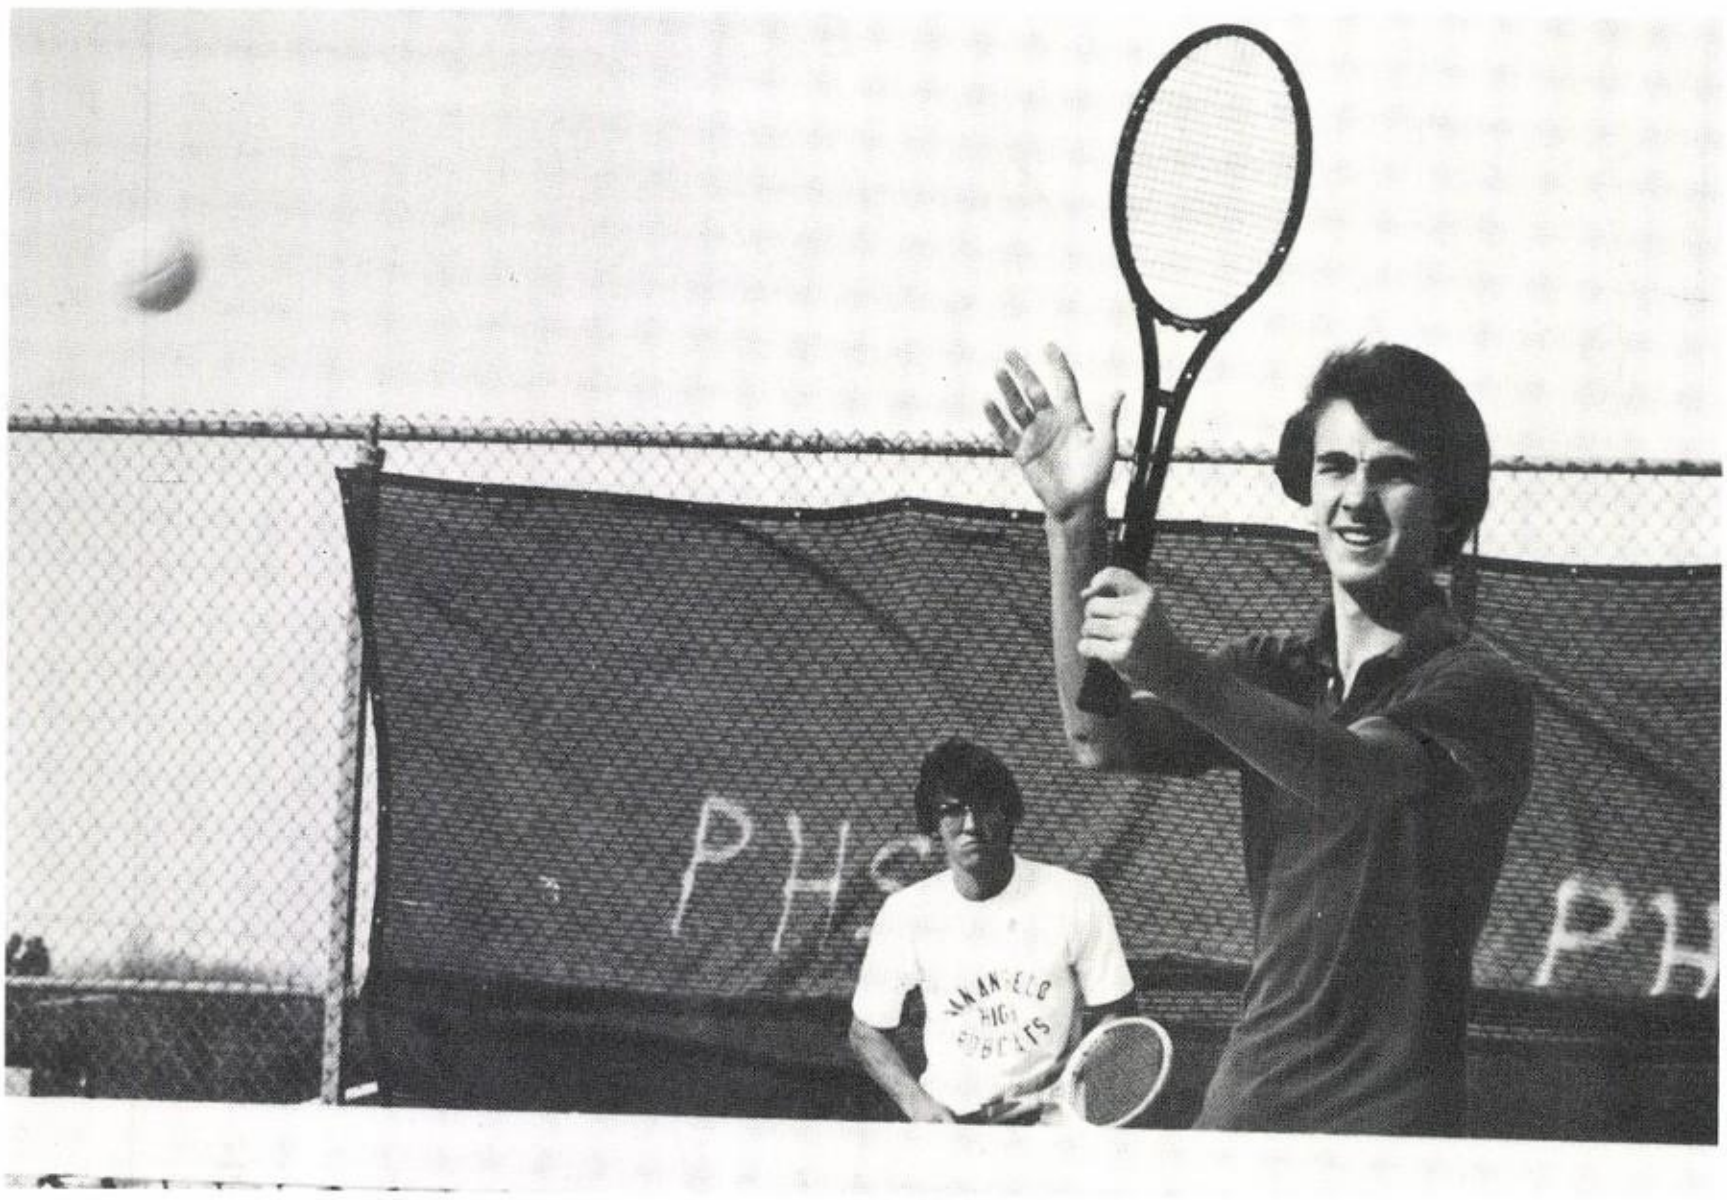
Boys Tennis Team Rallies To Win

Hosting a tournament of their own and participating in other tournaments including Duncanville, Irving, and District, the Southwest Boys Tennis team worked hard under the direction of Mr. James Hoffpauir.

Twenty-four players on the team competed this year, combining experience and fresh new talent for another successful season. Many players contributed to the success of the team this year including David Alexander, a senior, and Steve Presley, a sophomore, who proved to be outstanding tennis team members.



Steve Presley doesn't know whether to hit the ball or wave to it.

Girls Net Winning Season

Under the coaching of Mrs. Lela Standifer, the Southwest Girls' Tennis team had another successful season.

The Girls' Tennis team participated in several tournaments, including the tournaments at TWC, Arlington Heights, and Bell High School. The SHS "Netters" proved solid in District with players such as Libby Duncan, Lucy Bensinger, Pam Lowerey, and Julie Shanklin leading the way to victory in many tournaments and practicing every day during sixth period and after school. Mrs. Standifer said of her team, "Over the years, it has been a great pleasure to work with some very fine people."

SHS Gymnasts Prove Competitive

Although Coach Pam Talbert and the Southwest gymnasts were frustrated due to the short practice periods and lack of outside support because it wasn't a UIL sport, the Southwest gymnastics team proved competitive again this year. With only a few teams to go against in the city this year, Western Hills proved to be the team's toughest rival. With many talented gymnasts excelling in all areas, the team overcame all obstacles and fought together as a team of champions.

Boys Cross-Country proved exciting this year with varsity, junior varsity, and freshman teams all capturing first place in district. Under the supervision of Coach Nelson, the varsity team went on to place second in Regionals, being one of the three teams qualified for state, along with Arlington and Mesquite, winning eleventh in the state meet. With Keith Breese, and Mike Efferson being the two leading contenders along with many other talented runners, the teams had the endurance, drive and determination to capture first place in six out of eight regional meets. Keith Breese also received the distinction of being Individual District Champion.

Boys Outdistance Competitors

Under the management of Oran Williams and the guidance of Coach Mike Nelson, the Southwest Varsity Track team seemed nearly invincible this year. The team proved strong in distance with Keith Breese leading the way and in the field events with John Pattison proving strong in the high jump. John Pattison, who won district in the high jump for the past two years and placed second as a freshman, showed even greater promise as a senior. Practicing distance runs in the mornings and working on all other events after school, the team looked forward to running in the district, regional, and state meets.

Girls X-Country Tough to Beat

Coach Linda Schram was busy with more than the usual volleyball and track teams this year. Under her experienced guidance, the Girls' X-Country team won the sistrict title again, proving themselves champions for the eighth year in a row.

Up at the school at 7:00 every morning before school, the team worked tirelessly, determined to one day hold the district championship's trophy. Often both boys and girls X-Country ran with each other. The two teams worked closely together as friends, and finally as district champions. Said Nancy Parkhill of the team, "We were all winners. If you can run two miles, no matter how fast or slow, with a hurting body and mind, you're a winner."

Cindy Bennett stretches it out to the finish.

Girl Runners Prove Competitive

Attending many meets this year including the Ft. Worth Girls' Coaches Association Meet in February and the District Meet in April, the girls' varsity and the junior varsity track teams showed strength in the 220 and 440 runs and the hurdles. The varsity team was also a contender in the newest event, the two-mile run, with Cindy Bennett, Paula Eberlein, and Julie Owen leading in one and two mile runs. Missy Smith proved an able contender in the 880 run.

With their seasons beginning in early February, the teams worked every day under the direction of Coaches Linda Schram and Kris Nettleship. The Southwest varsity baseball team had a solid and strong year with seven returning starters under the direction of Coach Tom Ingram. Realizing their goal, to be the best in district, the team worked hard together, becoming proficient and mastering their skills. With Kight Higgins, co-captain of the team next to Kirk Godby, being a potential scholarship winner as well as a professional baseball player, the team was virtually faultless. Working every day after school under Coach Ingram and the management of Danny Mathews and Barry Browning, the team worked hard for a victorious season.

J.V. & Freshmen Strive To Win

Under the direction of Coach Calder, the Junior Varsity baseball team began their season in early March. With Steve Hampton and Ray Smith pitching well, the team worked hard in preparation for future years of varsity baseball. Working hard to perfect their pitching and hitting game, coach Calder stated, "Without a good pitching and hitting game, a team can't win." With Eastern Hills, Arlington Heights, and O.D. Wyatt bringing the team their toughest competition, the team planned to win the District title.

With Arlington Heights and Eastern Hills as the Freshman team's toughest competiton, the Freshman baseball team worked hard for a winning season under the direction of coach Thompson. Playing all opposing teams twice this season, their first game was played on March 3. Aside from playing ball, the team earned money through sponsoring a dance and a television Raffle in order to raise money for uniforms and equipment. Many key players stood out this year with Ted Truly catching and Brent Kutach playing ball as shortstop.

Volleyers "Spike" Back

Coach Nettleship gives the team a pregame pep talk.

Asked about her volleyball team, Coach Linda Schram said, "I was extremely pleased with the way the team played this season." Coming short of winning district again this year against O.D. Wyatt, the Southwest Varsity Volleyball Team was an extremely competitive force this year. Early in September, the Varsity team played in an Arlington tournament against strong opponents before the team placed first in the Everman tournament.

Many top honors were earned this year. Kris Meldrum and Maureen Kenney were chosen to participate in the All-Tournament team at Everman. Donna Tomsic made All-Tournament team at Birdville while Maureen Kenney was voted Best Defensive Player at the same tournament. Maureen Kenney and Kris Meldrum made first team All-District with Melody Burleson and Donna Tomsic as second team All-District winners.

Donna Tomsic spikes a quick return over the net.

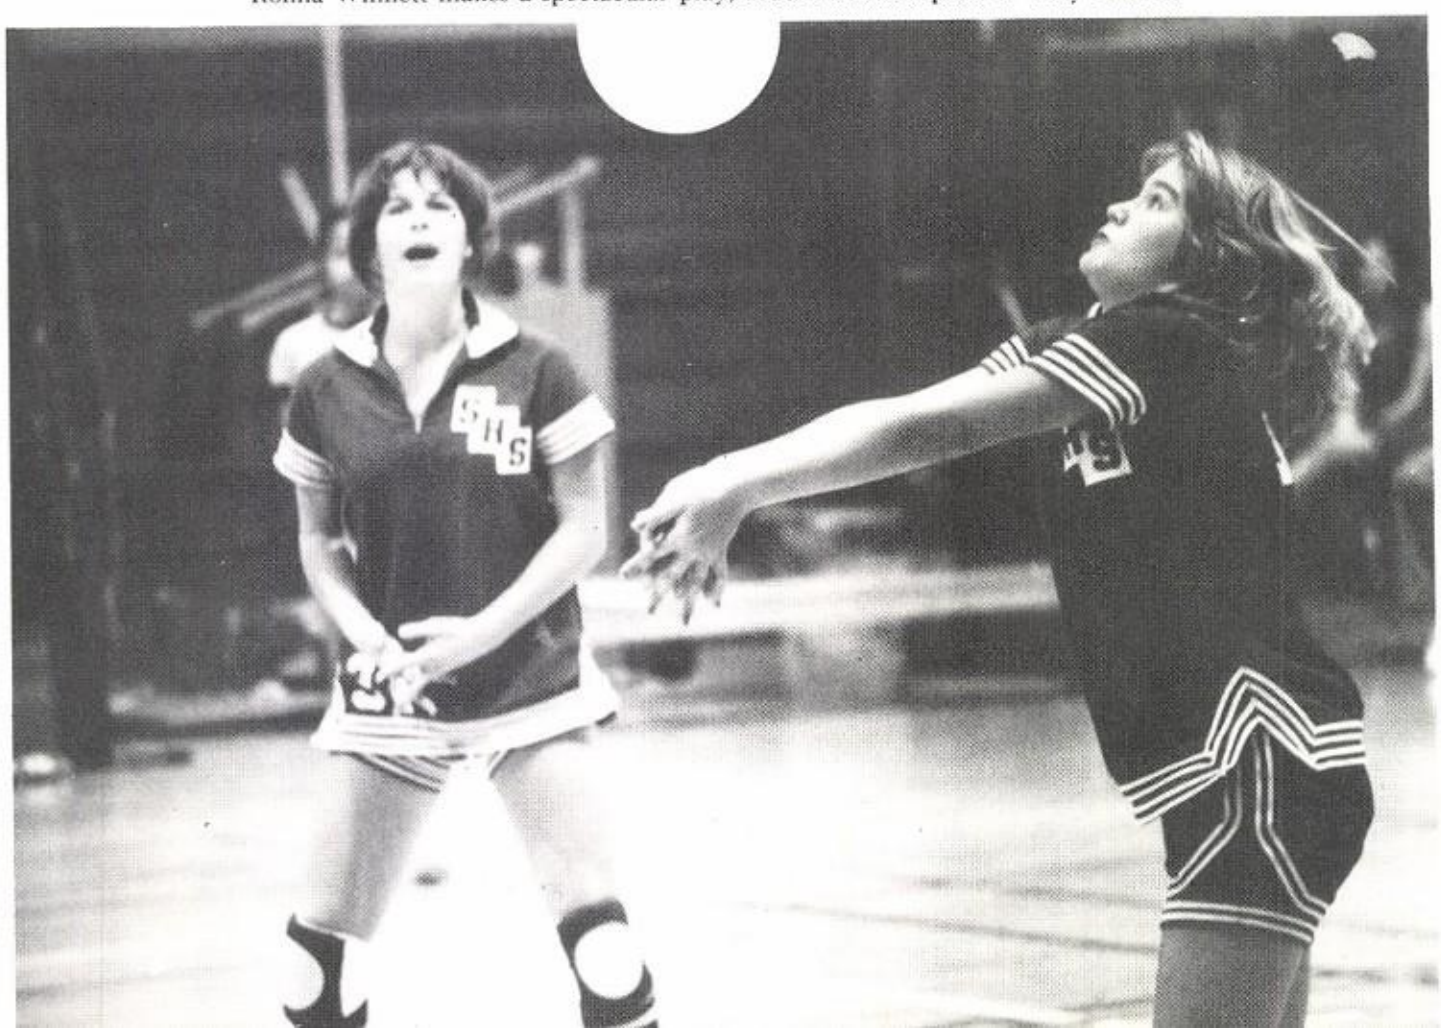
Theresa Ross returns a high volley with skill.

Ronna Winnett makes a spectacular play, much to the surprise of Amy Lasater.



New Coach Leads Way

Under the new guidance and inspiration of Coach Kris Nettleship, the Junior Varsity and Freshman volleyball teams placed high in district this year. The Junior Varsity and Freshman teams played several outstanding tournaments this year, with the tournament at TCJC South being the one of key importance for the Junior Varsity and the Paschal tournament bringing competition for the Freshman team.

Coach Nettleship embraced her new job of head coach with much enthusiasm. Though she has worked with Coach Linda Schram for the past two years, she was never given full responsibility until this year. Said Schram, "Coach Nettleship has done a great job with the JV and Freshman teams. She came into volleyball with little knowledge, but alot of desire." Proving herself as a fine coach, she was greatly welcomed by her players as well as fellow volleyball coaches as a new and very appreciated face in our school's athletics.

Cheerleader's Lead Teams

As a most welcome and needed group in the school, and probably the most spirited, the Southwest cheerleaders led cheers through all football games, and basketball games and the games less regularly attended. Surviving hot gyms, rain, and wind, the girls lifted spirits and held them high. Under Mrs. Carol Graves and Mrs. Delores Griffith, the girls did more than cheer at games. Painting posters, decorating the football players' lockers and rooms, directing Homecoming processions, and leading cheers at pep rallies, the Southwest cheerleaders proved to be a true asset in the life of Southwest High.

Cheerleaders Promote Spirit

With six girls on each team, the Southwest Junior Varsity and Freshman Cheerleaders proved invaluable for the underclassman football and other athletic teams. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Carol Graves and Mrs. Delores Griffith, the cheerleaders took part at pep rallies, helped sponsor a school dance, and cheered numerous athletic teams on to victory. Elected at the end of last year, the girls worked hard to get on the team, and even today, after their own private victories of winning a place on the team, they work to continue promoting spirit at Southwest.

CREWS

Clubs

The Southwest clubs play an important part in school life, just as the crew is a vital part of making a movie. The special crews add variety to the production. Their individual interests help in making our movie more complete.

Marching Band Earns Top Rating

The Southwest Marching Band had another successful season. Under the direction of Mr. Bob Sherman and the leadership of Drum Majors Jim Sager and Alan Huckaby and Band Captain Diane Biar, the band received a "1" rating at city competition and the highest honor of "Best Band in Class 5A". The band also received a "1" at UIL. At the Music Bowl held in Denton, the Rebel Band finished second overall and received the award for best Drum Majors. In between their busy schedules, band members sold light bulbs, Christmas ornaments and wrapping, and stuffed animals. The money raised helped buy new uniforms and pay for the spring band trip.

Language Clubs Stay Busy

The French Club has helped promote the French language and research the French heritage. The club's 31 students, along with President Michelle Middlebrook and Vice President Jo James participated in many contests. The Spanish Club, sponsored by Mrs. O'Dell, has kept busy year round. Mercy Ochoa is President and Mala Mahendroo is Vice President. Both the Russian and German Clubs have busied themselves in learning about the language's origin. The Russian Club is sponsored by Mr. Joel Langvardt, and the German Club by Mrs. Bungarz.

Active Clubs Promote Spirit

The Concerned Senior Girls have participated in several worthwhile activities. Some of these include visiting nursing homes, sending Christmas cards to the Iranian hostages, and offering a reward for the "B.B. Sniper" during a pep rally. The group has 65 members enrolled. With the help of sponsor, Mrs. Pam Nelson, the girls did a good job promoting school spirit and benefiting the community. A newly organized club at Southwest, the Rebel Spirit Rousers, have helped revive class spirit among students. Under the supervision of club sponsors, Mrs. Angie Becker, Mrs. Susan Bronk, and Mrs. June Grier, the Spirit Rousers sold Rebel Rags to raise money for their club. Captains, Cori Andrews, Susan Brock, Robin Rawls, and other club members decorated lockers for the Homecoming game and participated in a pep rally skit.

Various Clubs Remain Active

This year's Math Club stayed busy this year furthering their knowledge in math, number sense, and calculators. Club sponsor, Mrs. Susan Crummel, helped prepare club members for local contests. Led by President Andrew Johnson and Vice President Dan Jackson, the Math Club represented Southwest in a manner anyone would be proud of.

The Science Club, sponsored by Mrs. Dorothy Thomas was involved in several advanced projects. The Fort Worth Regional Science Fair, NTSU Energy Program, and the Premedical-Predental Symposium at TCU were the main events the club was involved in. Hard work and determination helped these 35 members attain their goals with ease. Science Club president is Michelle Jones and Vice President is Denise Tiberi.

This year's Stage Band was in constant practice for competition at the second annual "Battle of the Stage Bands". They came into the contest defending the first place spot they now hold. This year's band features State Jazz Band bass trombonist, Scott Moelling.

The five member Whiz Quiz team hopes to achieve the same success of last year's team. Sponsors, Mrs. Susan Crummel and Mr. Jim Hofmann helped prepare the team for competitions such as the "Battle of the Brains". Whiz Quiz President is Andrew Johnson.

Debate Team Wins For Southwest

Students in the Forensics program gain confidence and poise through competative speaking and performance. Debate was offered as a class this year for the first time under Coach Donna Hall. Forensics President is Jeff Harwell and Vice President is Heidi Phillips. Interpretative events such as duet acting, prose and poetry events teach students to gain insight and understanding into authors works. Debators earn points toward membership in the National Forensics League through competition. Students participated in local and area speech tournaments and competed in NFL and UIL competition. Southwest also hosted a speech tournament.

Thespians Have Successful Year

As an official club of Southwest, the Thespians were responsible for presenting school plays, as well as outside productions. Because it was a group of distinguished drama students, members gain recognition as Thespains through points earned participating actively in plays and backstage. Sponsored by Mrs. Edlyne Dickson; Patricia Friesen worked as President and Brian Harris served as Vice President. With "Diary of Adam and Eve" and Twain by the Tale as their fall production, the group of 27 active members worked even harder on the spring musical, Brigadoon, completing another successful year.

Clubs Prepare Members

VOE trains students in typing skills and the operation of office equipment. This active club sponsored by Mrs. Sylvia Land involves office related jobs. HOC is a health oriented club which offers training in a medical career. This club is sponsored by Mrs. Pansy Pettus. Clubs Inform Students

ICT is a class taught by Mr. Sam Wheat and is offered to juniors and seniors. This class allows a student to attend school part of the day, while working the latter half of the day. These various jobs prepare for a future career and class credit is also earned. The Student Advisory Committee, sponsored by Ms. Meek and Miss Wilson have an active membership of 18. The President is Yolanda Sparks and the Vice President is Mikaela Wade. The organization takes part in developing more activities to eliminate minority group isolation, as well as serving as a human relations group. Thanks to the efforts of this committee, we have a suggestion box located in the front office.

Art, Key Clubs Conclude Eventful, Busy Year

The Key Club, led by Yolanda Sparks, acts as a service group to Southwest as well as the community. The members, sponsored by Mr. Ed York, visited the Wedgwood Nursing Home. The Art Club had a busy year sponsoring an Art Fair selling ceramics, ornaments, and Christmas wreaths. The 21 members took part in creating macrame, pottery, and paintings. Mrs. Bettie Walton sponsored this group which strived to promote the artistic abilities of Southwest students.

Choir Has Winning Year

The A Capella Choir of Southwest has actively participated in many contests, local and abroad. In the fall, the choir had All-District tryouts. Christmas assemblies and city choir contests were the winter activities, spring brought on practice for the spring musical, "Brigadoon", and a concert tour of West Texas and New Mexico. The A Capella Choir is under the supervision of Mr. Danny Hensley.

Orchestra Provides Culture

The Southwest Orchestra, headed by President Elizabeth Warren and Vice President Sarah Welton, have kept busy this year performing in concerts and competition. The 41 members started off with a November concert at TCU, the Christmas Program for SW, and Regional Orchestra. The Orchestra also attended a Denton Workshop, UIL contest, and will complete a busy year providing the music for the spring musical, "Brigadoon". Orchestra leader is Mrs. Jean Graham.

Announcers And SOS Stay Busy

Each morning during homeroom, students are given a chance to listen to the latest activities and information that the members of the Announcer's Club have to offer. At the beginning of the year, try-outs for the Announcer's Club were held. The people who made it were selected by the sponsors; Mrs. Edlyne Dickson and Mrs. Mary Jones, as the ones who did the best job of presenting the announcements in a clear and interesting way.

FHA Tackles Problems

The Signs of Silence serves as goodwill ambassadors for Southwest High School. The 12 active members help closing the communication gap between the hearing and non-hearing people. Performing during Christmas in several local malls, the club created an interest in sign language. Karen Moher is the President and the club is sponsored by Mrs. Elise Jones and Mrs. Avis Stone.

With learning to keep a home as the clubs primary goal, FHA-HERO served an important function in the life of our school. "With all the home related problems in our society today," Mrs. Boyd, the group's sponsor commented, "It's important to learn to deal with these problems." As one of eight chapters in Texas, the Southwest FHA Club attended an area convention in Denton and the state convention in early May. Taking part in visiting senior citizens at the local nursing home was cited as one of the club's goals, as well as sponsoring a school dance in March.

FCA Has Successful Year

The members of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes meet twice a month. Various college and professional athletes speak on their experiences in sports and the role of a Christian athlete playing in athletics. SHS students must participate in some type of athletics to join the 25 member strong organization sponsored by coaches Pam Talbert and Tom Ingram. The club presidents are Kight Higgins and Melody Burleson; vice-presidents are Darrin Roberts and Shelly Ward.

Council Benefits Student Body

Voted on in the spring of the previous year, the Student Council serves as the student voice. Working hard on worthwhile projects ranging from Homecoming Hall, sponsoring dances, and a Halloween Safety Program for elementary students kept this years council busy. The Student Council this year was headed by Mark Hines, Lucy Bensinger, Steve Fish, and David McBeth. Working with no official class period has put a strain on council members. Never-the-less, these students succeeded in holding the Student-Faculty Volleyball game, the blood drive, and a presentation to state wide high schools on revitalization of the SHS campus. The Student Council is sponsored by Mrs. Mary Jones.

Juniors Lisa Watkins, Stacy Measures, and Rick Blue planted trees on the campus Arbor Day.

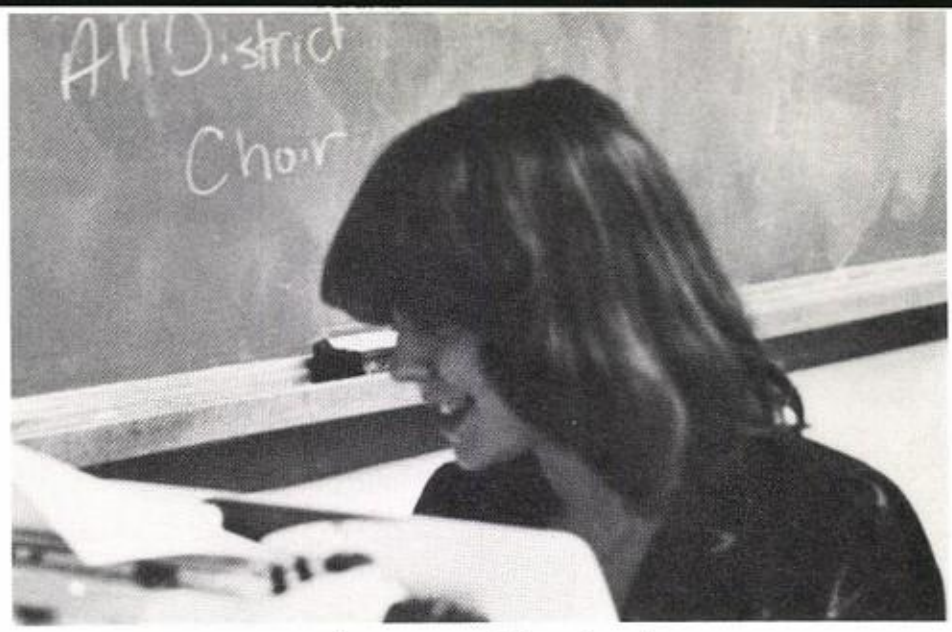
Rebelation Staff, 'Meets the Press'



Mary Herman is proud to use one of those fine classroom typewriters.

Danny Sides is shocked to hear a deadline is actually met.

Nancy Parkhill and Brenda Gabioud find humor in Journalism 1 stories.

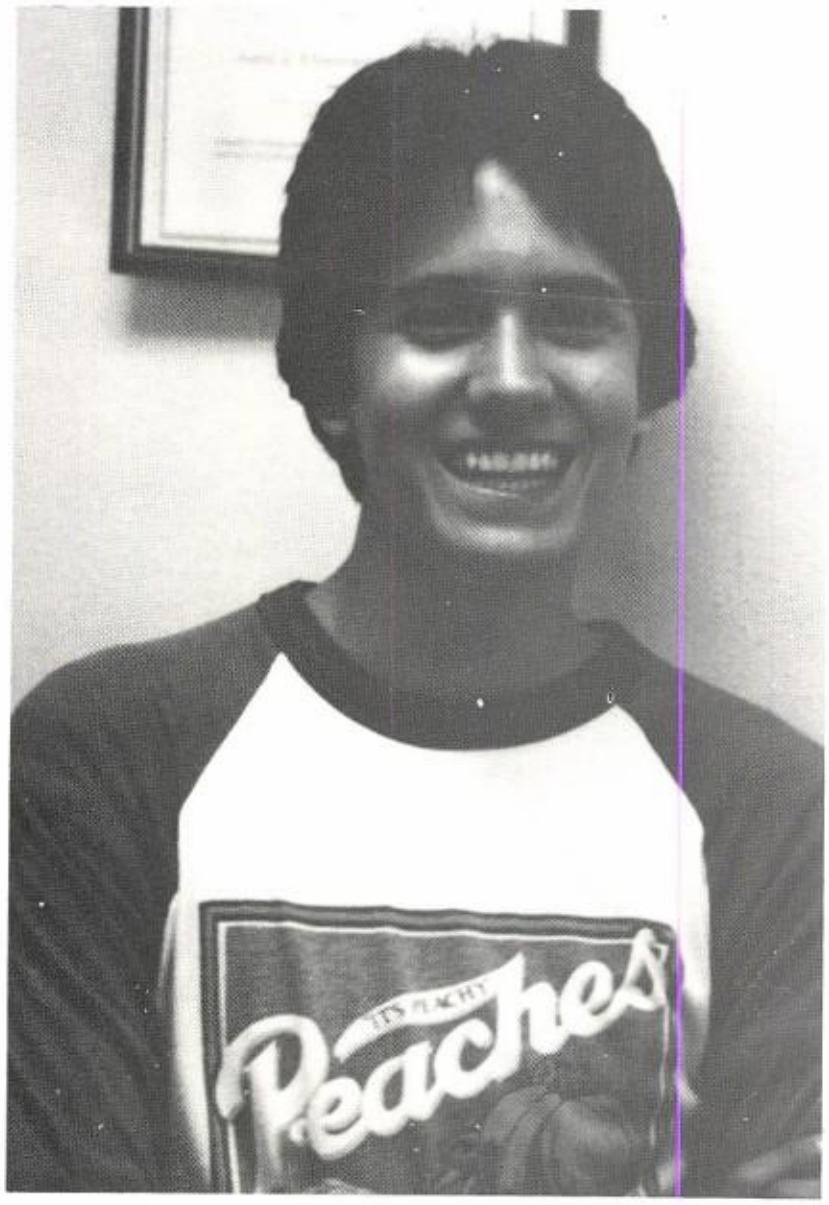
Dina Neace is the subject of another prowling photographer.

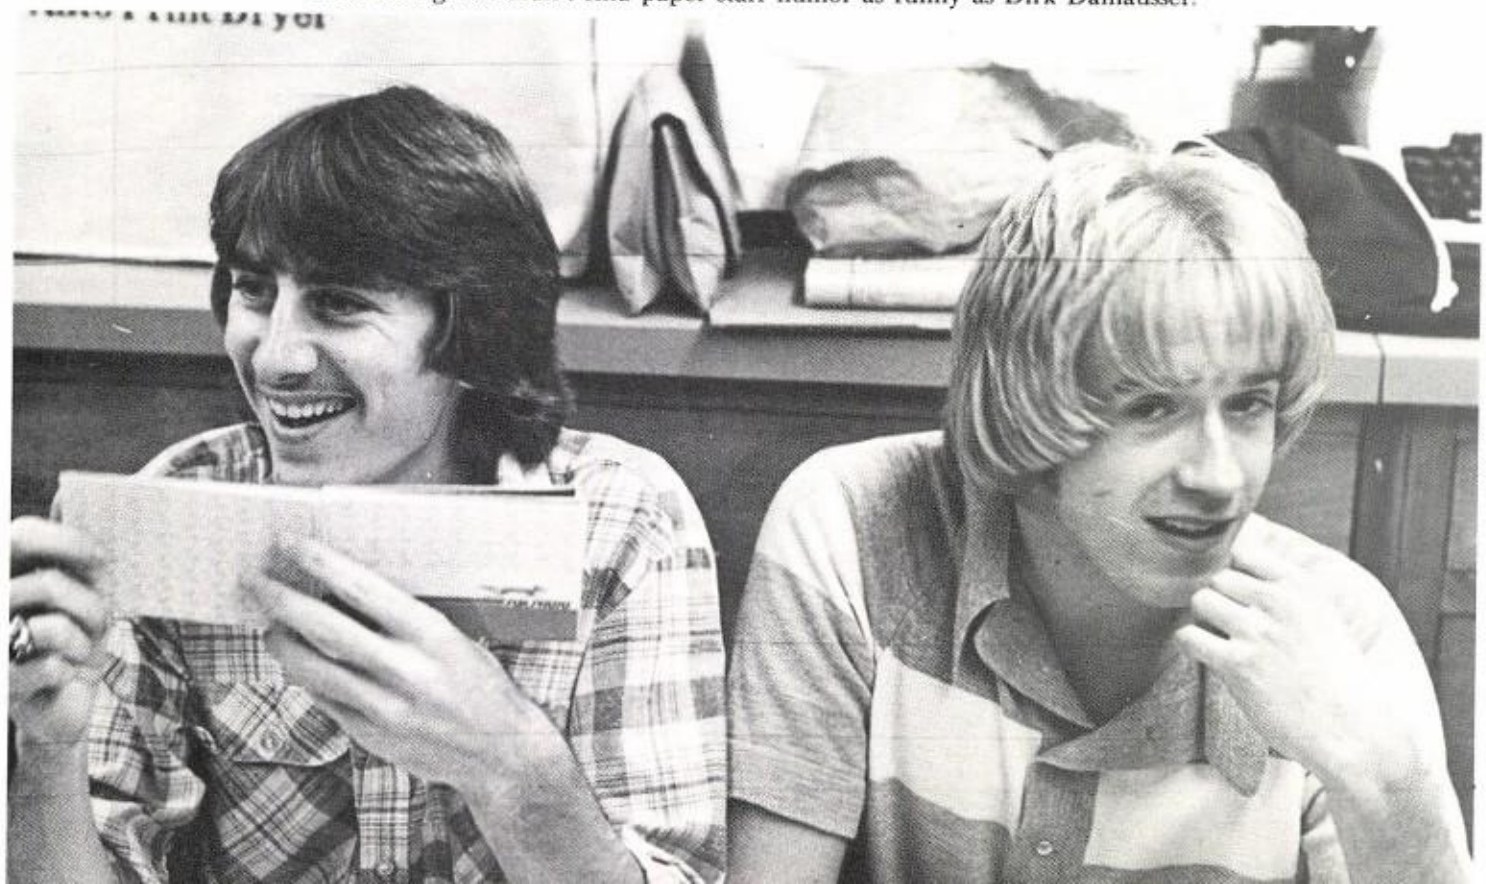
Chyrisse Carter listens to story ideas.

Hall-wanderers to the faculty, yet hard working to themselves, the Rebelation staff once again recorded history in an intriguing style. Editors Danny Sides and Chyrisse Carter led the move in giving the Rebelation a new format which proved to be informative, as well as entertaining. Sponsor, Mrs. Judy Hall, selected the main staff in the spring quarter according to writing skills. The staff attended a journalism workshop in Austin to extend their knowledge in paper production. The 1980-81 Rebelation staff should be commended for their professionalism in news reporting.



"If I have to sell one more ad . . . ", laughs Robert Blassingame.

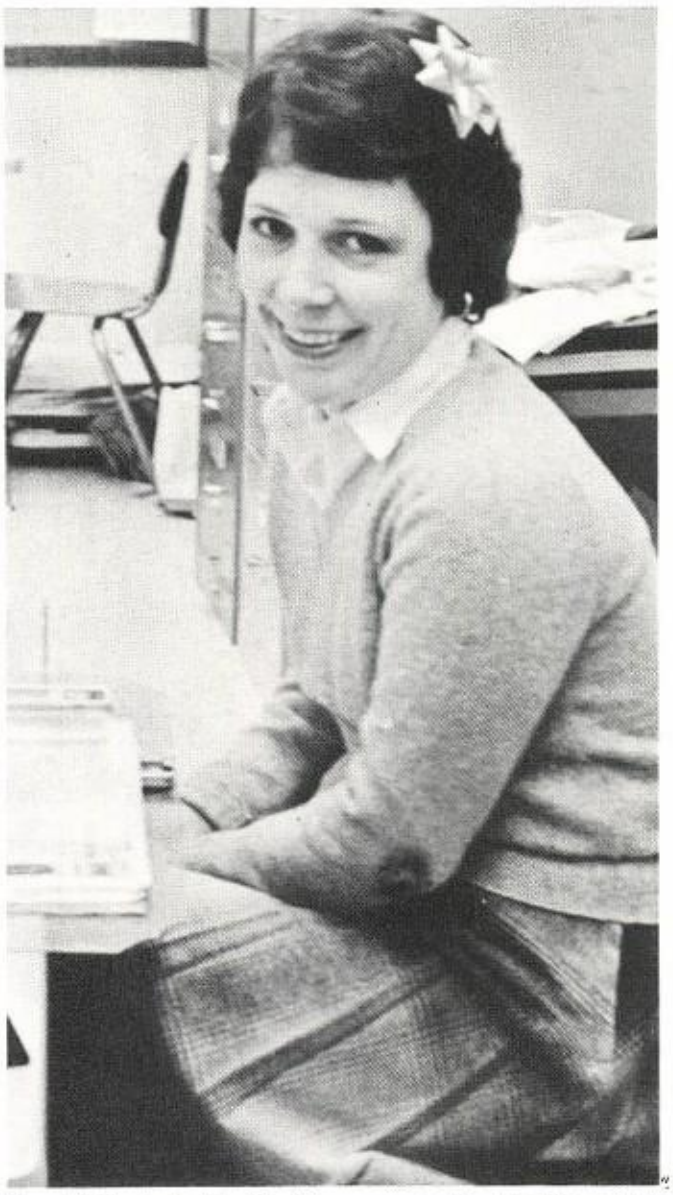
Tom Youngman didn't find paper staff humor as funny as Dirk Dalhausser.



Yearbook Staff Records History

With the exception of Cindy Bryson, Susan Long, Gail Breeze, Debbie Leyva and Robert Blassingame, the 1980-81 Yee Haw staff consists of first year members. These new members were trained in drawing layouts and keeping annual secrets. Having attended a yearbook workshop at TWC, the Yee Haw staff competed against other schools in which they won a first place plaque in Cover Design concept. With the movie theme established, the annual staff carried out the idea in a creative and clever way. Cindy Bryson doubled as editor and photographer to put forth her best effort for a successful annual. Yee Haw sponsor is Mrs. Judy Hall.

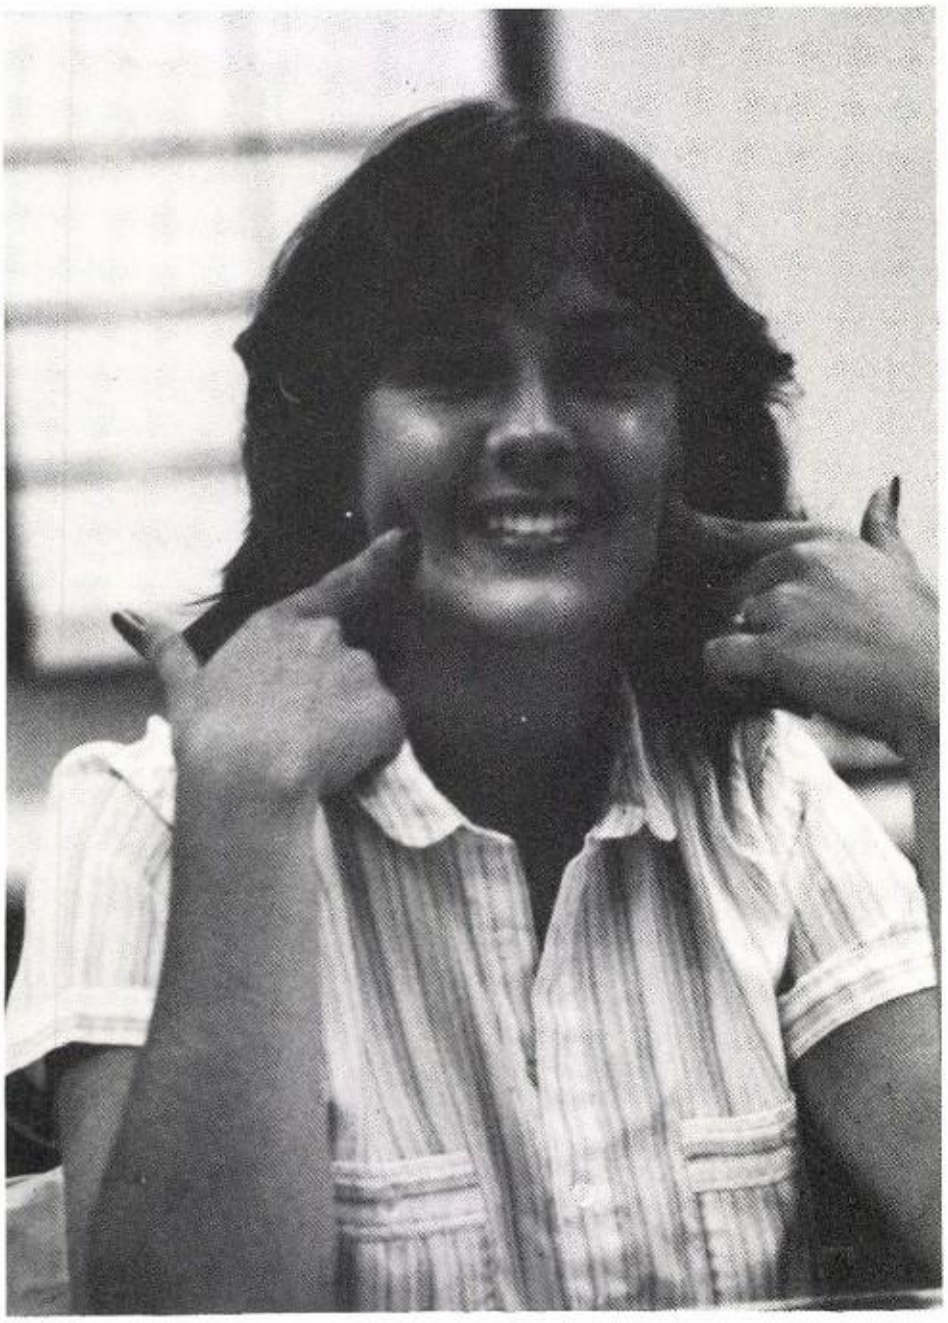
"What did you say about my layout?" questions Susan Long.



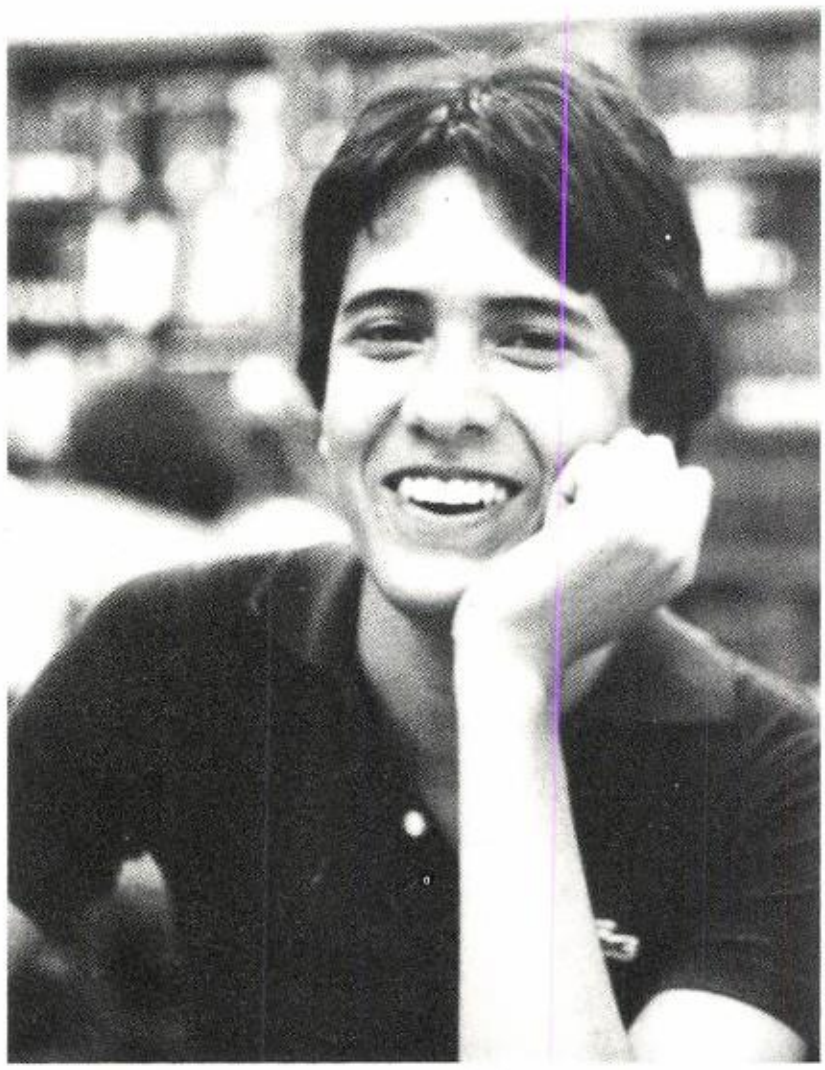
Mrs. Hall gets in the Christmas mood after the December deadline.

Yee Haw Staff: Row One, l to R, Scott Young; Row Two: Connie Castro, Ross Hase; Row Three: Cory Bilz, Cindy Johnson, Mary Winchester, Cindy Bryson, Alan Durham; Row Four: Phillip Lambert, Chyrisse Carter, Gail Breese, Kim Hulsey, Robert Blassingame, Teri Sandifer; Row Five: Kurt Williams, Susan Long, Allan Hale, John Bogle, Roger Smith, Clayton Hays. Not pictured: Debbie Leyva.

"And don't come out 'til you've finished your layout!" growls Cindy Bryson to a shattered Cindy Johnson.



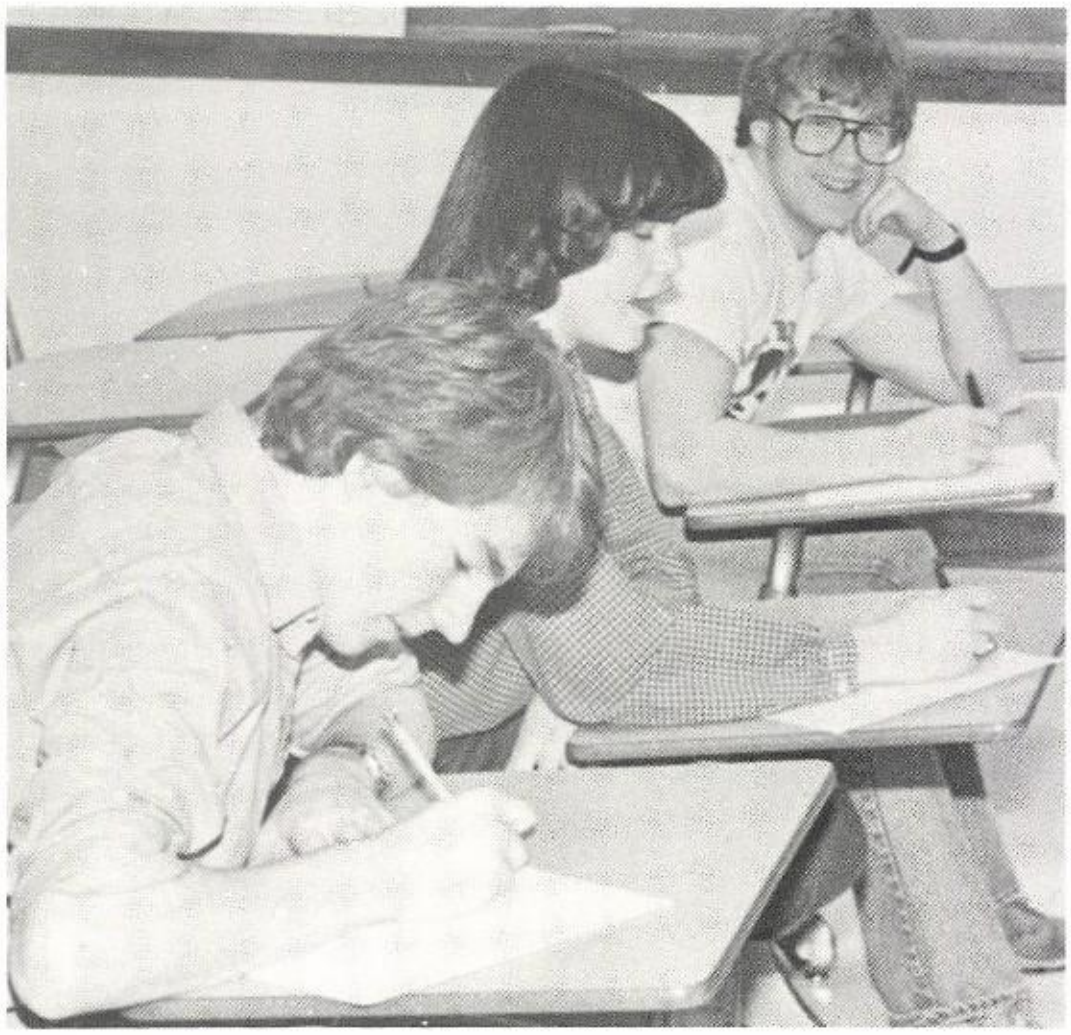
"Now these are what I call dimples," smiles Kim Hulsey.



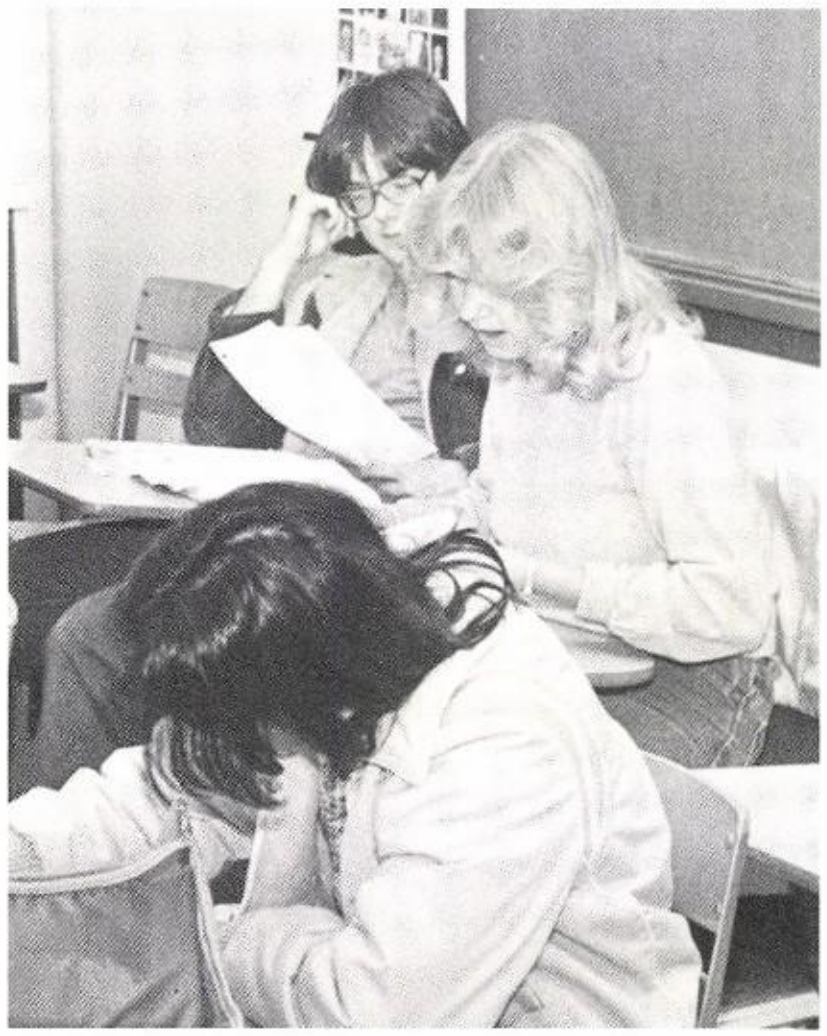
Robert Blassingame laughs at the idea of filling out more receipt books.

Staff Critiques Submissions

Students enrolled in Creative Writing are major contributors for Southwest's highly acclaimed literary magazine, Insight. Short stories, poetry, and original compositions are submitted by staff members who also design an original cover for the May delivered publication. Insight advisor is Mrs. Ruth Thrush.



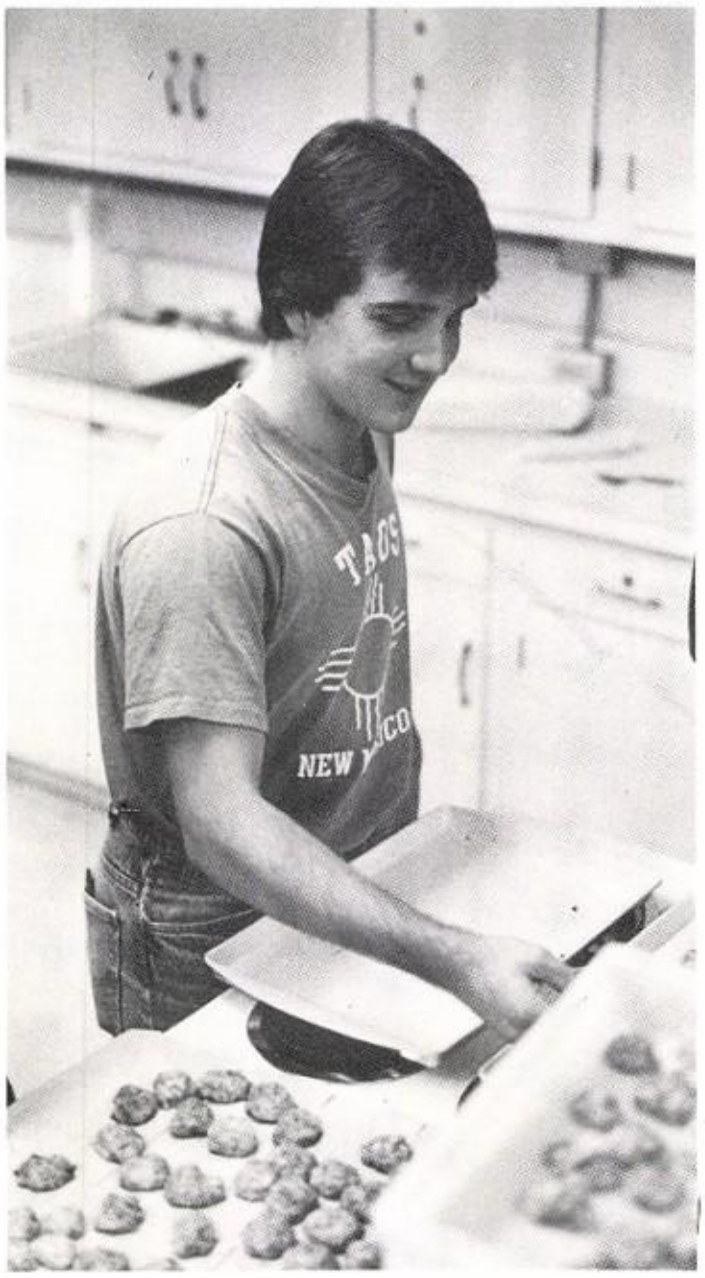
David McBeth smiles for the camera while David English and Connie McWhorter write poems.



Insight staffers rush to meet their deadline.

Insight Staff: Row One, L to R, Connie McWhorter, Sonya Lyon, Randy Bowers, Steve Chamberlain, Shelley Bryant; Row Two: David McBeth, Renee Nicalosi, Lucrecia Salano, Jim Wiley, Kurt Clauser, Mrs. Ruth Thrush, sponsor; Row Three: Taryn Roberts, Meredith Fairchild, Deyne Parks, David English, Brenda Gabioud, John Saal, Jan Landis, Mike Sanderson, Nancy Parkhill.

Band members Karen Williams, John Bogle, and Anne Constantine warm-up for the last pep rally.



Todd Klempnaur burns another batch of cookies.

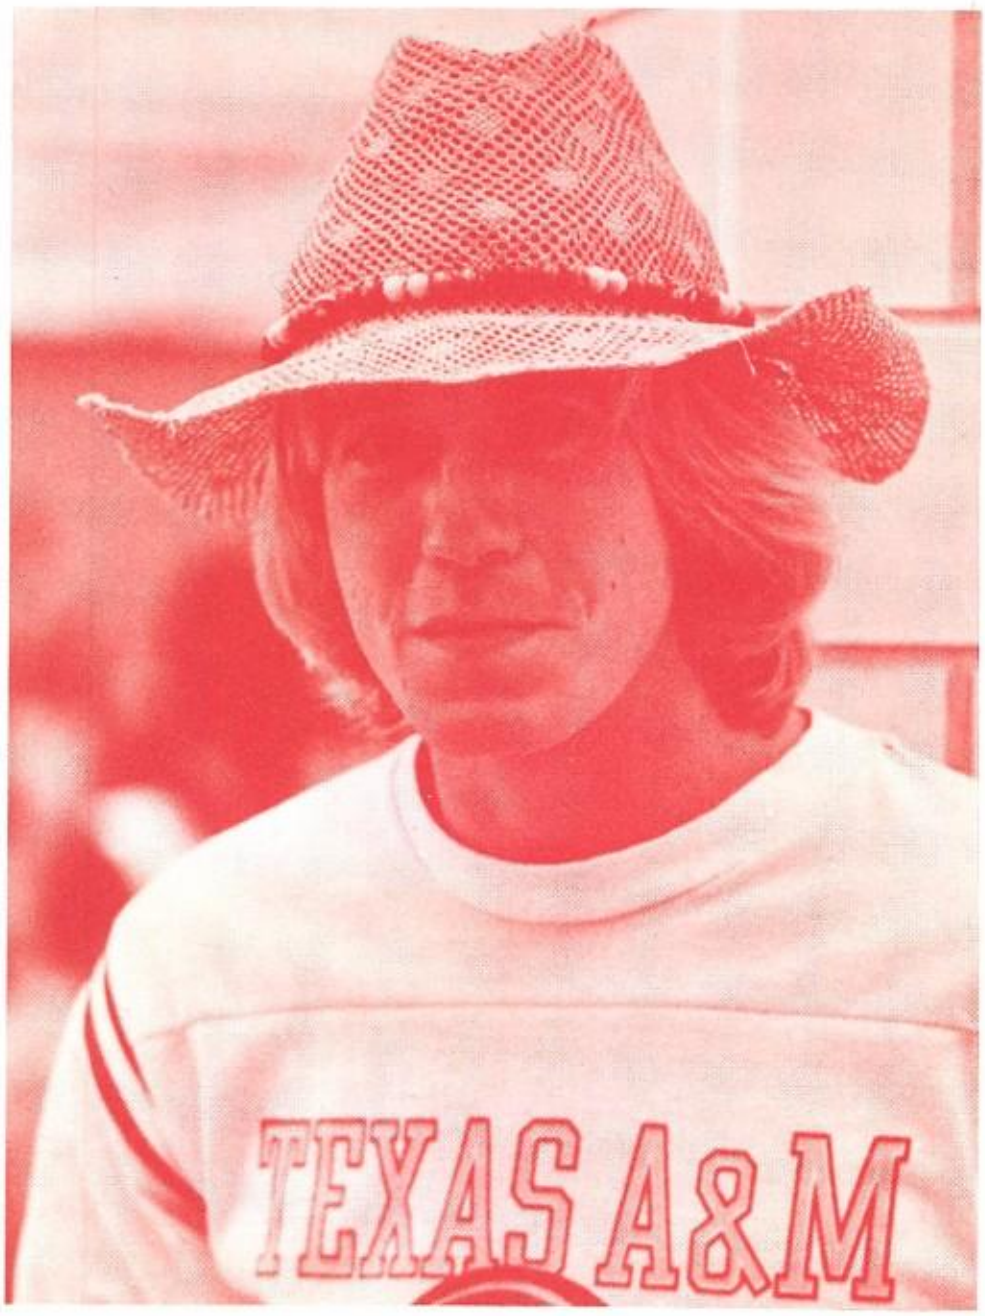
Clubs Spotlighted

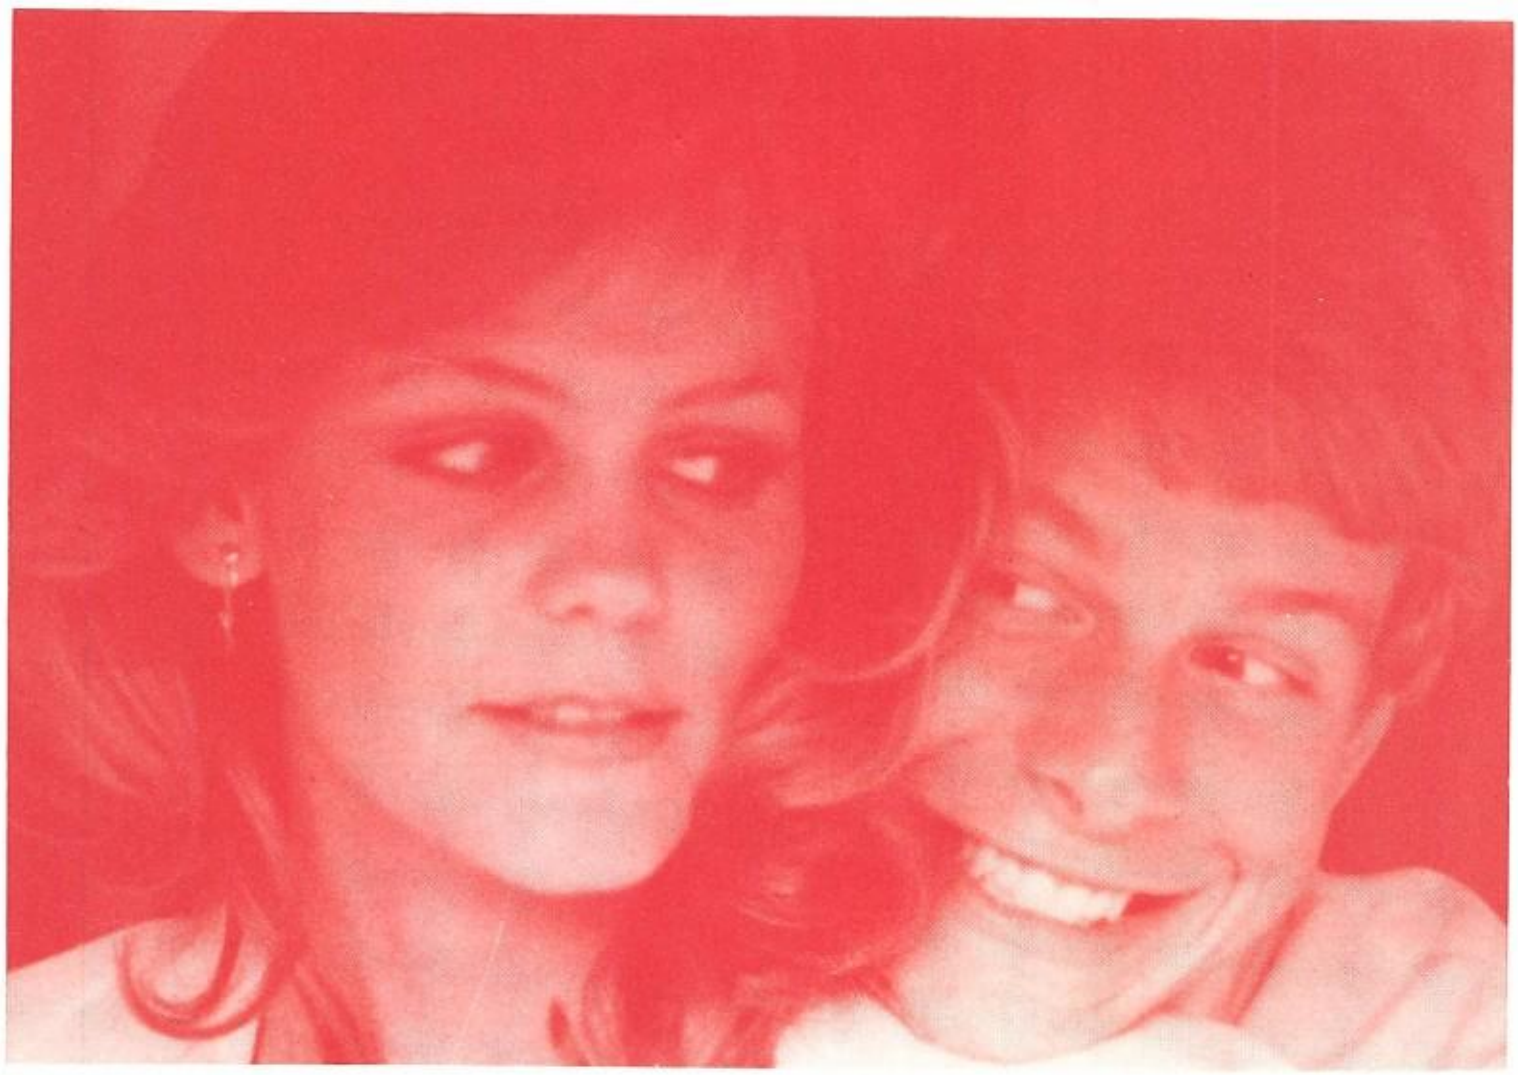
Important goals are usually accomplished when a student participates in a club. Not only are new friends obtained, but experience is gained in participation and communication. The clubs are geared to benefit the student as well as give them the chance to develop a talent. In conclusion, Southwest organizations give students, as well as the faculty, the chance to broaden their horizons socially and intellectually.

CAST



Classes

The quality of a movie depends on the people cast in the roles. Southwest's quality goes hand-in-hand with the people who make up the classes. The Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes interact to form a unified student body, creating an ideal cast.



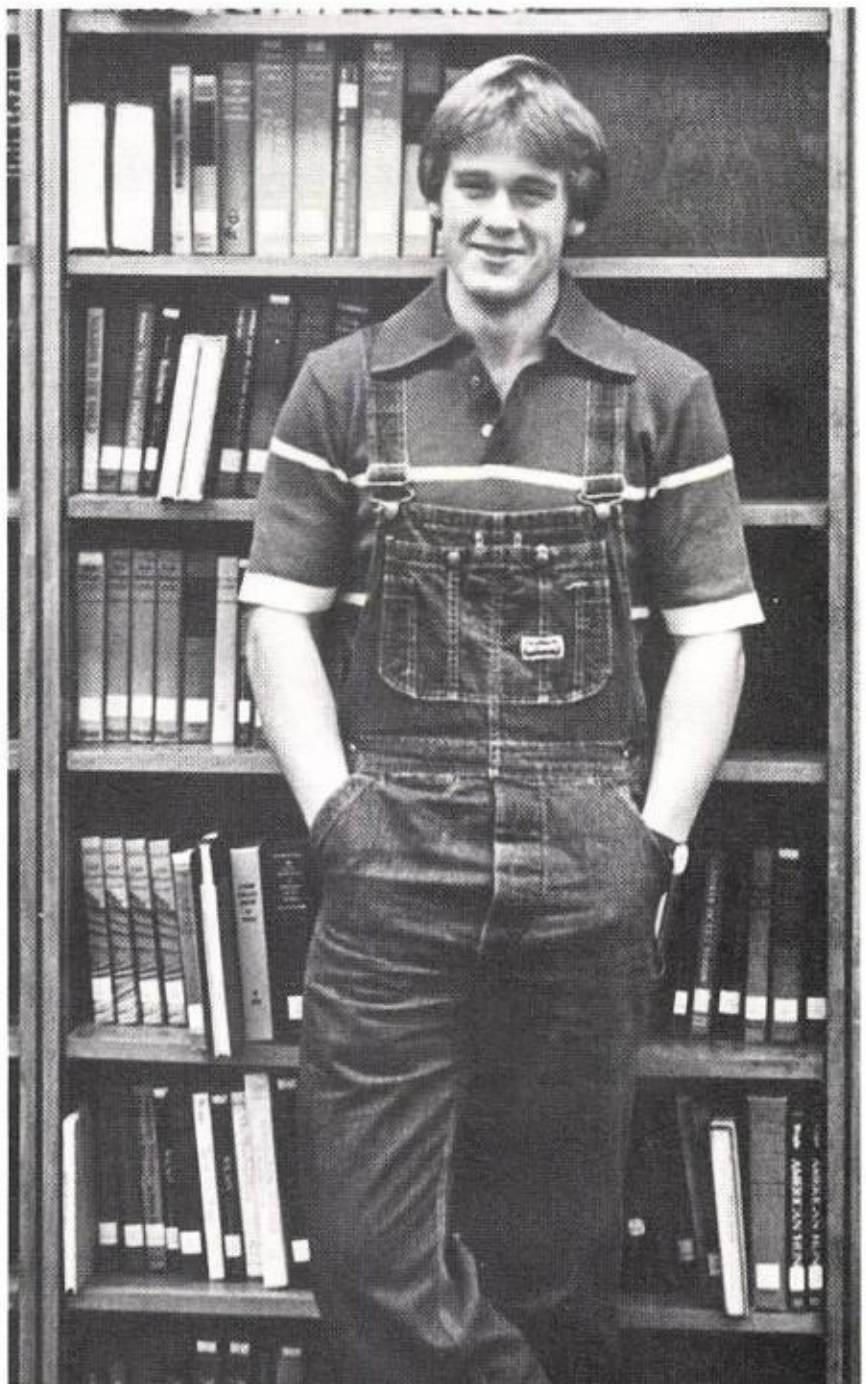
Student Body Officers

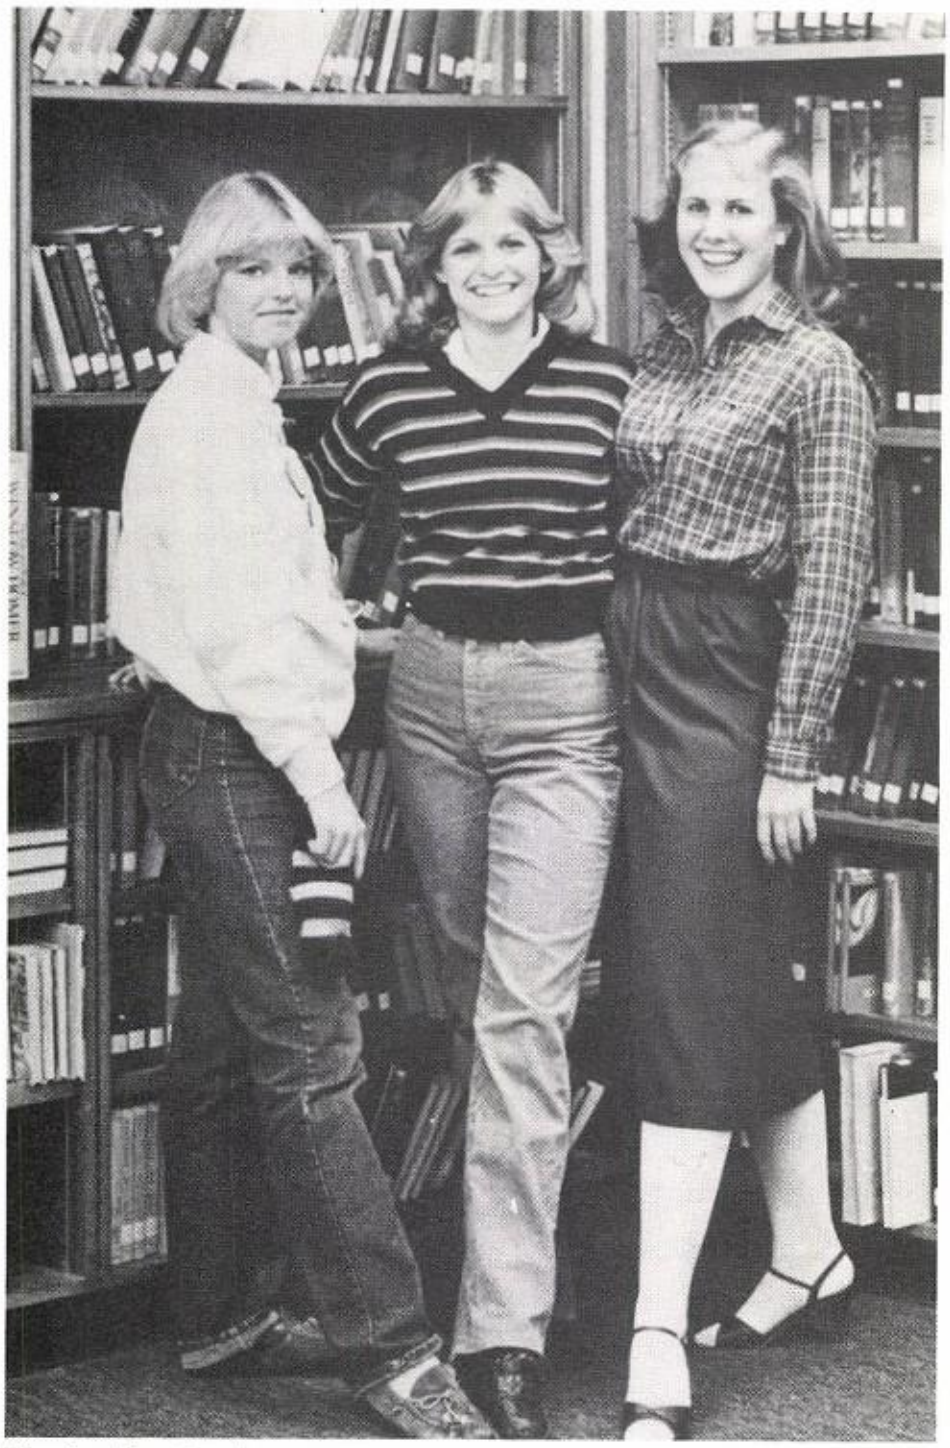
Treasurer, John Berringer; Vice-President, Steve Fish; President, Mark Hines; Secretary, Lucy Bensinger.

Senior Student Council

As the school year begins, so does the planning of the senior delegation. This year began with the annual senior magazine sales, to promote unity in the class and to raise money for future activities. Other activities included the Halloween safety program to teach elementary school children safety habits and the Thanksgiving Service project in which a needy family received a Thanksgiving turkey. Christmas was a cheery time of year. The delegation put on skits and went caroling at the Wedgwood old folks home and the Juvenile Detention home. The coordination of the Senior Dinner-Dance ended up this year's activities with a bang!

President David McBeth





Vice-President Gretchen Koop; Treasurer, Terri Yates; Secretary, Shawna Nickell.

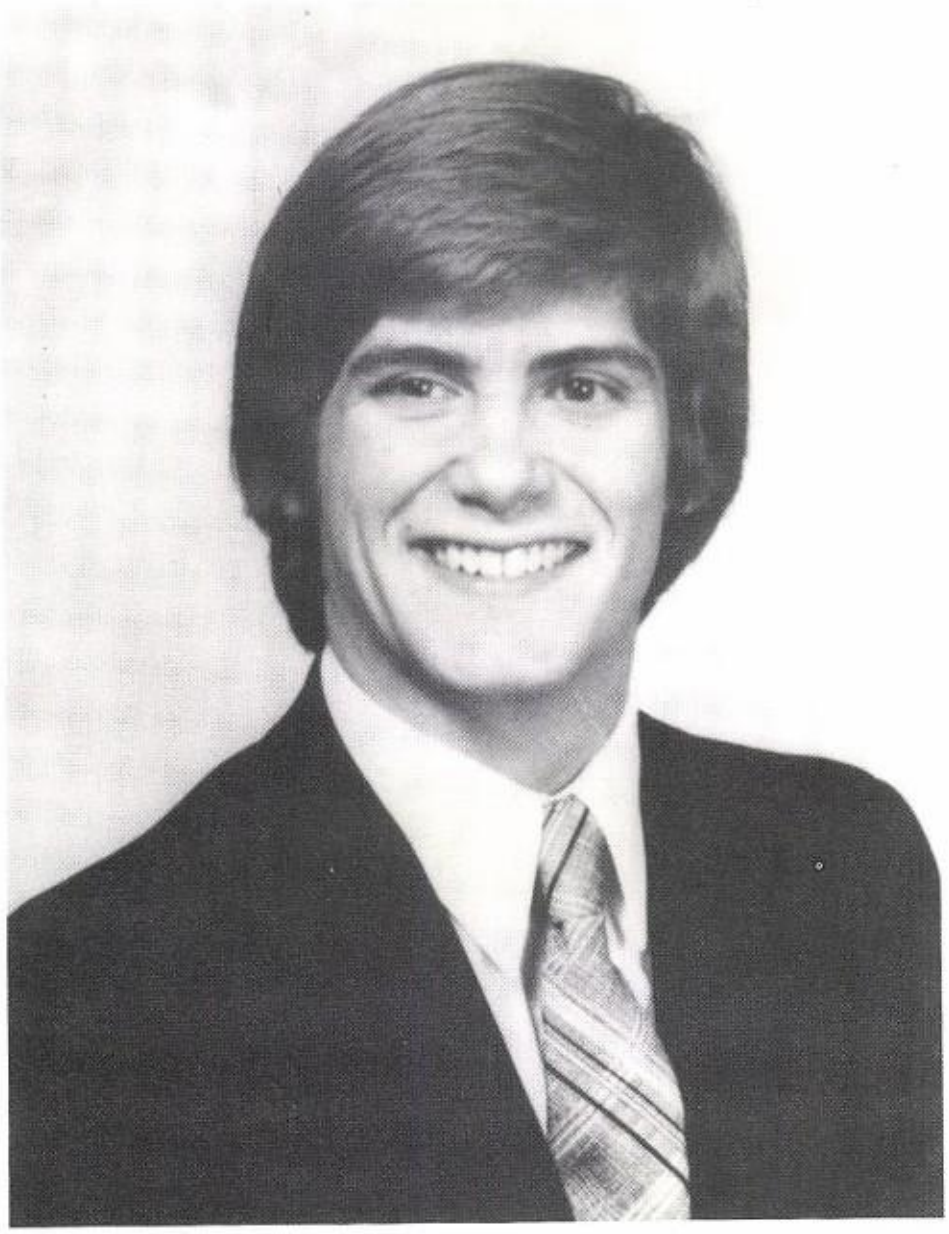
Seniors Win Acclaim



After belonging to the production company for four years, these members of the senior cast were selected as favorites in the senior acting guild. They have risen to stardom by winning the acclaim of friends and critics as well. Chosen for their personalities and dedication to the cast, these seniors are honored with the "People's Choice" Award. Shane Lashley was nominated for a good sense of humor as well as for a friendly personality. Shane divides his time outside of school between work and church activities. Cindy Forney has displayed outstanding academic ability as well as representing Southwest as a cheerleader. Her friendly smile lights the screen in which these four star. Mark Bowden has supported the senior class in many of its activities during his four years at Southwest. His concern for fellow students has been voiced in Student Council meetings. Dori Cameron was selected for her friendly outlook and cheery personality. Dori has been actively involved in both school activities and outside hobbies.

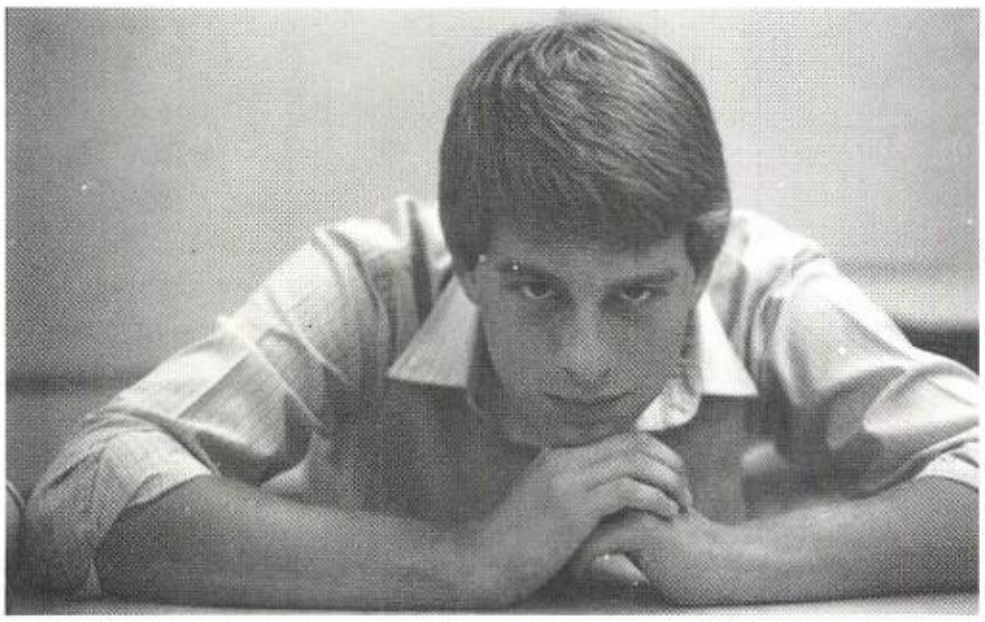
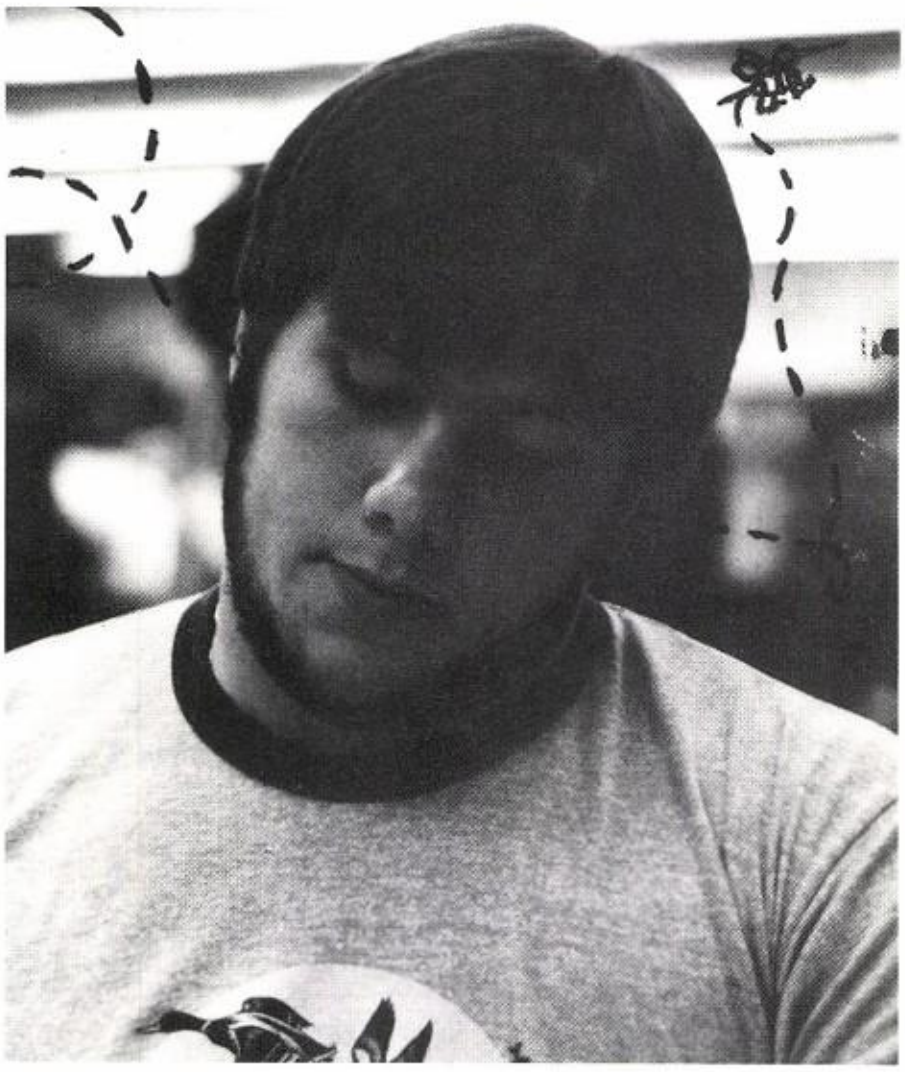
Short Takes Capture Moments

Capturing the moments of the 1980-1981 school year, a variety of personalities reflect on the originality of the graduating class. Memories of Homecoming Halls . . . long classes . . . seniorittis . . . S.A.T. . . . band practice . . . wasted time . . . term theme crunch . . . "Where are you going to college?" . . . friends . . . C.S.G. . . . invitations . . . part-time jobs . . . fill the minds at the closing of school. Frantic cries of "Let's keep in touch!", "Come over sometime.", "Remember me!", "See you at the class reunion!", expresses the ending of an era in a senior's life. While the next year brings uncertainty and doubt, the past Senior year is remembered with warmth and good times.

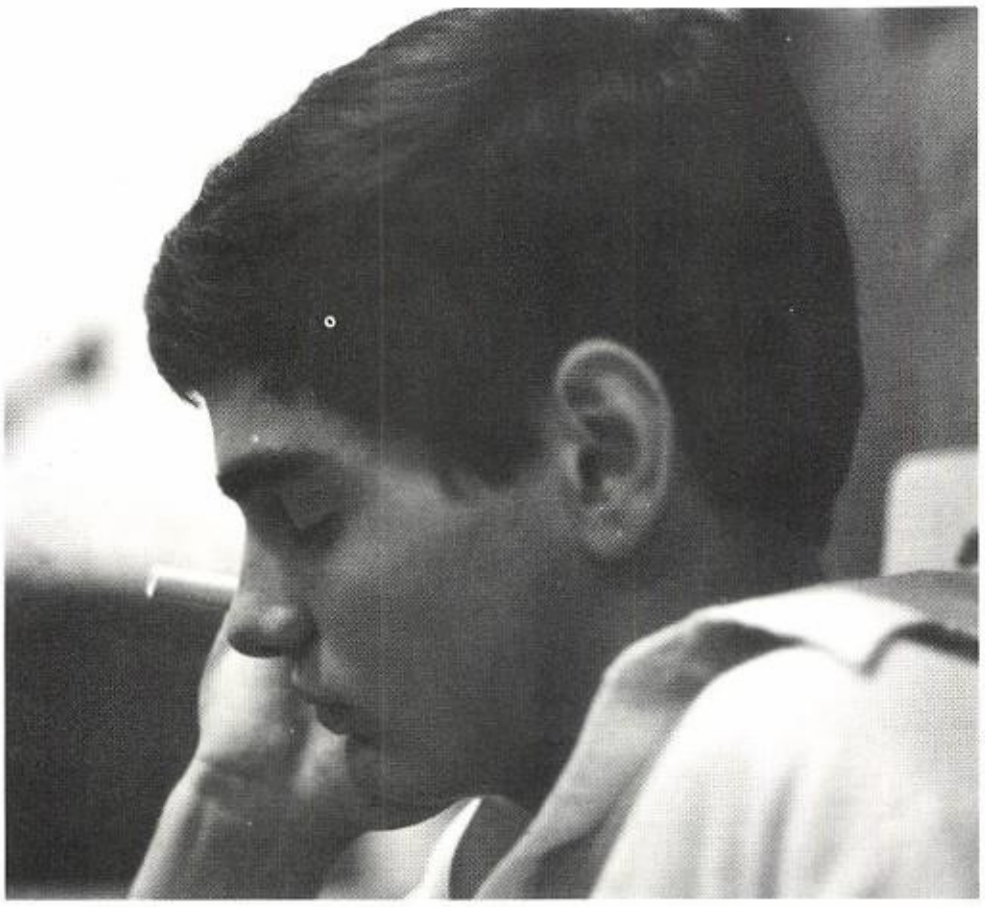
John Bogle alias Fry Brains alias Zuet plays a final tribute to Southwest's band.



Kurt Williams ponders over past high school weekends.



Hal Fewell says "Z Z Z Z . . . "



Jeff Watson knows senior material so well that he can absorb facts in his sleep.

Junior Student Council

These people were chosen by their classmates to represent the junior class on Student Council. Elected at the end of their sophomore year, they serve throughout the 80-81 year. Their activities are numerous and extend on a broad range. This is a way that many learn more about government and our democratic system.

Star Quality Shines

In every class there are outstanding stars that shine brighter than the rest. Passing the tough screen test standards and winning the approval of fellow cast members, these juniors earn the honor of "People's Choice." Terri Reinbach was selected because of her sense of humor and for being known as a practical joker. Terri has been actively involved in cheerleading three years. Brad Herron was chosen for his good sense of humor. Along with this, Brad is talented musically and a big part of the band "Royal". Stacy Westbrook was selected for having the qualities of an "All American Guy." Stacy keeps up with school activities and plays Junior Varsity football. Cindy Pursley was picked because of her sweet, quiet personality. Cindy is also known for her cooking ability. Brad Cothran has won the hearts of his fellow classmates with his nice, funny personality. Brad is also known for playing Junior Varsity baseball. Cindy Howington was chosen for her unique personality. Cindy has been a cheerleader for the last three years. Southwest thanks you and gives you a big hand of applause.

Sophomore Council

These people were chosen by their classmates to represent the Sophomore class on Student Council. Elected at the end of their Freshman year, they serve throughout the '80-'81 year. Their activities are numerous and extend on a broad range. This is a way that many learn more about government and our democratic system.

"People's Choice" Lead

Winning the award for best actors and actresses of the 1980-1981 school year from the sophomore class are six talented Southwest students. Nominated by fellow cast members, these six illustrate the personality reflected in the sophomore class. Receiving the honor of "People's Choice" are James Pettus, Tobye Bensinger, Allyson Abbott, Leslie Dean, Bruce Kelly, and Scott Sager. James Pettus' winning personality was an asset in the sophomore class elections. He is now serving as class president. James played an active role in helping set up the sophomore Homecoming hall. Tobye Bensinger's cheerful and bubbly smile soon made her a favorite among the junior varsity cheerleaders. She had been cheering for Southwest both her freshman and sophomore years. Allyson Abbott, also a cheerleader, portrays a caring and friendly attitude. Her friendliness can extend through long days at school as well as activities after school hours. Leslie Dean's carefree lifestyle adds spice to her role. She has represented her class as a cheerleader for two years, and her enthusiasm has been as asset to the team. Bruce Kelly is a charming male lead. He has won the hearts of the class with his winning smile and good humor. Bruce is also a member of the Student Council. Scott Sager is very well respected. Active in his church, Scott's easy going attitude enables him to get along with almost anyone. He has played on Varsity football team this year. Southwest gives a standing ovation to these student's fine accomplishments.

Freshman Council

The freshman student council quickly learned the ropes at Southwest and assuredly tackled the tasks at hand. They stived to maintain class unity and promote spirit in the entire student body as well. Making a good effort in their first year as Southwest Council members, the freshmen show promise for the future council organization and accomplishment.

First Act Performed

In the spotlight of the freshman class are these six outstanding celebrities. Starring in their first act at Southwest, these students are a big success. Nominated by fellow actors, the following freshmen were chosen as favorites. Brooke Harris has completed her first year of cheerleading at Southwest. Amy Holton has exhibited her ideas during her freshman year on the Student Council. Timmy Vasquez has displayed his athletic ability by playing baseball. Carolyn Richardson enthusiasm for cheerleading has brightened the freshman activities. Ted Truly has participated in leading the freshman football team to a winning season. Chris Showmaker has also devoted his time to the freshman football team. Southwest congratulates you and looks forward to the next three acts.

Miscellaneous

These people are in this section because they were severely delayed by Huns, Vandals, and Ostrogoths. Being that they were either forced to blink by severe light torture, or by lack of sleep. That is why they were cast into this small insignificant section of the annual, "the dreaded Miscellaneous section." Of coarse this is no mistake of ours; because we are perfect, (or a facsimile thereof).

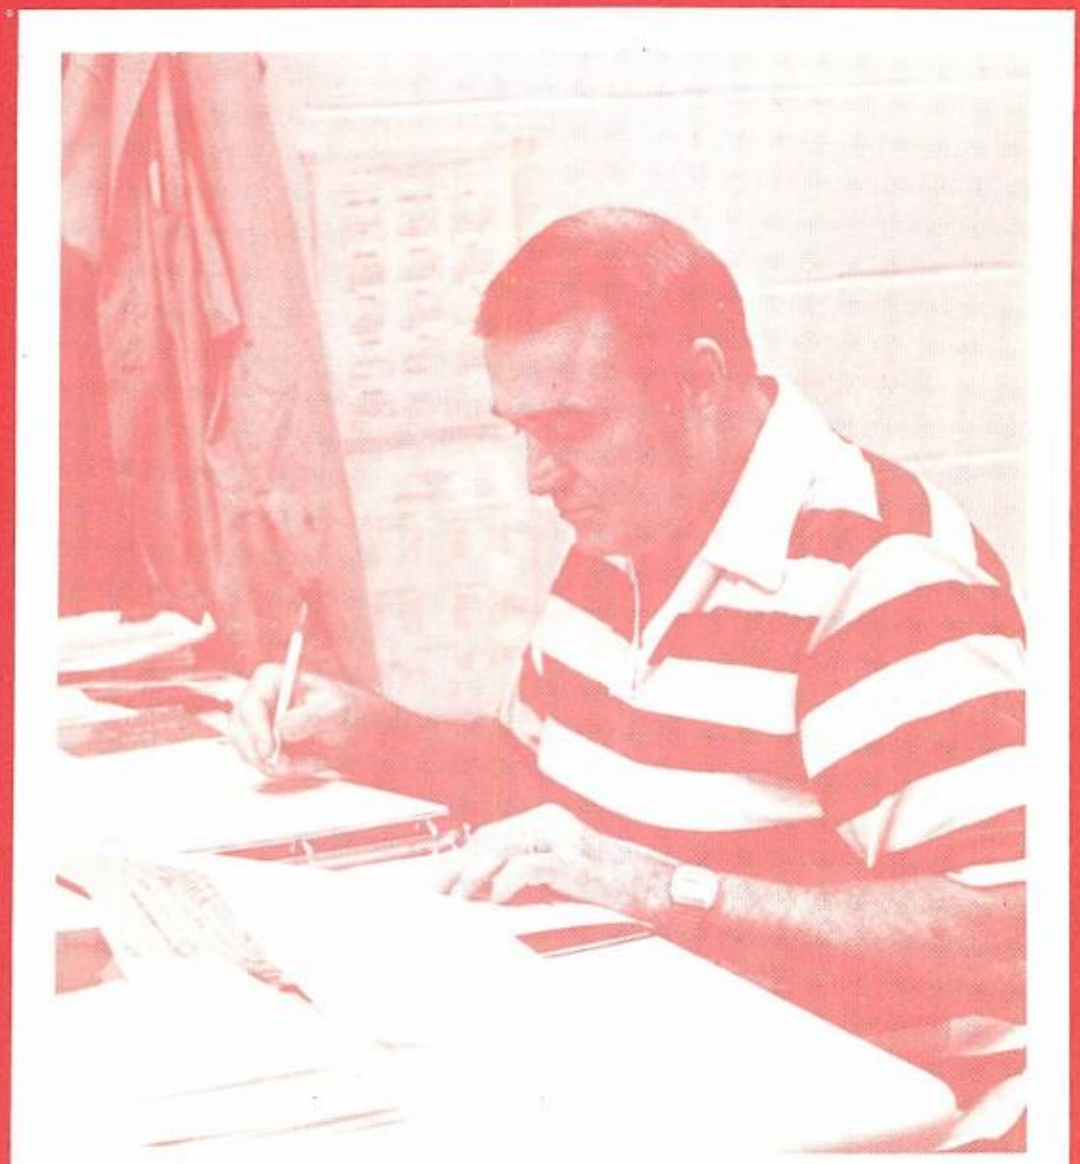
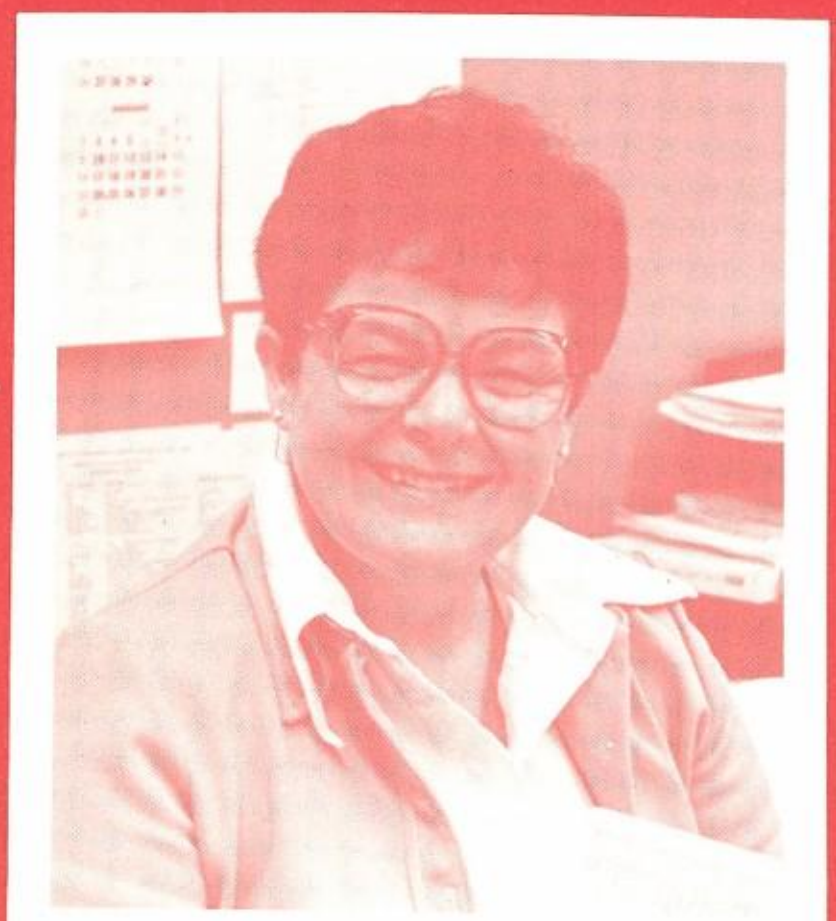
Faculty

The leadership of the directors serves to organize the cast and crew. The guidance of the faculty aids each student's life, both now and in the future. Southwest's faculty is one of the finest, and without them we could not get the "show on the road."





Candoli Selected To Lead District

Under the leadership of the Fort Worth School Board and new superintendent, the Fort Worth Independent School District is providing its students with knowledge and an equal opportunity to learn. Quality Education for every student and career training opportunities are two major goals of the Fort Worth Independent School District administration.

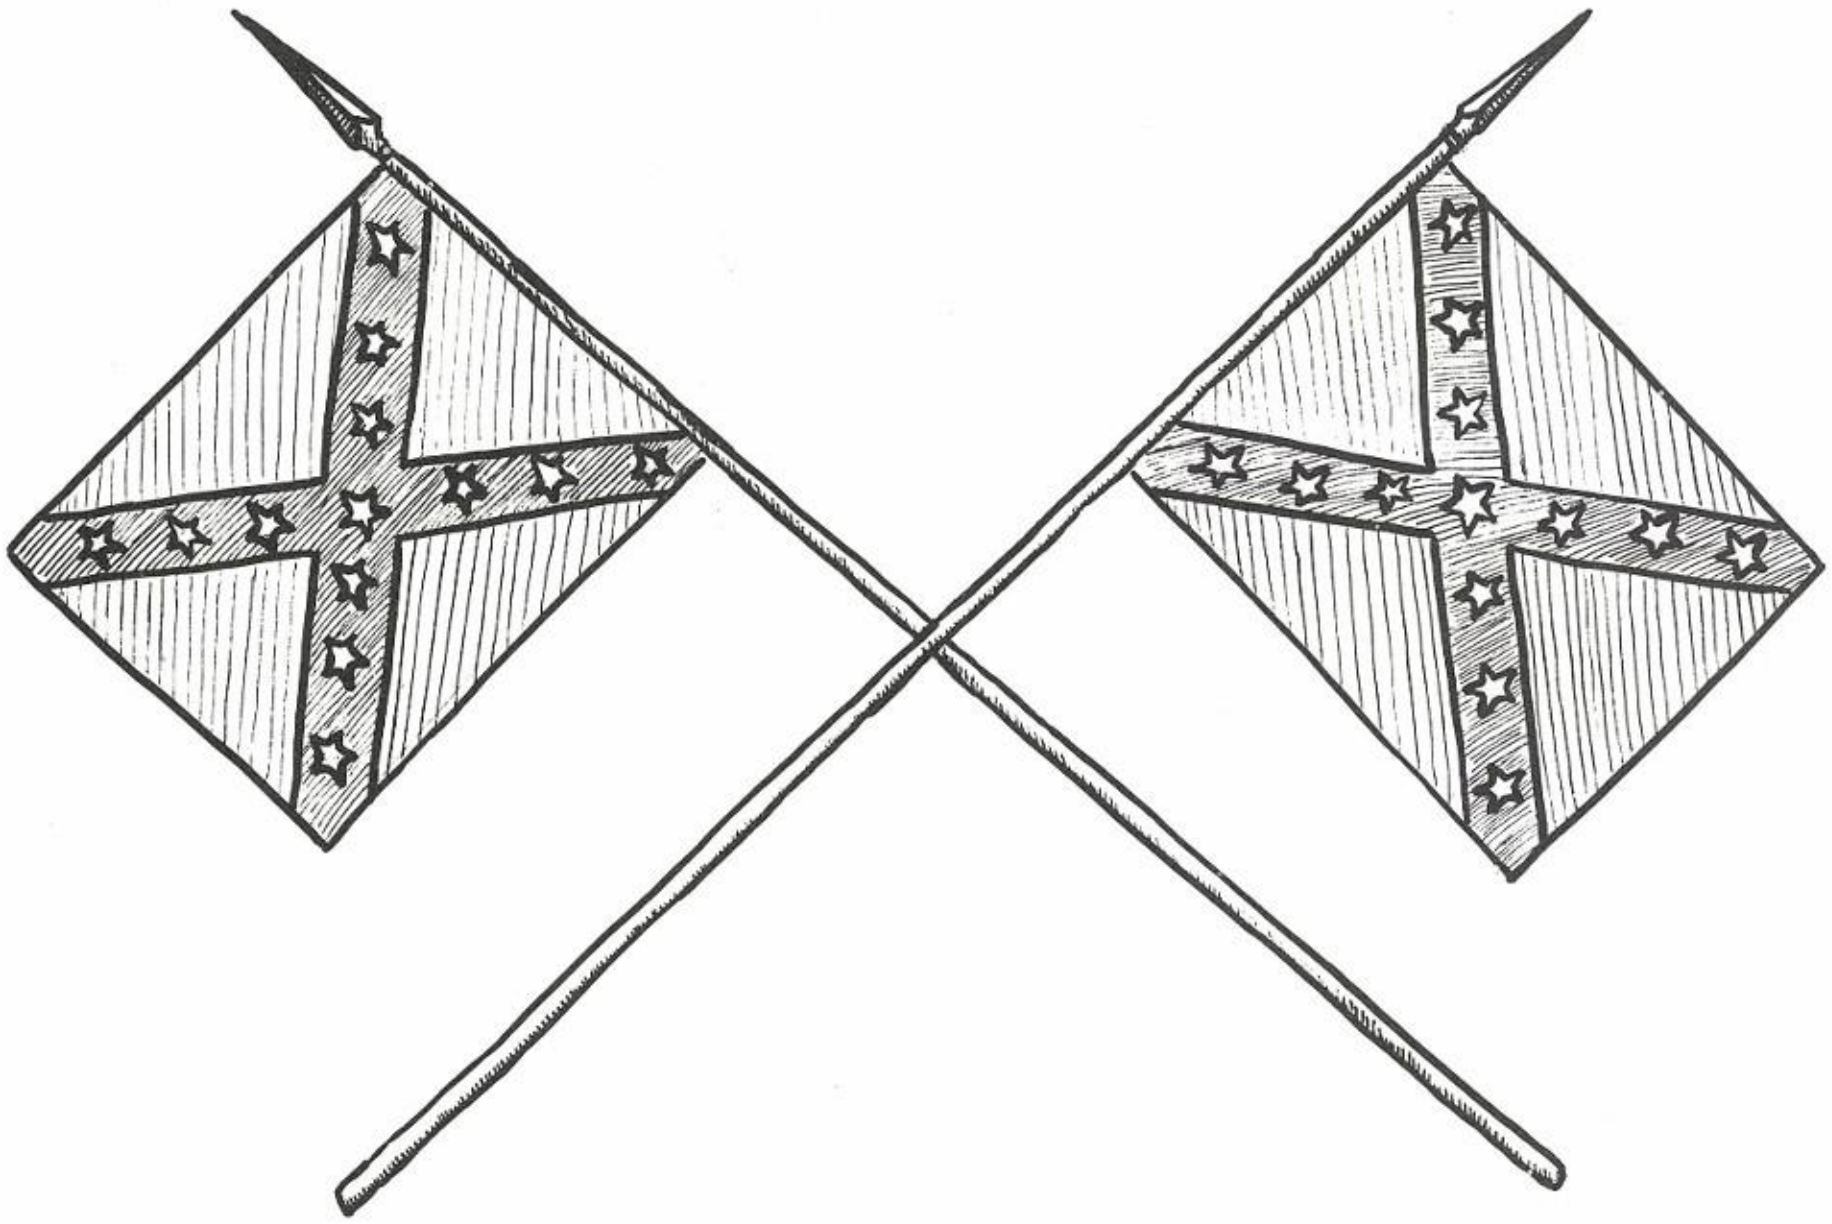
A REBEL PRODUCTION



All Rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced in any manner without written permission from the producer. (Except for brief quotes used in flattering reviews.)

This book, which we hope will be helpful to the reader, is intended to amuse, bemuse, (abuse), and provide small-talk for social gatherings. As a rule, we have made honest efforts to avoid distortion in our information. The captions and copy do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the staff, therefore we are not liable for any connotations they may induce.

Any similarity the people in these pages have to average persons living or dead is entirely possible and probably intended.
